Moments of Long Ago
A man riding a high-wheeled velocipede down by the courthouse this forenoon brought County Judge Alex Sparrow hurrying to the window to watch the ancient contrivance in operation. While watching, his face took on wise smiles and he told of many falls he had taken from such means of transportation years ago. Whenever the small rear wheel struck a rock or bump, the only thing the rider could do was to fall several feet to the ground.

COOLING FOODS FOR HOT WEATHER

With the coming of hot weather comes the desire and necessity for a change of diet. The heavier foods so much enjoyed throughout the cooler months are not so palatable neither are they so good for you. Salads, fruits, light cold lunches not only taste better, but are better for you—and besides they keep you out of the hot kitchen. and it's so easy to have them— whether for a home meal or the weekly picnic outing our Delicatessen can supply your entire needs and at no greater expense than if you prepared them at home. So stay out of the kitchen as much as possible—get more pleasure from your outings by avoiding the fatigue from advance preparation—add to your leisure time—and spend no more. This is just one more service possible only at the Groceteria.
