

CAMERAGRAMS

WHAT A SNAP THE CAMERAMAN HAS!—And if you don't believe it, you should have tried to crash the gate when the co-eds at Oklahoma A. and M. College, above, held their bathing beauty contest at Stillwater recently. The dean's orders were "No men allowed." But the photographer, big shot, was the exception. Louise Francis, of Oklahoma City, who was adjudged the most attractive, heads the column. Barely concerned whether anyone saw them or not are the kids in the lower photo, who were caught in a rapturous moment as they prepared to christen the "ol' swimmin' hole" near Lake Villa, Ill. Last one in, of course, was a rhinoceros.

FOLLOW SUIT, girls, if you would be in style on the beach this summer. And it may interest the boys who read this to know that Lillian Roth, movie star, is shown here in an intriguing suit of black and white shantung.

TREATED ROUGH, BUT THEY LIKE IT!—This is what Marion Himmelstein and Virginia Farrell mean by taking a skip along the beach. Actually, they are trying out their skimmer "Arrow" on Alamitos Bay, Long Beach, Calif., in preparation for the women's championship yacht races. One thing the girls don't have to worry about is washing the decks.

AHAI WELCOME TO MUSSOLINI!—That's a nice Fascist salute, to be sure, but beneath these weird costumes you'll find no henchmen of Benito, but six fair maidens who, sad to relate, have been given the works. But that's only because they are taking the part of mechanical "men," or "robots," at the tree day show at Wellesley College, Wellesley, Mass.

WHEN IT COMES TO NECKING, these animals at the Washington Park zoo, Milwaukee, aren't so dumb. There's Yacob, below, ton-and-a-half hippo, expressing a desire for his daily tidbits, which include 20 pounds of carrots, 40 pounds of alfalfa, and for dessert, one or two pecks of apples. And you can depend on Punch and Judy, giraffes, above, to be on the spot when that dinner bell sounds. "You'll pardon my reach," Punch seems to be saying to Judy.

NOSE DIVE!—Ready to defend her title at the National A. A. U. Outdoor Championships at Long Beach, Calif., Miss Georgia Coleman, national high-board women's champion, is shown here in a remarkable action photo as she practiced a hand-stand dive.

WATCH HER CURVES!—Ruth Thompson, above, of Greenwich, Conn., may never have washed a dish in her life, but she knows how to cut the plate with a fast one. Ruth pitched for her class during a ball game at Smith College, Northampton, Mass.

THAT'S GOLD IN THET HAIR, BOYS, but that isn't the reason Laura Lee, movie blond, is a minor. It is really because she is only 19. And if you don't believe it, realize that her mother had to appear in court recently to give her permission to sign a contract for a series of talkies.

GIVE THE GAL A GREAT BIG BAND!—That's what Bill Walker, left, probably said to Ruth Pryor, right, because she is the granddaughter of the famous bandmaster, Arthur Pryor. Bill and Ruth took the parts of William Shakespeare and the Queen, respectively, at the tableaux, "The Queen of Stratford," presented recently at Tudor City, New York City.

HERE'S LOOKING AT YOU!—This is what the girls at Gulf Park College probably mean by taking a facial. Anyway, they are celebrating in this manner in the waters of the Gulf on the Isle of Caprice, Biloxi, Miss., because, as you might guess, school is over.

CAMERAGRAMS

