

May Re-Match Schmeling and Sharkey to Settle Controversy

DISAPPOINTING CLIMAX LEAVES TITLE IN CHAOS

Victory On Foul Gives Schmeling Hollow Title—Out-Boxed By Sharkey Throughout Fight.

NEW YORK, June 13.—(AP)—The upset of all the fight fans may be to watch Jack Sharkey and Max Schmeling for a return bout in September to attempt a settlement of the heavyweight championship. William F. Carey, president of Madison Square Garden, told Schmeling's manager after the bout that he would be ready to discuss promotion of another contest here.

NEW YORK, June 13.—(AP)—The fight world had hoped to wake up today to celebrate the crowning of a new and undisputed world's heavyweight champion, instead, it had just another headache, hangover and controversy.

Max Schmeling won on a foul from Jack Sharkey within the last six seconds of the fourth round of what was to have been the decisive battle for the heavyweight title last night in the Yankee stadium, but they left the situation as chaotic as were the wild scenes accompanying the abrupt finish of the match.

Severely battered though he had been, the black-thatched 24-year-old German youth, who looks, big and weaves like the one and only Jack Dempsey, engaged in what ever honors and title claims go with the victory. He may, for the time being, be put at the top of the heavyweight class, at least by his own countrymen and by the New York state athletic commission, which proclaimed its right beforehand to crown the winner and successor to Gene Tunney, who retired two years ago.

Title Uncertain.
Today, cold analysis of the unsatisfactory and disappointing climax to a two-year search for 2 ft monarch of heavyweight ranks appeared to offer no sound basis for proclaiming the young German possessor of honors universal in scope, where neither of the principals in the main test, beforehand, held any clear or undisputed claim to championship position.

Dark-broned, likeable, courageous Max, experts may hold, should not be penalized and deprived of recognition for events beyond his control, but the fact remained that Schmeling was carried bodily and in apparently great pain from the ring last night, the winner, but a badly battered one.

Schmeling was hurt by a punch that was unanticipated low, after having been decisively outboxed and outpunched by Sharkey, who with one erratic blow of his fist swept away the high honors that seemed almost certain to be his.

Saved from Defeat,
The German crumpled to the floor, to be carried to his corner and declared the victor only a few minutes after it seemed he was on the verge of being cleanly knocked out in the third round, when the American battered his young rival all over the ring with a viciously sustained two-fisted onslaught.

In the third round, Sharkey hit Schmeling squarely and a quick victory apparently in his grasp. A round later, the tables were reversed with such startling rapidity that scenes of the wild disorder and confusion developed.

The fatal and final blow, intended as a felt hook for the stomach but somehow unintentionally misdirected, was delivered as the fighters were close together, along the ropes, with the tap on the comic ending the fourth round only a few seconds away. The referee, Jimmy Crowley, failed to see the punch. Withholding his decision, he sought advice from officials and finally accepted the unqualified judgment of one of the judges, Harold Barnes, and pronounced Schmeling the victor on a foul.

GRAY HAIR DISTRESSED THIS YOUNG LADY NOT YET THIRTY

Four Bottles of New Hair Tonic Has Banished the Dandruff and Gray Hairs Are Back to Youthful Color

Now READ HER DELIGHTED STORY TOLD HERSELF

"It was really embarrassing to be not over thirty years old and have gray hair and itchy annoying dandruff. It was causing my hair to comb out by the handful and my scalp seemed so dry and itchy all the time," writes Mrs. Gray, whose picture appears on the right. "Then I learned about Lea's Hair Tonic and it is nothing short of a miracle what it did for me. Four bottles and a week's shampoo with their powder did it. The first bottle made such a wonderful improvement I kept on and today my scalp is as healthy as can be. Not a bit of dandruff any more and you should have seen the gray hairs go back to its former color as a girl. I rubbed it into my scalp sparingly every night so I obtained quick results."

LAKEVIEW GETS HEAVY STICKER TO AID SUNDAY

University Player Will Add Strength for Shepherd Invasion—Merchants Look Good.

Court Hall has received a letter from a friend at Lakeview, saying the Lakeview Shepherds are pleased to herd the Merchants into camp in Sunday's game at the Jackson county fair grounds.

Manager Valencia, with two had legs will be unable to play in Sunday's game. Jack Bowman, who has been under the doctor's care all week with a badly sprained ankle, may be able to participate as a pinch hitter.

With Valencia and Bowman out of the game, Medford's hitting strength will be lessened. Medford will have to play good ball to beat Lakeview, as the Shepherds showed surprising hitting strength in the final three innings last Sunday.

Lakeview Gets Hitter.

Lakeview is after Chuck Worth, the heaviest hitter at U. of O. Worth will probably be in the Lakeview lineup Sunday. Chuck wanted to play with the Medford team, but no job could be secured for him here.

Jobs have been scarce lately and Business Manager Hall is forced to only take on players, who have jobs. Medford has a good lush league team, but Hall wishes to add a little more hitting strength in the outfield.

In securing Kauffmann, catcher for the former Ashland team, as an outfielder, Hall thinks he has just the player needed to fill out the Medford team.

Harry Dunn continues his good work at short, and has become one of the most valuable players on the Medford team. Harry and Chester took care of second in fine style in the Lakeview game. Bowman also took care of third in great shape.

O'Brien certainly crosses up opposing outfielders. He hits left handed, but hits into left field on center as often as he hits into right.

Medford has been unfortunate in having cool Sundays, playing home games, but with next Sunday assured as a warm day, fan attendance should be perceptibly increased. Sunday's game will be the last appearance on the home grounds until July 6.

Medford plays three home games in July and the two last games of the league season at home.

HARRY ELLIOTT WILL WRESTLE INDIAN CHAMP

George (Wildcat) Pete of Eugene, anxious to gain possession of the diamond studded belt, significant of the world's midweight championship, and scheduled to wrestle Yaqui Joe here next Monday night for the championship, will forego the battle because of a serious carbuncle that has developed on his back with a possibility of infection, a telephone message from Herb Owen at Eugene indicated this afternoon.

To take its place in this championship affair, Harry Elliott, 157 pounds, and former wrestling instructor at the University of Oregon, has been engaged to wrestle the Indian in a finish battle. Due to being three or four pounds overweight the belt will not be at stake. Elliott is a finished wrestler, is well known in Medford and Klamath Falls and recently defeated Gob Watkins in two straight falls.

The Sonnenberg tackle and whip wrestler are two of his favorite wrestling tricks and Elliott is confident he can give the champion plenty to think about Monday night. Medford fans have always wanted to see Elliott in a main event and the opportunity has been finally granted through the unexpected change in the card.

However, as soon as Pete's carbuncle is gone he will be down to wrest the belt away from the Indian, and until then, as soon as his injury allows, will be preparing for the Indian, who is now in the midst of preparing for his bout with Elliott.

Dummy Powell, not seen in a local ring for some time, will perform in the special event.

OUT OF KEELER'S GOLF BAG

By O. B. Keeler.
The Royal St. Georges Golf club course at Sandwich offered the Americans for the 1930 Walker Cup match what everybody called "American weather" until two of the very mildest and sweetest natures on the American side were just a bit ruffled. I was talking with Bobby Jones, the captain, and Francis Quiet, the Boston veteran, at the Granville Hotel at Ramsgate, the morning of the second day of the match, the first day having seen the American side winning three out of four matches at foursomes.

"The subject of the weather came up."

"Do you know," said Bobby, "I really wish it would blow some. These boys over here think we Americans can't play in a wind. I mean, I've heard of it so much, that yesterday was an American day, that I'm a bit fed up."

"So am I," said Francis. "I think I should like to have a round in the wind, with all the others. I am not playing so very well in a calm air—it might even help me a bit. I think the assumption that Americans can't play according to weather conditions is just a trifle far-fetched."

Quiet's wish went ungratified. The second day also was on the calm side. And it may have been merely a long-shot suggestion, that Francis would have beaten Tony Torrance in a wind. Tony was playing great golf, in American weather. And he won the only match for Britain, in the singles.

This is by way of being a little coincidence. Two years ago, at the Chicago Golf club Tony Torrance was the only Briton to win a match. Their side at Wheaton lost all four matches in foursomes, and seven of the eight, in singles. Tony Torrance, a member of the Royal and Ancient Golf club of St. Andrews, won his match with Chick Evans on the thirty-sixth green, holing a six-foot putt.

I wrote a little story about it, at the time, and maybe it will not be out of place to repeat it here, since Tony again won the only match at singles captured by the British side.

"At the tall seat walked off the last green at Wheaton, his face gray with the strain of the last hour's play, some reporter asked him:

"Mr. Torrance, how long was that last putt?"

"Tony looked down at the inter-locator, his eyes still far away from the scene.

"Which I don't know," he replied. "All I could see was the R. and A. club house, in the background."

Tony came up to me in the Royal St. Georges club house at Sandwich, and told me someone had sent him a clipping of that story, nearly two years ago. Well, I still think it's a golf story. Tony said that it was perfectly true. That does not hurt it any.

PECKINPAUGH'S MEDFORD'S PRO EIGHT PITCHERS INDIANS SNEAK IN NORTHWEST ON FIRING LINE UP ON LEADERS OPEN TOURNEY IN NIGHT GAME

Quiet Aggregation From Cleveland Now in Second Place—Win 14 in Last 18 Starts.

By Herbert W. Barker.
Associated Press Sports Writer.
While other clubs have been getting most of the public's notice, Peckinpaugh's Cleveland Indians have been attending strictly to business, taking all rivals as they come, until today they had pushed into second place in the American league standing, only a game behind the pace-setting Philadelphia Athletics.

Great pitching by Ferrell, Hudlin and Brown has been the outstanding feature of the Indians' upward surge since May 24. In the intervening three weeks Peckinpaugh's men have won 14 games and lost only four.

The Indians' sixth consecutive victory yesterday and their second in a row from the Athletics enabled them to leap into second place, while Washington was bowing to Chicago. As the race stands now, all three leaders have lost 19 games, with the A's winning 33; Cleveland 31 and Washington 30.

Indians Shut Out A's.
Clint Brown pitched great ball to give the Indians a shutout triumph over the A's, 4-0, granting only four hits.

The Senators bowed to Chicago's White Sox, 10-6, in a feeble hitting battle that saw Ted Lyons chalk up his ninth victory of the season.

The New York Yankees fell on Waite Hoyt and two successors for 22 hits, including Babe Ruth's 20th homer of the season, and trounced the Detroit Tigers, 11-2.

Walter Stewart won his eighth victory for the St. Louis Browns, beating Boston, 6-5.

In the National league, Brooklyn stretched its lead to four and one-half games by beating Cincinnati, 5-2.

Pittsburg halted the New York Giants' nine-game winning streak, 10-7.

Clayton Willoughby scored his first victory of the season as the Phillies beat the Cubs, 5-3, in a game halted by rain in the sixth. Chuck Klein got three singles for the Phils and ran his consecutive hitting streak to 29 games.

Joe Mozell Among 52 Entrants to Start Trek of Treacherous Vancouver, B. C., Course.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 13.—(AP)—How to play the rolling, bottle-necked fairways, treacherous traps and tricky greens of the Shughnessy Heights golf course on Friday the 13th, was the problem facing the 52 contestants at the start of the annual two-day Pacific Northwest open golf tournament here today.

Thirty professionals and 23 amateurs—the pick of the northwest's best golf ball chasers—entered the 72-hole medal play competition this year in search of gold and golfing honors. Thirty-six holes was scheduled for today with the final 36 to be contested tomorrow.

Nell Christian, Portland professional, is entered.

Among Yankee entries is Joe Mozell of Medford, Ore.

The open tournament will be followed by the Pacific Northwest amateur meet for men and women next week.

Solons Defeat Acorns, 14 to 12 in Bat Fest—Angels Stop Seal Drive in Tight Contest.

(By the Associated Press.)
Maintaining their habit of coming through with convenient victories whenever their Pacific Coast league lead is threatened, the Sacramento team stayed out in front by downing the Oakland club last night in a free-hitting spree, 14 to 12. Eight pitchers worked in the weird encounter, the Oaks going into the last of the eighth with a two-run lead only to have the Sacoes score four off Hurlst, to give the victory to Gould, at the time hurling for Sacramento.

San Francisco was stopped temporarily in its thrust at league honors, being trimmed by Los Angeles, 4 to 3, after coming within a game and a half of the lead. Curtis Perry, relief hurler, walked Jacobs with the bases full in the tenth, breaking up what had been a fairly tight ball game.

Mission hopes, high at the beginning of the week, took another jolt when Hollywood defeated the Reds for the second time, 8 to 5. The Stars made five off Nelson in the first three innings, and Ted Pillette was sent in to stave off the attack.

Tain caused the postponement of the Portland game at Seattle.
