

Sportsmen Asked to File Specific Charges Against Clifford

ALLEN LOSES IN MOVE TO SIFT PLAINT MONDAY

Game Commission Claims Sports Organizations Indefinite in Complaints Against Wardens.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 17.—(AP)—The state game commission yesterday adopted a resolution requiring the three sportsmen's organizations which brought charges against Harold H. Clifford, state game warden, and E. H. Clark, assistant state game warden, to file affidavits with their charges setting out in detail the four charges made against Clifford and Clark.

The commission, after much consideration, decided the charges contained in various papers were blanket charges and that no definite implication could be found.

David B. Evans, newly appointed commissioner of Eugene, branded the charges as "shotgun affairs which really neither accomplish or set forth a definite accusation."

The three organizations, the Multnomah Anglers and Hunters' club, the United Sportsmen and Isaac Walton League, were represented by Maynard Cole, a member of the Multnomah organization and chairman of the law enforcement committee of the club. The formal hearing, the commission decided, will be arranged as soon after the affidavits are filed as possible. Wilford Allen, Grants Pass commissioner, moved that the charges be heard at the meeting yesterday but his suggestion was turned down by the remainder of the commission.

ROBINS RETAIN LEADERSHIP AS RIVALS IN DUEL

Giants and Cubs Aid Brooklyn in Holding National League Peak — Pirates, Phils in Bat Fest.

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Brooklyn Robins are out in front of the National League pack by only three and one-half games, but the enthralling actions of the Giants and Cubs make that advantage look mountainous at this stage of the pennant race.

With the Robins howling over their rivals consistently, the Giants and Cubs have come to the aid of the league leaders during the past three days in their battle for runner-up honors. Three days ago the Robins were three and one-half games out in front. Today they still hold that lead, although the Cubs have gained one full game on the Giants by taking two of their first three contests.

Charlie Grimm, the league champions' field captain, proved the big gun in the Cubs' second victory yesterday. His home run with the bases full in the ninth gave Chicago an 8-to-3 decision over New York.

The Pirates and Phillies staged a typical Pittsburgh-Philadelphia ball game, the latter winning a slugging 18 to 11.

The Cincinnati Reds had little mercy on Burleigh Grimes and Bruce Cunningham, pounding out a 11-to-1 decision over the Braves.

Ray Phelps turned in a neat pitching assignment to enable the Robins to defeat the Cardinals, 5 to 3.

Ted Lyons again failed to win his tenth game of the season when the Boston Red Sox made it two.

MANY FOLKS HAVE PILES

Amazing How Many Suffer and Do Nothing About It

SIMPLE HOME REMEDY QUICKLY STOPS PILES

"I suffered terribly with bleeding piles which were awful painful. Finally after a very severe attack I got a bottle of Colac Pile Pills from the drug store and results were so good I've sent copies of the advertisement to several people I knew for they are wonderful," declares another free and happy man, Mr. William Elburn, well known fisherman at Rock Hall, Maryland.

Thousands of men and women suffering from this dreaded pile trouble are today no longer bothered. If the reader suffers from piles they should suffer no longer. Get a bottle of Colac Pile Pills at drugists—swallow a couple pills per directions each meal time for a few days. That's all. Doctors endorse this newer, better internal way, or send 75c in stamps or coin to Colac Chemical Co., Brentwood, Md., for regular bottle, full directions, return mail. Money back if they fail. Try them without risking a penny, on this famous cavern's absolute guarantee.

Athletic Recruit Cures Ruth's Home Run Madness

PHILADELPHIA, — (AP)—The world champion Athletics waited a long time for the club's all-star pitching staff to develop the effectiveness which baseball followers admit it has, but in the meantime, something had to be done, games had to be won.

As a consequence, Leo Roy Mahaffey, rookie, was thrown in to the New York Yankees, just after Babe Ruth had smashed out eight home-runs in six days. Mahaffey struck out the Babe four times, and let down the rampant Yanks with seven hits and won.

Mahaffey, who is 27 years old, came to Philadelphia this year from the Portland, Ore. entry in the Pacific Coast league. He won 21 while losing 24 with that club last season. His record included the fanning of 172 batters. He walked 107 and hit 15 batsmen.

Mahaffey's professional baseball career began in 1923 with Columbia in the Seelye league. He was sent to New Haven in the Eastern league in 1927, but was returned to Columbia in 1928. Columbia sent him to Portland.

He had brief trials with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1926 and '27, straight over the White Sox, winning, 6 to 3.

The Senators unloosed the offensive in the last three innings to take the measure of the St. Louis Browns, 9 to 7.

The Indians and New York Yankees were rained out at Cleveland.

INDIAN GRAPPLER DEFEATS ELLIOTT IN TORRID MATCH

For the second professional match in which he has ever participated, Harry Elliott, Eugene, former wrestling coach at the University of Oregon, did well at the Armory last evening when he met Yaqui Joe, world's junior middleweight champion, to take one fall out of three and cause the Indian considerable worry before the latter was able to take the two winning falls. The Indian worked carefully and gave the blonde-haired wrestler as few openings as possible.

Although the belt was not at stake, Yaqui Joe was in the ring to win and made Elliott do most of the work, wearing him down gradually. Elliott did not have an opportunity to use the well known whip wristlock, and missed several of his Sonnenberg tackles. The Indian's superior strength broke many holds with apparent ease.

Just before the first fall, Joe was subjected to a series of vicious headlocks, and upon Joe regaining his feet from the last one, he reeled groggily about the ring. Elliott, befuddled by the Indian's feigned grogginess, weakened his guard a bit and in a second became a victim of a flying toehold, losing the fall in 23 minutes.

Elliott came back strong for the second fall. He tied up the Indian's arm with a punishing keylock and held on tenaciously. Joe broke the hold but fell victim to three more in succession. Elliott made two attempts to obtain the Boston crab and on the third attempt made it work, the Indian losing the fall in 14 minutes.

It took only nine minutes for Joe to take the deciding fall. He started out in great shape, slaming Elliott down with a series of headlocks. Harry seemed tired. The headlocks did their share in weakening Elliott and the end came when the Indian rushed at him with a flying body scissor. Yaqui Joe demonstrated that he had the stuff of which champions are made and Elliott displayed ability that will encourage his advent into the professional wrestling world toward the championship goal. His speed kept the Indian worried most of the evening and the dexterity with which he applied holds made the match one of the most interesting of the season.

Dummy Powell, Medford boy, failed to keep up with Jerry Nelson, Albany, in the special event, and lost the three-round bout to the visitor. Ray Frisbie officiated during the two bouts as referee and, as usual, Oscar Dunford was time keeper.

Plans for the next match, two weeks from last night, indicate that Bob Kruse, after an absence of many weeks, will return to the Medford ring and will either meet Charles Hanson of Seattle or Iz Dern of Salt Lake City.

Last night was one of Yaqui Joe's last appearances in Oregon, as he is leaving in less than a week for the middle west and east to fill a number of mat engagements, including championship affairs at Detroit, Cleveland and Chicago.
