

Boy Scouts Will Benefit From Mail Tribune Trap Tourney

ENTRY FEES GO TO BUILD CAMP LAKE O'WOODS

Medford Stars Contribute Merchandise Prizes for Big Tourney — All Entrants Will Get Something

Southern Oregon trapsters are looking forward to a big day of pigeon shooting on Sunday, June 22nd, when the Rogue Valley Gun club's fine new grounds and clubhouse will be opened with the first annual Mail Tribune trap tourney. On that day a large number of shooters will vie for the handsome Tribune trophy and countless other awards and merchandise prizes.

Everyone who enters, in fact, will win some prize and Medford's leading stores are contributing merchandise for the event. At an early date the donors of these prizes will be published in the Mail Tribune.

Owing to the fact that the Boy Scouts' summer camp on Applegate burned last year, the scouts are going to have a new camp at Lake O' Woods. This camp will be conducted in conjunction with the Klamath Falls scouts and funds are needed for the capital investment in this very worthy project.

Scouts Get Funds. Owing to the need of the scouts for additional funds, the proceeds of the first annual Mail Tribune trap shoot, above actual expenses, will be given to the Medford scout organization. As the scouts are in need of this help, the Greater Medford club has voluntarily withdrawn their part in the Tribune shoot so that the scout fund may benefit by the shoot.

Each year the Mail Tribune will present to some worthy charity in need of funds in addition to the Community Chest, the proceeds of the Tribune trophy trap shoot. Officers and members of the Rogue Valley Gun club are generously cooperating with the Tribune in planning this annual event. The money derived from the yearly shoot will come from entry fees only, as the public has been cordially invited to witness the trap shoot as guests of the Tribune and the Rogue Valley Gun club.

For the convenience of those who wish to enter the first annual shoot, an enrollment blank is being published in this issue. The blank should be filled out and mailed to S. G. Mendenhall, manager Rogue Valley Gun club, at his offices in the Fox Craterian building.

JUNIOR BASEBALL PLAYERS PRACTICE

Junior American Legion ball players gathered at the Jackson school playground this afternoon for their second practice, under the coaching of Tom Higgins. Practice was held yesterday afternoon, and about fifteen of the young players showed that they knew something of baseball.

The team will be chosen Wednesday, June 18, and the best player will be awarded at this time with a ball, glove and bat. Fred Scheffel of the American Legion is managing the team. The boys trying out for the team must not be over sixteen, no one being eligible who was born before September 14, 1912.

A larger number was expected to attend the afternoon practice. Mr. Scheffel said this morning, due to those who have been on kitted ball teams trying out for the junior team.

The Medford team will compete for the district championship with teams from all parts of southern Oregon, the winner to compete for the state title to be decided at the Legion convention in Bend.

Heads Moose. HOQUIAM, Wash., June 14.—(P)—Thomas G. Ryan, Portland attorney, was elected president of Northwest Moose association during the closing session of the 15th annual convention here today. Tacoma was selected for the 16th convention city.

INDIAN TRIBE TOPS LEAGUE IN HOT DRIVE

Seventh Straight Victory Carries Cleveland Team to Pinnacle of American Circuit.

By Orlo Robertson. Associated Press Sports Writer. The Cleveland Indians, picked to finish no higher than fourth place in the American league pennant race, today are out in front after a whirlwind dash to the top that has left the remainder of the clubs and the Athletics in particular, groggy.

With a championship brand of pitching and a murderous attack, the Indians yesterday rolled up their seventh victory and their third over the world champions to go into the lead by four points.

As if to make their advance into the leadership even more impressive, the Indians downed the champions 13 to 2 as Wesley Farrell turned in his tenth victory of the season. George Walberg, usually the nemesis of the Cleveland batters, was no puzzle and before the game was over he had been driven to the showers and Eddie Rommel called to his rescue.

The Senators took the White Sox into camp 6 to 2, when Al Liska held Chicago to four hits. The victory left the Senators only a half game out of second place.

Pitching Duel. At St. Louis Rip Collins and Milton Gaston staged an old-fashioned hurling duel as the Browns defeated the Red Sox, 1 to 0, in 11 innings.

In contrast, Detroit and the New York Yankees put on a modern game of baseball—slamming the ball to every corner of the field as the Yankees won 10 to 9. A total of 27 hits were collected by both teams.

In the National league, Astor's League, a veteran of many a major league game, lost his first contest of the 1930 season when the Cincinnati Reds pounded out an 8 to 5 triumph over the Brooklyn Robins.

The Chicago Cubs managed to nose out the Phillies, 7 to 5, in a see-saw contest.

Rained out for two days, the Cardinals and Braves finally came together, with the latter winning, 9 to 8, in 10 innings.

Southpaw Bill Walker turned in his eighth victory of the season when the Giants trounced the Pirates, 7 to 2, in the last game of the series.

4 BUSH LEAGUE TILTS SCHEDULED SUNDAY

Four bush league games tomorrow will attract the attention of quite a number of baseball fans in different parts of the valley. Modoc will play Talent at Eagle Point; Kenwood vs. 401 at Talent; Steeles vs. Jacksonville at Grant; Eagle Point vs. Pirates at Jacksonville. This is the second game of the series.

College Mat Coach Will Step Into Fast Company

Harry Elliott.

Harry Elliott, Eugene, former University of Oregon wrestling coach, may pull a few college tricks on Yuqui Joe, Sonora, Mex. Indian when they meet at the armory Monday night in a finish, non-title match. Yuqui Joe is holder of the world's junior middleweight wrestling championship, winning it in Medford two weeks ago from Henry Jones, Provo, Utah, who had held it for several years at various times.

Elliott and the Indian are evenly matched, with the execution of several pounds of additional weight on the part of the former, who will tip the scales around 157 pounds. Joe is not taking his match with Elliott lightly and has been at the seashore for the past week, resting and training for the Eugene man, who just recently entered the professional side of wrestling after having won quite a string of amateur bouts.

EXPECT DE MAR LEAD MARATHON

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 14.—(P)—America's marathon marvel, Clarence de Mar, Keene, N. H., school teacher, today is favored to lead a field of 60 probable starters to the tape in the second annual pre-Olympic race of 26 miles, 385 yards.

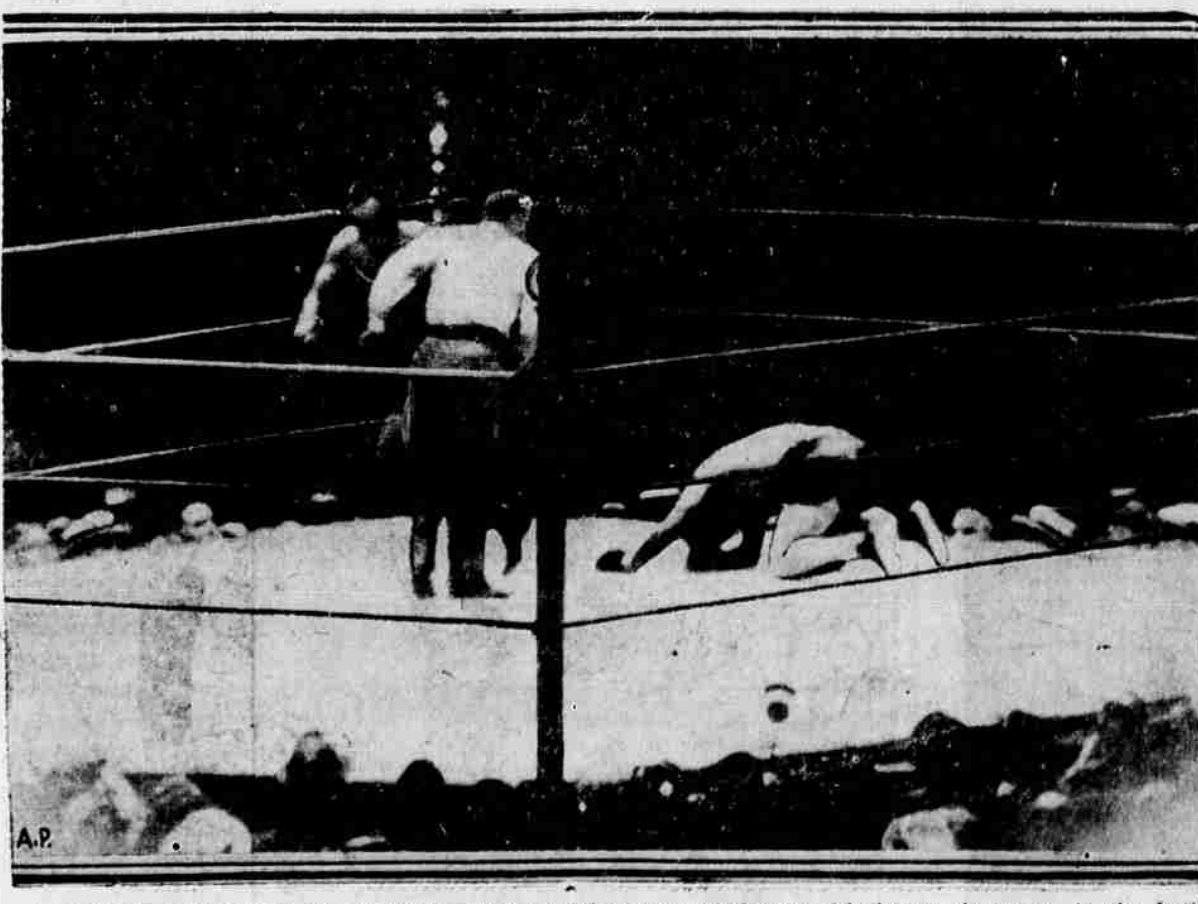

His right to add the annual distance grind here to his list of victories this spring will be strongly challenged by the sturdy little Navajo Indian, Harry Chaka, who defeated the Olympic star last season. A third contender for the victory is John Burton of the United American A. C., San Francisco, winner of the Vallejo marathon last fall.

DOC SNELL BEATS LOS ANGELES BOY

SEATTLE, Wash., June 14.—(P)—Scoring knockdowns in the first and fourth round, Doc Snell, Tacoma welterweight, battered his way to a clear-cut decision over Tony Portillo, Los Angeles, in a six-round main event here last night.

Tommy Fielding of Victoria, B. C., and Don Fraser of Spokane, 140 pounders, drew in six rounds, while Eddie Thomas of Bellingham won a six-round decision over Johnny Hawkes of Seattle at 135 pounds. Jimmy Beck, Tacoma negro, decisively won the Vallejo marathon last fall.

BOYS DESERVE FANS' SUPPORT IN SUNDAY TILT

Merchants Putting Out Fine Brand of Ball to Keep Medford Among League Contenders.

To get to the ball game tomorrow, between Lakeview and Medford, all northern fans will take the new Pacific highway south from Medford, turn in at fairgrounds on road directly opposite Stewart avenue. Fans from the south will take Stewart avenue, east, or Pacific highway from Medford south.

The Medford Merchants had a stiff workout last evening, preparatory to meeting the Lakeview Shepherds.

Should the Pelicans and Merchants win their games tomorrow, they will still be in a tie for the pennant for the first half of the season.

The decided game then will be played at Klamath Falls, June 22, and the winner of this contest will be given the pennant for the first half.

July 6th Next Game. Tomorrow's game will be the last appearance of the Merchants on their home grounds until July 6th.

Medford gets three games at home in July, and also plays the last two closing games at home the latter part of August.

With nice weather, the fans should give the Merchants a good turnout Sunday. Medford, so far, has been having the poorest attendance of the league. With the type of ball our boys are putting out, the attendance certainly should be increased.

TEDDY WATTERS BEATS WATKINS

EUGENE, Ore., June 14.—(P)—Texas Teddy Watters, Amarillo, Tex., defeated Sailor Tex Watkins in a rough and tumble wrestling match here last night, taking two falls out of three.

Watkins took the first fall in 25 seconds, Watters winning the last two in 30 minutes and 8 minutes, respectively.

In a preliminary match Harry Elliott, wrestling instructor at the University of Oregon, won from Tommy Ryan, Seattle, taking one fall in six rounds under Australian rules.

HUMAN CATAPULT HAS BROKEN HURLING ARM

ALLENSTEIN, Germany, June 14.—(P)—Emile Hirschfeld, holder of the world's record for shotput, today broke his right forearm in a motorcycle accident.

Surgeons expressed the belief that, although two bones were fractured, Hirschfeld will recover the full use of his arm.

Fencing of Rogue Making New Problem For Nimrods Access By Law Advocated

It seems reasonable to believe that the Rogue river will be closed to commercial fishing, either by legislative act at the next session of the state lawmakers, or by constitutional amendment at the November election, says James H. McCool, in his Oregonian feature, "Wild Life Lines."

There is a bill for such an amendment to be voted on in November. Governor Norblad has promised to recommend that the legislature pass such a bill. So it looks like the reign of the commercial fishermen on the Rogue is past its zenith.

But of what avail will the closing of the river to commerce be if private interests fence both banks of the stream along its choicest fishing waters?

Nearly every day there appears in some country newspaper of southern Oregon an account of some sale of river frontage for summer home purposes. Millions of acres of California, New York, New Jersey and elsewhere in the United States have their eyes fixed on the Rogue and they are buying acreage that abuts the stream, clear from its mouth to the upper reaches.

In the most recent issue of the Curry County Reporter was an item telling of the sale by John M. Woodworth of 225 acres of land on the Rogue river at the mouth of Silver creek, to Elio Hooker of New York. Mr. Hooker is head of the Hooker Electro-Chemical company, nationally famous producer of chlorine.

Mr. Hooker wants to make a summer home out of the property, which has a frontage of a quarter mile on the river. Now if Mr. Hooker fences his property with a high fence, how is a common every day angler going to get through without trespassing on Mr. Hooker's land?

And Mr. Hooker is only one of many who have bought places on the Rogue. A Medford sportsman, here a few days ago, said it would be only a few years until virtually both banks of the Rogue would be fenced off by summer home builders.

"There are 25 or 30 court decisions on what constitutes a navigable stream," says Harold Clifford, state game warden. "On all navigable streams the fisherman has the right to fish from the banks of the river and, no matter who owns the land adjacent to the fishing waters, but these decisions are conflicting. No body seems to be able to make a universal definition of a navigable stream."

"Once a man has purchased land on the banks of the river and fenced it, the issue of determining whether a fisherman can trespass on such land in the pursuit of his fishing lies on the fishermen. I imagine that few anglers would care to take the time and money to make a test case."

Why couldn't the state legislature pass a law requiring that the owner of any land abutting the Rogue river or other fishing stream of Oregon must permit access to its banks by fishermen?

If something like this is not done the closing of our rivers to commercial fishermen will simply mean the fostering of private fishing grounds of millionaires, with the sportsmen of the state paying for the fish that these wealthy men catch, or invite their friends to catch.

SENATORS TRADE GOSLIN FOR TWO BROWN PLAYERS

ST. LOUIS, June 14.—(P)—Leon "Goose" Goslin, hard hitting outfielder of the Washington Senators, has been traded to the St. Louis Browns for Heinie Manush, outfielder, and "General" Alvin Crowder, a pitcher. According to Bill Frell, Browns' business manager, the deal was a straight player trade with no cash involved.

The trade was engineered via the telephone last night by the presidents of both clubs, Phil Ball of the Browns and Charge Griffith of Washington.

Goslin will appear in a Brown uniform today and Manush in the Senators' outfit as the two teams open a four-game series here today. It will be Washington's first appearance at Sportsman's park this season.

BEAVERS SHOW SIGNS OF LIFE IN INDIAN TILTS

Friday Victory Gives Edge in Series—Missions On Home Run Spree Against Stars.

Portland hinted at the possibility of rising out of last place by winning from Seattle, 5 to 1, yesterday and taking a lead in the series. Grtman, Duck moundman, shut the Indians out after the first inning, while House and Lanianski were ineffective.

Anxious to remain in consideration as one of the contenders for honors in the first half of the Coast league season, the heavy hitting Missions went on a home run spree yesterday to beat Hollywood, 9 to 5, and even their series. Rosenberg got two home runs and Boone, Hofmann and Monroe one each.

Oakland came through with a ninth inning double off Lem Hard's bat to score two and defeat Sacramento, 6 to 5, to keep the five leading clubs well bunched.

Los Angeles regained an ever so slight hold on second place by downing San Francisco, 6 to 2, tying the series at two all.

Yankee Pug Beaten. SYDNEY, June 14.—(P)—Jack Haines, middleweight champion of Australia, defeated Larry Brig-molla of America on points in a fast boxing bout tonight.

Watson scored the decisive victory in the final match, which was close, hard-fought and decided by scores of 7-5, 1-6, 6-4.
