

COUNTY EXPERTS SOUND WARNING OF SPIDER MITE

Fear growers should be on a watch from now on for spider mite infestations. Mites have been found in several orchards in different parts of the valley, indicating that the infestation is general. Every grower should observe his trees closely from now on and in case of finding mites, control measures should be applied before damage occurs.

The D'Anjou variety will probably show indications of injury first, followed by the Bose. If mites are present they may be seen with the aid of a magnifying glass by looking closely over the under surface of leaves taken from the lower central part of the tree. When injury occurs from these insects it takes the form of discolored leaves, the leaves turning brown and then black, and finally falling off entirely.

Summer oil emulsion will give excellent control if applied thoroughly to the under side of the leaves. The recommended dilutions range from one to one and a half gallons of emulsion to the hundred gallons of water or spray solution if mixed with arsenate of lead. Medium to heavy emulsions can be used with safety on pears and results are satisfactory at the lower dilutions.

Light emulsions should be used at a greater strength than the medium or heavy emulsions if successful control is desired. In case of mixing oil emulsions with arsenate of lead, it is always advisable to use a emulsifier in the combination.

In applying, spray upward and drench the under side of the leaves. Mites untouched with spray material will continue to propagate and control has not been successful. Grass and weeds around the trunk of the tree should be thoroughly drenched, thus killing many mites before they migrate.

Gary Cooper in Rialto Talkie

Gary Cooper and Fay Wray in a scene from the "Texan," which is now playing at the Fox Craterian theater.

Totally different in many ways, yet bringing the same carefree, swaggering, outdoor freedom of "The Virginian" to the talking screen, "The Texan," Paramount's second great romance of the west, opens today.

O. Henry wrote the original story, "A Double-Dyed Deceiver," from which "The Texan" was adapted.

The story opens in Texas and climaxes on the pampas of South America. It tells of the Llano Kid, a young bandit, who is persuaded to go to South America to pose as the runaway son of a wealthy and aristocratic widow. There he meets the widow's beautiful niece, and finds a mother's love. Although he went to rob, he finds he cannot destroy the older woman's happiness.

LOCAL ELKS TAKE PART IN OPENING

Medford Elks who participated in the institution of the new Grants Pass lodge last evening reported a successful session and were filled with praise for the hospitality shown the visitors by the Climate City residents. Medford was represented by a large delegation. The lodge officers were present 100 per cent to direct the installation of officers and initiation of new members. The latter ceremony took place at 7:30 in the evening and the former in the afternoon. A big dance and general good time followed the lodge session. A banquet was served at 6:30.

JACKSONVILLE CHURCH LADIES TO HEAR TALK

JACKSONVILLE, Ore., June 15.—(Special)—Women's Missionary society and ladies of the guild of the Presbyterian church will hold joint meeting at the church Thursday at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. McDonald of Medford who recently returned from an extended trip abroad will be present and tell of her experiences. Every one is cordially invited.

BIBLE CONFERENCE WILL OPEN TODAY IN CENTRAL POINT

(Contributed)

A four days conference for Bible study and methods will begin in the Presbyterian (Federated) church on Wednesday evening and will continue over Sunday the 23d. All interested in Bible study, prayer, Christian work methods, and the deepening of the spiritual life are invited. The entire program will be strictly non-sectarian and will deal faithfully with the essential things only.

Rev. Ezra S. Gerig, of Portland, Oregon, superintendent of the Union Gospel Mission will speak three times each day. Each morning he will speak on the subject: "How To Study the Bible." He will bring an evangelistic message each evening. Thursday afternoon, "The Price of Usefulness." Friday afternoon, "The Spirit-filled Life." Saturday afternoon, "Counsel for Surrendered Souls," etc.

James Johnston of Corvallis, Calif., will speak twice each day on the subjects, "Faith," and "Prayer." Mr. Gerig's first message this evening will be on the subject: "The Essential Vision."

Services will begin at 8 o'clock, and you will find the church well ventilated and pleasant. All are welcome.

BUMPER APRICOT CROP HARVESTED IN ROGUE VALLEY

The valley apricot crop is now being picked and is as heavy as three years ago when a bumper crop was harvested. The apricots are selling at 5 cents and some of the local output is finding its way to the California canneries at from $80 to $100 per ton.

With the fixing of the opening price for canneries Bartlett's set for this week end, the annual advent of buyers to this section will be under way. Predictions now point to opening offers of $10 per ton, and an average of between $15 and $20.

Practically all of the canneries sales this season will be under the specifications and standards for canneries Bartlett's adopted by the state horticultural board last Saturday at Salem.

ANDERSON STUDIO IN NEW LOCATION

Anderson's studio of photography will be formally opened at the new location, 407 East Main street, across from the Piggy Wiggly store, Thursday morning, June 19. The new studio occupies a portion of what was formerly the Hal Paint store and it has been completely remodeled and decorated. A red and black color scheme has been carried out in the woodwork and furniture so that the studio presents a pleasing combination of artistic arrangement and color.

A. J. Anderson has been in the photographic business in Medford for the past five years, in a studio at 128 East Main. His portrait and commercial photographic work enlargements and coloring have been recognized by leading men in the profession. Mr. Anderson is official photographer for the American Legion Post No. 15, and for two years has been the photographer for the Jackson County Fair association.

SEALS IN HIGH COMPRESSION POWER

MOTORITE is refined to meet the high speed requirements of the new high compression motors. It is the oiliest oil known. It has a great capacity for carrying away and giving up heat. It resists dilution by giving up stray gasoline in the form of vapor. It is entirely free from acid forming properties. It forms NO hard carbon. It seals in high compression giving 200 EXTRA miles of lubrication. Authorities endorse and recommend it. Drain out the old. Refill with MOTORITE. Only 25¢ a quart at any UNION Station.

IS YOUR TITLE INSURED?

A man of moderate means can ill afford the cost of lengthy litigations which are sure to be forced upon him should any flaw come to light affecting the validity of his title. It is much more economical to pay the small premium for the absolute and permanent protection of a title insurance policy.
