

The Week's Society Happenings

Edited By
Eva Nealon

WEEKLY CALENDAR
Monday
Girl Scouts, call for camp folders and application at office above Lanport's between 2:30 and 4:30 p. m.
Tuesday
St. Ann's Altar society will meet for regular business session Tuesday at 2:30 in the Parish hall.
State convention of Daughters of Union Veterans opens in Eugene today.
The Carnation club will meet with Bessie Hutler, 825 Ninth street this evening.
Ladies Aid society will meet in First M. E. church in regular homecoming this afternoon.
Missionary meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the First Baptist church at Mrs. Wilson's home, 349 South Riverside.
Wednesday
Wednesday Study club will hold a picnic dinner in Ashland park at 6 o'clock.
Friday
Vacation Bible school demonstration and picnic.
Saturday
Mrs. W. L. Lawton, president of the National Council for protection of roadside beauty will address the local Garden club this afternoon.

Miss Crawford Will Be Bride Tuesday at Church Wedding

Miss Aileen Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oris Crawford of this city will become the bride of George Maddox of Seattle at a wedding at the First Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, Rev. Claude B. Porter officiating.

Invitations have been issued to their many friends, who will attend the wedding. Mrs. Warren G. Butler, sister of the bride-to-be, will act as her matron of honor. Miss Joyce Maddox will be maid of honor. Rupert Maddox will be the groom's attendant. Little Barbara Butler and Rupert Maddox Jr. as flower bearers, will precede the bride to the altar. The wedding march will be played by Mrs. Geo. Andrews at the organ.

Many affairs have been given in Miss Crawford's honor following her return to this city from the High Conservatory of Music, Chicago, where she has been taking a course. She has participated in musical activities of Medford for several years and will be greatly pleased when she goes to Seattle to make her home, where Mr. Maddox is engaged as soloist at radio station KJLH.

Miss Ruhl and Guest Will Arrive Today

Miss Roxane Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Ruhl, will arrive in Medford on this morning's Shasta from Ross, Calif., accompanied by Miss Julia McWilliams of Pasadena, who will be her house guest for 10 days. Both girls graduated from the Katherine Branson school in the commencement program the early part of this month.

Miss Scott Is Medford Guest

Miss Anne Scott of Kordan Valley, Ore., student at Oregon State college, is a guest in this city of Miss Ruth Koozer, who returned a short time ago from college.

Mrs. Frink Hostess at Shower Wednesday

Mrs. L. G. Frink entertained with a dinner and shower at her home at Talent Wednesday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Bert Simmons, whose marriage was an event of the preceding Saturday in San Francisco. Mrs. Simmons was formerly Miss Elsie Awred.

Local Bride--To Be

MISS AILEEN CRAWFORD

whose marriage to George Maddox will be an event of Tuesday at the Presbyterian Church.

Miss Lorena Stallings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stallings of this city, became the bride of Lawrence T. Fisher of Corvallis, at a pretty home wedding solemnized at nine o'clock Friday evening, June 6. The ceremony was pronounced by the Rev. Father Louis H. Sander in the presence of friends and relatives.

The bride, lovely in a dress of white satin with a white tulle veil caught at the back with orange blossoms, was attended by her sister, Miss Blanche Stallings, 25 bridemaid, and Mrs. E. J. Fiedler of Portland, as matron of honor. She carried a shower bouquet of cream Ophelia roses and white sweetpeas.

The bridegroom and attendant, Elton Phillips of Portland, awaited the bridal procession before a bank of flowers and palms at each side of which were burning tapers. The bride was preceded by Aunt Julia and Emma Camps of Cashmere, Wash.; Helen Harris of Ferndale, Wash.; Mildred Price of Gledale, Cal.; Mrs. Glen Kesselman and Miss Roberta Houston, who held all streamers forming an aisle.

Donna Hendrie, wearing pink organza and carrying a bouquet of pink sweetpeas, made a charming little flower girl. Mrs. Fiedler wore white tulle and lavender and carried a bouquet of pink sweetpeas and roses and the bride's maid wore a peach chiffon dress and carried a bouquet of lavender sweetpeas and pink roses.

Miss Janet Seggel of Portland, played Mendelssohn's wedding march, while the bride, on the arm of her father, entered the living room. She was preceded by Aunt Julia during the service. "Hill" was sung by Miss Ida Miller of Aloha, and "Because" was sung by John Stallings. Both were accompanied at the piano by Keith Fender.

The reception for the couple was held on the lawn of the Stallings home which had been transformed into a garden with a profusion of small fir trees and baskets of flowers. The bride's table was centered with a bowl of white roses, snapdragons and ferns, and

Miss Vilm Inspires Many Social Events Prior to Wedding

Miss Eugenia Vilm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Vilm, whose marriage to Robert Hart will be a social event of June 30, has been the inspiration for several affairs of the past week and others are being arranged in her honor for the future.

Mrs. W. B. Johnston, Jr., entertained with a bridge luncheon for Miss Vilm Friday, luncheon at Hotel Medford was followed by several hours of bridge with three tables in play at the home of Mrs. H. U. Lumsden. Guests were Mesdames Martin Kurtz, A. B. Crosby, Ben Treowbridge, Max Pierce, Justin Smith, Helen Wilson, Trave Lumsden, H. U. Lumsden, W. B. Johnston, Sr., Jack Wurtz and Charles Wortman and the Misses Dee Scheffel, Josephine Koppes and the honor guest, Miss Vilm.

Mrs. Helen Wilson will be hostess at a bridge party at her home, Corning Court, honoring Miss Vilm Tuesday evening. There will be two tables in play.

Fowlers Guests at Portland Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Fowler and daughter, Betty, of this city were among the guests who attended the wedding of Miss Florence Fowler, daughter of Mrs. J. W. Fowler and George Loveland Ridgeway, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Ridgeway of Corvallis, N. Y., which was a social event of Thursday at the home of the bride's mother in Portland. The bride is a niece of Mr. Fowler of this city.

The Fowlers motored to the northern city and stopped on their return in Corvallis to visit the classes in session for club members at Oregon State college Friday.

Miss Heckman Will Spend Summer Here

Friends of Annette Heckman, who returned to Medford from Hilo, Hawaii, Friday, are welcoming her to this city and planning several social events to be given in her honor during the coming weeks. Miss Heckman, who is supervisor of kindergartens in Hilo will spend the summer with her father, Dr. W. H. Heckman of Corning Court, and return to the islands in the early fall to resume her position.

Miss Meusel Hostess at Dutch Lunch

Miss Ruth Meusel entertained Thursday evening at her home on South Laurel with a Dutch lunch. The table was beautifully decorated with pink sweet peas. Luncheon was enjoyed following the luncheon until a late hour. The invited guests were the Misses Itha and Thelma Heard, Messrs. John Waaga, C. ("Hoot") Gibson, E. Rostel and the hostess, Miss Ruth Meusel.

Mrs. Patton Hostess

Mrs. Hamilton Patton entertained with a luncheon Friday afternoon for a group of friends at her home. The luncheon was followed by bridge. Mrs. Patton is planning a series of bridge luncheons for the summer season.

Former Medford Folks Here Over Week-End

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McCracken of Portland and Wesley Heise and Miss Ruth Howe of Salem, drove to Medford yesterday and are visiting friends over Sunday. Mrs. McCracken and Miss Howe are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Howe, formerly of this city, Mrs. Howe being pastor of the Christian church for several years.

Mr. McCracken also formerly lived here, graduated from Medford high, moved to Eugene with his parents five years ago. He is operating a truck line between Portland and Eugene.

Returns Home

MISS BETTY BARDWELL, who returned home Sunday evening from Los Angeles where she has been attending the Marlborough school in that city. She will spend the summer in Medford with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Bardwell.

Misses Bolds, Daily Entertain at Dinner and Bridge Thursday

The past week has been crowded with social events given in compliment to Miss Aileen Crawford, whose marriage to George Maddox will be solemnized Tuesday. Thursday evening the Misses Gloria Bolds and Marjorie Daily were hostesses at a dinner party and kitchen shower for the bride-to-be at the home of the former near Central Point.

The table for the dinner, at which covers were laid for ten, was beautifully decorated in sweetpeas and pink tapers. The dinner was followed by several hours of bridge with prize for high score going to Miss Margaret Hensley.

The list of guests included Mesdames Beulah Gore, Alice Holmbeck, Dee Scheffel, Jane McQuat, Margaret Hensley, Aileen Crawford, Joyce Maddox and Mrs. Juanita Butler.

Dinner for Riegels Event of Saturday

Mrs. Alfred Carpenter entertained with a dinner party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Sprague Riegel at her home on the Old Stage road last evening. Covers were laid for 20 guests and the dinner followed by several hours at bridge.

Mrs. Jennings Hostess Friday

Mrs. Halpb Jennings entertained a small company of friends Friday at 1 o'clock luncheon at Hotel Medford, after which the ladies motored to the pleasant home of Mrs. Jennings for an afternoon of bridge.

Mrs. Jones Honor Guest

Mrs. John Peter entertained with a four-guest luncheon at Hotel Medford Friday, honoring Mrs. Jones of Salem, mother of Mrs. Jack Porter, who is house guest of her daughter in Medford this week.

Mrs. McCaskey To Entertain

Mrs. H. D. McCaskey will entertain Wednesday at a bridge luncheon in honor of Mrs. Alice Bowne, who is spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. E. G. Burgess.

Mesdames Peter and Yorvan Give Series Bridge Luncheons

The last of a series of bridge luncheons planned for the spring and summer season was given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. John Peter and Mrs. George Yorvan at the latter's apartment, Carroll Court. First prize for high score at bridge was awarded Mrs. Howard Hill and consolation prize went to Mrs. W. W. Howard.

At the luncheon given on Tuesday of this week, Mrs. John Barnsbury held high score at bridge and Mrs. J. A. Perry was awarded consolation prize.

Two weeks ago Mrs. Peter and Mrs. Yorvan were hostesses at two tables of bridge. High score was held by Miss Gertrude Weeks and low by Mrs. Perry.

Mrs. Peter and Mrs. Sidney Smith recently entertained with a bridge luncheon at Mrs. Peter's cabin at Four Oaks on the Rogue. There were four tables in play and high score was held by Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Eugene Thorndyke was given second prize and Mrs. Herbert White consolation.

Iverson-Putney Wedding Tuesday Parsons Home

Miss Marie Iverson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. Iverson of this city will become the bride of Arthur Putney, son of Mr. Arthur Putney, at a wedding at the Iverson home at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Invitations have been issued to 30 friends. The ceremony will be read by Rev. Iverson, Miss Irene Standley will be the bride's maid of honor and Marvin Pursel the groom's attendant. Miss Georgia Carrier will play the wedding march.

Evening of Bridge Event Porter Home

A lovely event of the week was the bridge party given Friday evening by Mrs. Jack Porter and Miss Eleanor Peter at the home of the former on Reddy avenue. The rooms were filled with summer flowers and the four tables arranged with color schemes of rose, blue, green and orchid, which were carried out in flowers and refreshments. Prize for high score was awarded Mrs. Ted Leonard. Mrs. Ruth Bauer held second high score.

Mrs. Barneburg Hostess to Club

Twenty-five members of the Wenonah club met at the home of Mrs. Harry Barneburg Thursday afternoon for a card party.

Six tables of bridge and five hundred were in play for which the high scores were held by Mabel Quackenbush and Daisy Samuelson, respectively, with Gladys Lawrentz and Sarah Toole holding low.

Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Kathleen Wilson and Norma Martin.

The next meeting will probably be a picnic and swimming party in Ashland, July 10. Definite plans will be announced later.

Mrs. Geo. Maxwell was hostess at a kitchen shower for Miss Iverson Friday evening. Tables were beautifully decorated in summer flowers, with pink the predominant color for the occasion. Miss Iverson's gifts were located through a treasure hunt.

Mrs. Mabel Kitson spent several days during the past week vacationing at Shady Cove.

Audition Judge

MISS ESTHER CHURCH, music instructor at the Southern Oregon Normal school, one of the judges for the local Atwater Kent radio audition broadcast over radio station KMED Monday evening.

Bridge Tea Given For Miss Crawford

The Misses Beulah Gore and Alice Holmbeck entertained Thursday afternoon with a linen shower and bridge tea in honor of Miss Aileen Crawford at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gore. Three tables of bridge were in play.

An informal musical was given, with piano numbers by the Misses Joyce Maddox, Geraldine Gardner and Alice Holmbeck, violin solos by Miss Beulah Gore and a vocal solo by Miss Rosa Gore.

The gifts were presented Miss Crawford by little Miss Virginia Thierolf, who looked very attractive in a crisp and dainty white dress.

Mrs. Bowne Is Honor Guest Informal Tea

Mrs. A. E. Reames was hostess at a tea Wednesday afternoon, given in compliment to Mrs. Alice Roland Bowne of New York City, who is in Medford to spend the summer as guest of her sister, Mrs. Edward Burgess. A number of friends called during the afternoon to meet Mrs. Bowne and enjoy Mrs. Reames' hospitality.

Hollers-Yarnell Wedding Saturday

Miss Elizabeth Hollers, daughter of Mrs. Ida Hollers, and Ray Yarnell were married yesterday afternoon in the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. A. G. Bennett officiating.

The bride dressed in blue georgette and carrying a shower bouquet of roses and lilies was attended by her sister, Miss Fionnie Hollers, who wore a dress of yellow printed crepe. J. L. Blackburn acted as best man.

Guests at the wedding were Mrs. Newton Tinker, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Blackburn, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, Marion Yarnell and Mrs. Ida Hollers.

Mrs. Henson Entertains

Mrs. Riley D. Henson, 1900 East Eleventh street, entertained informally Thursday afternoon, honoring Mrs. J. W. Smylie and Mrs. J. A. Daron, whose birthdays occur this month. Games and pleasant conversation were enjoyed.

During the afternoon Mrs. Henson assisted by Mrs. Kenneth C. Downing and Mrs. J. W. Smylie served refreshments. Those present were Mrs. J. W. Smylie, Mrs. J. A. Daron, Mrs. Nelson J. Wiley, Mrs. R. A. Koppes, Mrs. O. V. Myers, Mrs. C. W. Conklin, Mrs. Kenneth C. Downing, Mrs. A. W. Lingass, Miss May Phipps, Mrs. R. D. Henson.

Dew-Nye Wedding Solemnized Here Saturday Morning

Miss Evelyn Dew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Dew and Stephen G. Nye, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen A. Nye, were married at a quiet ceremony at the Dew home on the Jacksonville highway yesterday morning. Rev. Alexander G. Bennett of the First Methodist Episcopal church officiating.

Following the ceremony the bride and groom left for a several days' motor trip and will return to make their home at 1218 West Main street, this city.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Pi Lambda Theta, honorary fraternities and of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. In addition to attending the university, she has been supervising music in the Eugene public schools for the past several years.

Mr. Nye is a graduate of Oregon State College and a member of Delta Epsilon social fraternity, a lieutenant in the United States reserve and a member of the republican central committee of Jackson county, where he is now an orchardist.

Women Golfers Pick Committee Chairman

Mrs. J. C. Thompson was chosen general chairman of women's activities at the Rogue River Golf Association course for this summer at a recent meeting of the women golfers. Mrs. Aloha Vawter was elected secretary, and Mrs. R. G. Bardwell, treasurer. Mrs. D. H. Wood was named chairman of the tournament committee and will be assisted by Mrs. T. G. Travis and Mrs. H. Hart.

No tournaments have been scheduled as yet for the summer season. More definite arrangements will be announced when Mrs. Thompson returns from San Francisco.

Guest Honored at Several Parties

Miss Mary Parsons entertained with two parties at her country home, Hiberest orchard, during the past week in compliment to her house guest, Miss Leona Bolt of Seattle.

Tuesday evening eight guests were invited to a slumber party and breakfast. Thursday evening Miss Parsons was hostess at a dancing party for which invitations were issued to 14 guests.

Mrs. Holloway Is Hostess

Mrs. Alice Holloway entertained at dinner Friday evening in honor of Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, who is her house guest while attending the Jackson County Health association meeting. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. F. Corning Kenly, Corbin Edgell, Thomas Mills, and the guest of honor.

Mesdames Faber and Head Hostesses

Fourteen past matrons of the Eastern Star lodge were entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. C. Faber, acting as joint hostess with Mrs. Head. An old-fashioned motif was carried through from the decorations to the refreshments. Mrs. Everett Faber and Mrs. Donna Branner assisted in serving.

Those present at the affair were: Mesdames Pankey, Burcell, Martin, Leever, Ferguson, Paxton, Norcross, Miss Hanley, Mrs. Merritt and Mrs. Kyle of Medford, and the two hostesses, Mrs. Paxton also attended as a guest—(Central Point American)

VIRGIN DIAMONDS

Direct from the MINES to YOU

Since the world began, your Virgin Diamond has never adorned any finger but yours. Never before worn or individually owned, Certified Virgin Diamonds come to you free from any taint of past ownership. Of guaranteed quality, at standard prices, in distinctive mountings, direct from the mines to you genuine Virgin Diamonds are sold exclusively through

LAWRENCE'S VIRGIN DIAMONDS

In a Wide Range of Prices from $25.00 to $2,500.00

GENUINE VIRGIN DIAMOND $62.50

AUTHORIZED VIRGIN DIAMOND DEALERS

To the Far Corners of the World

on 1930-1931 CANADIAN PACIFIC Cruises!

Siam's court dancers, jangling in gold... Bamboo music of Java... the temple Acropolis of Athens... colorful Japanese geishas and gardens - Canadian Pacific Cruises carry you right into these travels-thrills, hundreds of others.

ROUND-the-WORLD

On the Empress of Australia from New York, Dec. 2, 137 days.

MEDITERRANEAN

On the Empress of France from New York, Feb. 3, 1931, 73 days.

WEST INDIES

On the Duchess of Bedford from New York, Jan. 9 or Feb. 11, 29 days.

CANADIAN PACIFIC

W. H. DEACON, GEN. AGENT PASS'G DEPT. 148-A BROADWAY - PORTLAND - BRWAY 3362

For June—The Month of Engagements and Weddings—We Offer an Exquisite Diamond Ring

Beautiful Blue White Diamond in a Hand-made 18-k Mounting. Extra Special $99

Many Others from $35 to $75

WEDDING RING SPECIAL—A ring set with 5 beautiful diamonds—(for only) $22

We Extend Dignified Credit

Prophecy's JEWELERS MEDFORD, ORE.