

CITY MANAGER FORM STUDIES NOT COMPLETE

Council Will Get Report and Recommendations Later Meeting — Change in Charter.

At the city council meeting tonight the question of the proposed changing the form of municipal government will not be formally considered or discussed, as the citizens committee and council advisory committee appointed at the last meeting, and of which Councilman J. C. Collins is chairman, will not be ready to present the result of their deliberations.

The sub-committee consisting of Mr. Collins and W. E. Crews, which has been studying various types of the commission or manager form of government and drawing up a measure, based on them, which they consider the best plan for Medford, will have the lengthy proposed measure completed by tomorrow night when it will be presented to the entire committee for consideration and approval.

If the whole committee approves the plan submitted by this sub-committee, then the plan will be presented to the city council at its meeting two weeks from now, or possibly at a special council meeting, for adoption or rejection.

The Proposed New Plan

Chairman Collins stated this noon that the proposed changed form of government, which the sub-committee has drawn up for submission to the entire committee is modeled practically without deviation from the commission-manager forms of government at Bend and Astoria, which have been well tested and proved very satisfactory, and which are along the lines of the Oregon City and La Grande form of government.

The new plan as drawn up by the sub-committee for presentation before the whole committee tomorrow night, and which it is anticipated will be approved by that committee for consideration of the city council, provides for a commissioner form of government with a city manager and municipal judge. The three commissioners would be elected by the people for terms of four years each, one of whom would go out of office every two years. They in turn would appoint a city manager and municipal judge, and act in an advisory capacity over city affairs during their terms of office. The terms of the manager and judge would be discretionary with the commissioner.

Important Rules in Beauty Contest Given Out By Medford Lions Club

Due to misunderstandings concerning the beauty contest being conducted locally by the Lions club, a number of the most important rules are given as follows:

Entries must be selected by elimination contest conducted by some newspaper, theatre, commercial or civic body, or other agency in their home city, properly sponsored by such agency. (The local Lions club is sponsoring for Medford this world-wide beauty contest in which some Medford girls will take part.)

No agency will be recognized unless arrangements for affiliation have previously been made with the parent committee and regular form of contract executed.

(The local Lions club has paid for this privilege to give Medford a representative at Jantzen Beach, near Portland, July 16, where a young lady will be chosen as "Miss Oregon" from girls representing cities all over the state.)

All contestants must be of good moral character between 16 and 25 years of age and unmarried. Any unbecoming conduct upon the part of such contestants during the life of the pageant will result in disbarment and forfeiture of all rights in the premises.

Contest is open to amateurs only. Any participant found to have had stage, motion picture or semi-professional experience will be disqualified.

Contestants must be furnished with the costumes in which to compete: Sports costume or afternoon frock, bathing costume and evening gown. (The Lions club will make arrangements to outfit "Miss Medford".)

Prizes in the Galveston "International Pageant of Pulchritude" will be $2000 in gold and a silver plaque denoting award of title "Miss Medford" (grand prize); first prize, $1000; second prize, $500, and third to ninth prizes $100 each.

ment would be under the city manager, who appoints the heads of each, but the municipal judge would preside over his own department and the municipal court.

The commission would also elect as mayor one of its own members, whose duty it would be to preside at the commission's meetings and sign all official city documents. In case the council formally adopts the plan the matter will be placed before the voters of the city for a change in city charter necessary, at the November election for approval or rejection. If approved by the voters the new form of government would be inaugurated in January.

MONUMENT CASE READY FOR JURY THIS AFTERNOON

The case of F. W. Snyder, Klamath Falls and Ashland, monument salesman, charged with the alleged utterance of a forged contract in the sale of a monument, will go to the jury late this afternoon. Closing arguments started with the opening of court this afternoon.

Snyder is alleged to have secured money on the sale of the alleged forged contracts, one such being signed by Mrs. Laura G. Pierce of Ashland. The total amount involved is $600.

J. C. Hopper of Ashland, well-known throughout Jackson county, was called to the witness stand this morning. He purchased one of the alleged forged contracts from the defendant. Hopper collapsed on the stand and was carried from the courtroom.

A motion for a directed verdict for acquittal for the defendant was denied by the court late yesterday, after a two hour argument.

Six witnesses were called this morning for the defense, including several from Klamath Falls.

The defendant entered a general denial of the charges.

quently knew banking secrets which they did not broadcast, as a matter of sound policy, and that the same applied to other matters.

Following the public hearing, the board of control went into executive session and after an hour's deliberation voted not to accept Merriam's resignation, a fact published Sunday throughout the state," concluded Mr. Burch.

TARIFF ACT ISSIGNED BY PRESIDENT

Oregon Representative Sees President Put Pen to Famous Document—In Effect at Midnight—Little Confusion Expected.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—(AP)—President Hoover today signed the tariff bill.

The bill was signed at 12:59:30 p. m. in the presence of Secretary Mellon, Francis X. A. Eble, commissioner of customs and four of the six Republican conferees, including Senators Smoot, Utah and Shortridge, California, and Representatives Hawley, Oregon, and Treadway, Massachusetts.

Senator Watson, Indiana, and Representative Bacharach, New Jersey, the other two conferees, were not present.

No photographs of the ceremony were permitted. As the president affixed his signature those grouped around him applauded and Representative Treadway was the first to shake the president's hand, others following.

The law, revising the existing eight-year-old rate structure in more than a thousand instances and overhauling the administrative features, takes effect at midnight tonight.

The customs officials are prepared for the rush of ships to reach port and file their cargo papers in time to benefit by the old rates.

They also are ready to administer the new rates and bureau officials here expect little confusion.

Ogden Mills, under secretary of the treasury, was notified immediately after the signing so new regulations could be dispatched immediately to customs officials. Six pens were used in the signing one each being presented to the four conferees present, and the other two being held for presentation to Watson and Bacharach.

Among 48 articles taken from the free list are softwood lumber, cement, brick, long staple cotton, hides, leathers and shoes.

Logs, now dutiable at $1 per thousand board feet, head the list of 75 items placed on the free list.

PRIZES POUR IN FOR TRIB. TRAP SHOOT SUNDAY

The time for the first annual Mail Tribune trap shoot is rapidly drawing near and interest is growing by leaps and bounds. Already a large number of shooters have entered their names in competition, some who have never shot over traps, which indicates a good sum for the Boy Scout camp fund. The shoot will be staged next Sunday on the fine new grounds of the Rogue Valley Gun club on the Medford airport and will mark the opening of the club's new shooting grounds and clubhouse.

The Mail Tribune trophy, a handsome silver shield with appropriate inscription, will be the major prize of the day's shoot. This trophy will remain in the Rogue Valley Gun club's new building and each year will bear the name of the annual Tribune shoot winner. Any three-time winner will become the permanent owner of this fine trophy.

A silver platter, bearing the inscription "Rogue Valley Gun Club Annual Mail Tribune Trap Shoot" will be awarded to the runner up in Sunday's competition. This beautiful platter will be given by the members of the gun club. C. W. Wood of Prospect, who was formerly connected with the famous Chronicle shoot in San Francisco and one of the prominent members of the Rogue Valley Gun club, has offered a fine kodak to the high novice while the second high novice will be given a year's subscription to The Mail Tribune, through the generosity of Mr. Wood.

Low Gun Award.

The low gun of the day will win a gold watch, this fine prize being offered by Clarence Eads. A five dollar gold piece will go to the lady making the highest score out of 25 pigeons. The men who compete in the shoot will contest with 50 targets.

In addition to these fine prizes some exceptional merchandise awards are being offered by Medford business men, the names of the donors to appear soon in The Mail Tribune. One of the outstanding features of the first annual Tribune trap shoot is the fact that beginners will have an opportunity to win some excellent awards and every shooter will receive at least a merchandise prize. Owing to the fact that the Boy Scout camp in Applegate burned last year, the proceeds of this year's Mail Tribune shoot will be held for some civic or charity benefit and the proceeds each season will go to whatever organization most in need of additional funds.

B. F. TEACHERS PLAN APPEALS FROM OUSTER

Five Accused of Political Activity and Irritation—May Fight Abrogation of Contracts.

At an all-day hearing held at Butte Falls, the school board upheld charges of "political activity" and "political irritation" against five Butte Falls school teachers. They are N. D. Stoddard, William Mee, Mrs. William Mee, Naomi Van Gross and Rhen Hoover. The charges are the basis of annulment of the contracts of the school teachers, against which they plan a legal fight. An appeal will be taken to the county boundary board, from the decision of the school board, Attorney George M. Roberts, associated with Attorneys F. P. Farrell and C. M. Thomas, said this morning.

The attorney general of Oregon has held that a teacher's contract is binding, unless charges are proven, and it was said that the ousted teachers will appeal on the grounds that the charges of political activity were not substantiated by the evidence.

Witnesses include members of the school board, and Attorneys E. E. Kelly and Edward C. Kelly, representing the school board, and the Ogon-Oregon Lumber company. The present angle dates back to last December, when the county boundary board, after a hearing, ordered a heavy cut in the Butte Falls school budget.

There was a large attendance at the hearing. The annual school election was held at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, resulting in Mrs. Julia Doubleday, named to fill the vacancy on the board due to the ousting of Mrs. Elizabeth Simmerville, being defeated by Merle Brainerd by the close vote of 62 to 57, and W. Richmond winning over R. B. Baker, 71 to 55. The vote was one of the heaviest ever seen in a school election in Butte Falls.

MERRITT ALIMONY CASE IS REVERSED BY HIGHER COURT

The state supreme court today handed down an opinion in one Jackson county case, that of Grace Merritt and the state of Oregon vs. George Merritt, appellant, being an appeal from an order adjudging the appellant in contempt for failure to pay alimony. An opinion by Justice Belt reversed Judge H. D. Norton.

This action grew out of the divorce suit between Grace Merritt and George Merritt, both well-known in this city and Jacksonville.

The records of the case show that Merritt was in arrears in his alimony payments, in the sum of $450, and was charged with failure to comply with the order of the court and the divorce.

Merritt was sentenced to six months in the county jail for contempt, for failure to pay alimony, last July. He filed an appeal to the supreme court.

At the same time his plea for modification of the divorce decree was denied.

Dr. Gilbert S. Lambert Now Endorses Sargon

"For over two years I suffered with chronic stomach trouble and constipation that I was unable to correct with ordinary medicine. My appetite failed, I couldn't sleep and I was losing weight rapidly. I had frequent bilious attacks when my complexion became yellow as if I had jaundice. The Sargon treatment appealed to me because of its scientific background. Three bottles, taken with Sargon Soft Mass Pills overcame my troubles, and I am in better physical tone than in years."—Dr. Gilbert S. Lambert, well known retired physician of San Francisco, Magill Drug Co. agents.
