ESSENTIAL FOODS SHOULD BE SEASGNEED TO PLEASE TASTE

Science of Cooking Calls For Knowledge of Developing Flavor

The fact that a housewife decides to serve simple, wholesome food does not mean that it should be lacking in taste-appeal and uninviting in appearance.

Yet, too often, this is the case. As a result there is either indifference to the food, or outspoken rebellion by old and young.
One of the most popular ways to make wholesome foods appealing is to season them with sugar. A dash of sugar to a pinch of salt works wonders in the seasoning of vegetables, canned and fresh, meat stews and salad dressings. This seasoning does not change the characteristic flavor of the food but emphasizes it.

Many other foods can also be improved by sugar. Fresh and stewed fruits, and most cereals need sugar to make them inviting to the taste.

Doctors and dietitians recommend the use of sugar in flavoring and seasoning, because it encourages the consumption of foods rich in vitamins, minerals and roughage. What is more, they recommend the regular practice of serving desserts -- for their nourishment and their satisfying qualities. Most foods are more delicious and nourishing with sugar. ## Will Rogers Star Of Mirthful Talkie

When people or nations have dissenting views of each other there can be no amity unless the divided forces get together -- to smile over their supposed differences.

This is delightfully proven in "So This is London," a Fox Movietone production starring Will Rogers and now to be seen in a 14 heard at the Fox Criterion theatre.

Based on the successful stage play produced by George M. Cohan, some time ago, the story deals primarily with a wealthy owner of a cotton mill in Texas, a role played by Will Rogers, the inimitable wit and philosopher. The character he interprets, thinks he has a decided dislike for certain foreign types. Irene Rich heads the support as the wife of the American and Maureen O'Sullivan and Albertson are the youthful lovers.

BOY SCOUT CAMP PLANS ANNOUNCED IN RADIO PROGRAM

Plans for the summer camp of Boy Scouts at Lake of the Woods this summer were announced this morning over KMED. Wm. Lee Tricker, scout executive, told of the thirty acre wooded site on the northwest side of the lake which has been secured for the use of the scouts of southern Oregon for their permanent summer camp.

Scouts gave some group songs such as are often heard round the campfire, and the boys of the scout drum corps played. Purpose of the program was the outlining of plans for building and for the camp program this season. Many scouts are seeking jobs for part or full time to help earn their necessary fees by the time camp opens in July it was announced. Those needing help of a sort that the boys are able to give are asked to call Boy Scout headquarters.

The four scouts who gave the drum and bugle numbers were: Drums, Don Gray of troop 10, and Stan Hensen of troop 9; bugles, Herb Harper, troop 9, and Harold Wall of troop 10. Deroxye Dudley led several members of the Flying Eagle Patrol in troop 7 in the following songs: Scout Vesper Song, Long, Long Trail, America, The Beautiful, Oregon and Taps. Harold Wall also gave some solo numbers on the bugle. Dale Gordon, Bob Rindt and Dick Woodcock were the other three members of the quartette which led the group singing.

The scout organization was given the use of the hour through the courtesy of the American Laundry company, their time this morning being turned over for this purpose by Jimmie Slorah, manager of the American laundry.

McLaglen In Laugh Talkie At Rialto

It is pretty well understood by now that the ladies—God bless 'em!—just have to play dirty tricks on Victor McLaglen in every picture he makes. They continue to decide him in "On the Level," now playing at the Fox Rialto theatre, but the redoubtable Vic seems actually to enjoy it. He grins all over the place and laughs that big, booming guffaw of his so frequently that it may be called upon to keep the most blasé movie-goer wide awake. Fifi Dorsay sings a few catchy tunes in a very commendable manner, and is captivating in the part of the dancer. The picture is sure-fire entertainment and is entirely without benefit of theme song or sentimental tripe. Grandma and the kids will enjoy it.
