PYTHIANS NAME NEW OFFICIALS

NALLEY. — Mrs. Anna C. Nalley was born September 2, 1867, near Chicago, Ill. As a little child she moved with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Painter, near Butler, Mo., and from there to Rapahous, Neb. She was married at Holdrege, Neb., to P. K. Nalley, October 21, 1891. Neb. They made their home in Lincoln, Neb., for several years, where she became an intimate friend of William Jennings Bryan and his family.

On moving to Oregon in December, 1904, accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nalley made their home at 707 West Main street, Medford, where she passed away June 13, 1930, at 10 a. m., after a brief illness.

Her entire life was spent in service for others. For several years she had devoted her life to socialized divine healing, and claimed many marvelous cures.

Services will be held at Corner's funeral parlors, Monday, June 16, at 2:30, in charge of H. G. Stock and Helene B. Milburn. Interment in the mausoleum.
