MENDENHALL IN SHOOT-OFF FOR SILVER TROPHY

Rogue Valley Gun Club Is Host to Army of Entrants and Spectators in Opening Event.

Perhaps making the best score of his career, E. H. Lampport, Medford, yesterday, won the inaugural event of the annual Mail Tribune trapshoot tourney, turning in a perfect score of 50 and then won in the shoot-off with S. G. Mendenhall, who also cracked 50 birds in succession. A handsome silver plaque, to be engraved with his name, was awarded the winner. An engraved sandwich tray was awarded C. L. Moore of Klamath Falls for the runner-up position with a score of 49. The plaque must be won three consecutive times by the same shooter for permanent possession.

The shoot, the first one held on the Rogue Valley Gun club grounds at the airport, attracted 40 entrants from Jackson and Klamath counties and proved an outstanding success. It aroused such general interest that gunners who had not shot at clay pigeons for years, were on hand to try their aim.

One shooter who had not participated in such an event for over 30 years, turned in a fairly good score.

High Scores Made

Another outstanding feature of the shoot was the large number of high scores and the consistency with which most of the participants shot off the two events.

Mrs. Evan Miller was the only woman entrant and turned in a score of 37 out of 50. She was awarded a five-dollar goldpiece. A valuable gold watch donated by Clarence Eads, went to T. J. Enright for his ability in making the low score of the day. He had not shot for sometime and was unable to get into the breaking swing. He plans to have the watch appropriately engraved and carry it for a permanent timepiece. Dr. R. C. Mulholland followed as a close second.

Four shooters tied for runner up with 49 each and included Sherman Powell, N. Y. Stoddard, Klamath Falls; F. H. Tilley, Medford; C. L. Moore, Klamath Falls. Moore took the prize in the shoot-off by cracking 50 in a row. Harry Veatch, Portland, was the high professional of the day, turning in a score of 49.

Third place with 48 was held by Sid Newton, Medford; R. E. De Weese, Klamath Falls; J. H. Cowker, William Hoekman, Klamath Falls.

No Novice Entries

There were no entrants in the novice division and the $15 kodak to have been given for first place remains unawarded.

The shoot attracted quite a crowd of spectators most of the day. Shooting from the three traps began in the forenoon and ended with several special events the latter part of the afternoon.

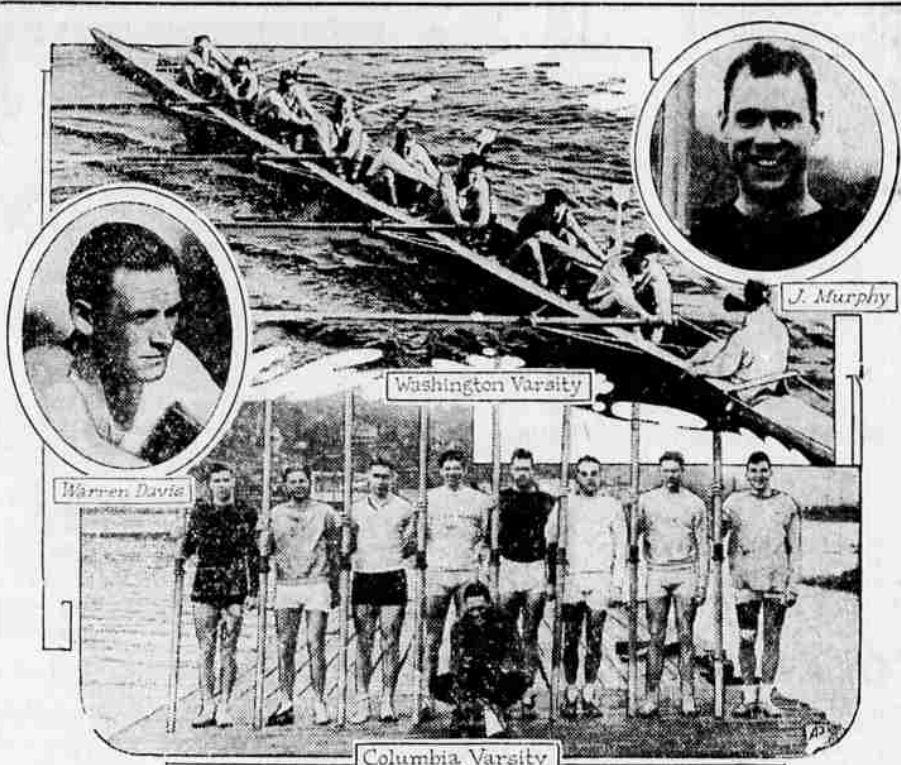

The traps, used yesterday for the first time, are the latest Black Diamond all angle equipment and are a part of the plan of the plan of the Rogue Valley Gun club to establish a first class club layout. U. W. Wood of Prineville is one of the prime movers in the organization of the club and establishment of the grounds, which are regarded among the best in the state.

The club has over 70 members at the present time and several new applications were received yesterday. Trap-shoots are being planned with neighboring cities and it is likely that one will be held with Klamath Falls in a short time.

Visitors Land Club

The visiting shooters yesterday were high in their praise for the Medford grounds, with its three traps, and up to date club house, only recently completed. Water is

Far West and East Again to Fight For Intercollegiate Rowing Title

The school's crews this year, Columbia (left) and Washington (in the shell) rank among the favorites in the race which will be rowed June 26. The crews' captains are Warren Davis (left) of Washington, and J. Murphy of Columbia.

BLACK PANTHER SAYS LEFT WILL QUIET CARNERA

Godfrey Sees Victory in Five Or Six Rounds Tonight—Primo Can Not Be Kayoed Is Claim.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23.—(AP) Primo Carnera, Italy's challenger for recognition as a first-flight heavyweight, meets his biggest and perhaps his most formidable opponent tonight when he fights Godfrey, a scientific negro of Lehighville, Pa., at the Phillies ball park. The bout is 10 rounds.

Scaling 245, the black panther never traded punches with a ring rival of the bulk of the mauling mastodon of Venice. Carnera, standing six feet seven, weighs 248, will also be facing his biggest foe, a man of his line, Godfrey, at the Phillies ball park. The bout is 10 rounds.

Godfrey will spot Carnera 23 pounds, five inches in height, two inches in head, and in the matter of age, about seven years. He claims an advantage in fighting experience and boxing skill, and insists that Primo's American victories were scored over second-rate opponents.

"I ought to knock Carnera out in five or six rounds," Godfrey said. "And if I can land a left hook on the button before that, Mr. Carnera will be through."

"No man in the world can hit hard enough to knock out Carnera," said Billy Duffy, his American manager. "And if Primo nails Godfrey with the right under the heart, the negro will fold up."

The promoters predicted an attendance of more than 20,000 and said the advance sale had passed $100,000.

OAKS WAX FAT UPON HAPLESS BEE-VEE-DEES

Take Six of Seven Games to Appear as Pennant Contenders—Seals Drop Out of Tie For Third.

(By the Associated Press)

With three weeks to go in the first half of the Pacific Coast League season, Carl Zambloch's Oakland aggregation stood out again as a contender for honors, having taken six out of seven games from Portland. They completed the string by downing the Ducks twice yesterday, 2 to 0 and 5 to 2.

Orwoll, erstwhile first baseman, took the mound for the Ducks in the morning and although he only allowed six hits and fanned eight batters, lost the game due to stellar pitching of Bobbie Hurst, and some well-timed hitting on the part of the Oaks.

San Francisco split two games with Los Angeles, dropping out of the third place tie with Oakland. The Angels took the morning game, 4 to 2, making it five wins out of the seven game series, and lost the afternoon contest in 12 innings, 4 to 5.

VINCENT DOLP TO REPRESENT 'O' IN COLLEGIATE GOLF

EUGENE, Ore., June 23.—(Sp.) Vincent Dolp, University of Oregon sophomore, and new Pacific Coast conference golf champion, will represent the university in the national intercollegiate tournament.

Dolp will arrive in Philadelphia Thursday and will practice several days over the Oakmont Country club course before competing in the national collegiate tourney, which starts there June 23.

Dolp has been playing his greatest golf in years. He was finalist in the Oregon State amateur tourney, held at Eugene two weeks ago, only to lose to his brother Frank. He placed third in the medal round.

In the conference title play, Dolp led the field by two strokes, negotiating the 54 holes of medal play in 219—two better than his nearest competitor. Two years ago Dolp was runner-up to Don Moore, another University of Oregon student, for the state title. Moore is not representing the university this year as he is competing in England.

PELICAN PILOT PROTESTS WIN BY MERCHANTS

Sunday's 11 to 3 Victory Will Be Judged by Arbitrators—Maas and Kauffman Held Ineligible.

Medford went into the lead in the Southern Oregon league by defeating Klamath Falls Sunday on their own grounds, 11 to 3, before a crowd estimated at 1800 people.

The Klamath Falls team and their adherents, filed a protest before the game, against two of the Medford players—Maas and Kauffman—former members of the Ashland team, on the grounds they were ineligible to play. Business Manager Court Hall of the locals, branded the report "as silly, and an effort of Manager 'Red' Saunders of Klamath Falls to keep in solid with the home fans."

Medford put the game on ice in the second, when they scored eight runs on nine hits, and gave Hilton, star Pelican, a severe bombardment. After this rally, the two teams tightened up, and each scored three runs, in the remainder of the game.

Medford garnered twenty hits from the deliveries of Hilton and Beck, while Beck wielded ten hits.

Two double plays with Harry on the starting end, were fielding features. At Droutelle mauling out a homer.

The protest will be settled by the Lakeview and Bend teams, and Polk Ninninger of Ashland, president of the league. If it is allowed the game will be played over, probably in this city.

Regarding the Klamath Falls protest, Business Manager Hall this morning said that the "Klamath Falls" manager, Red Sanders, in protesting yesterday's game showed himself a hard core, who cared little for true sportsmanship. There is a rule of the league preventing a team from importing players and playing them until ten days notice is given to the contesting team. The rule is not supposed to apply to local players.

"Home players are supposed to be eligible to play at any time, as the rule was made to prevent a team from sending off for players to strengthen their club for any particular game."

"I sent in the names of the Medford players last Tuesday to Secretary McMillan of the Klamath Falls club. Maas and Kauffman's names were included in this list. I never received the Pelicans' list until Thursday. Thus it will be noticed that neither club sent in the names of their players within the required time specified by the league rules. Maas was not engaged to strengthen the team in any particular game, but solely on account of Valencia being hurt and probably out of the game for the rest of the season."

"It is such things as this protest that disgust one in trying to promote baseball. Klamath Falls should be glad that the Medford team is a big drawing card in their town. What difference does it make who wins as long as the teams are playing good ball and give the fans a run for their money? Just to show the difference between managers, I allowed Bend in their first contest here to use two players from the Timber League and, believe me, the one they put in as shortstop was one player."

"In our last game at home I allowed Lakeview to play Chuck Worth and Maas, and also let them have First Baseman Kelley, who played two innings and got two clean hits off Best."

While Strubling plastered Frankie Wine, the Montana blacksmith, all over the ring three times, but Wine always went the route.

Harry White, University of Washington shortstop, sold to the Cleveland Indians this summer, batted .450 in the Pacific Coast conference baseball race.

With Rod and Gun In Rogue Valley

Any comments, suggestions on fishing, wild life or game are welcomed. Address all communications to the editor of this column.

Fishing was not so good yesterday, according to reports. Although the river was lined with anglers, few were able to take any fish home.

Among the lucky fishermen of the Rogue was Vern Van Dyke of Lampport's store, who caught a six-pound salmon on a No. 50 spinner. Then, while wading across the river, he accidentally hooked a big one, but like all the "biggest" fish, it got away.

With almost perfect fishing conditions prevailing at Diamond Lake, the weather cool and cloudy and the water rough, few fish were caught. Some were lucky enough to find a school of fish and catch the limit or were rewarded with a catch in "nigger" fishing.

Among local anglers at the lake were Ben Trowbridge, John Johnson and Max Pierce.

It was reported that trout are now taking single eggs in the vicinity of Gold Hill, with some limited catches coming in.

P. G. Tonjes of Portland has been enjoying a few days of fishing on the Rogue near Gold Hill. Mr. Tonjes is an ardent fly fisherman who says he hasn't fished with anything but flies for 15 years, and has always managed to catch his share.

Harold Grey, Alec Stevens and Joe Meyers, with their families, drove up to the South Fork of Rogue River yesterday and reported they caught the limit of trout on flies. The fish averaged eight inches and were caught around the bridge.

Fishing was fair at Fish Lake.

BIGHAM BUSY AT KLAMATH PICNIC GETTING SIGNERS

P. C. Bigham returned Sunday evening from Klamath Falls where he spent four or five days in the interests of circulating petitions for the Rogue River fishing amendment. While there he secured between five and six hundred signatures for the measure, and also attended the annual fish fry of the Klamath County Sportsmen's association.

About 300 people attended the fish fry and Mr. Bigham reports that the fish were well prepared, his only regret being that he was so busy getting signatures that he did not have time for a fourth helping. The salmon were from the Klamath River.

STRIBLING SEEKS SHOT AT CROWN

CHICAGO, June 23.—(AP) Young Strubling, no longer regarded among heavyweights as the boy with the schoolboy fighting complexion, placed his left hand back into a plaster cast today and awaited developments in the leather-tossing industry.

Since the "crippled" left hand paralyzed Otto VonPorat, the Norwegian paralyzer, in less than a round at the Chicago stadium Friday night, the punching Georgian has been veritably showered with offers, but has shooed the mail aside, confidently awaiting one that will give him a shot at Max Schmeling's heavyweight crown.

A group of Los Angeles women have taken up polo. It is a fair match as played, with afternoon tea following the games.

Ten men tied for second place in the high jump at the last national collegiate track meet at Chicago.

The report brought in by M. M. Herman and party, who returned from the lake Sunday evening with a catch of trout. The roads are in very good condition.

Robert Hubbard returned from a two weeks' stay at Diamond Lake. Many two and a half and three pound trout are being caught. Other fishermen who returned from there last night with filled baskets were Arthur Marsh and Paul Amort.

ROBINS AMAZE BY TENACIOUS HOLD ON PEAK

Come From Behind Sunday To Defeat Pirates—Cubs Bow to Braves in Tight Contest.

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr., Associated Press Sports Writer.

Considering the closeness of the rivalry among the National league clubs, the tenure of Brooklyn as leader of the circuit is something really remarkable. The Robins, who caused something of a surprise when they first gained the top, have shown the way to their rivals for nearly a month despite numerous threats to their security.

Brooklyn came from behind yesterday, paced by two home runs by Babe Herman and one by Johnny Frederick, to score six runs in the seventh and eighth innings off Larry French, Pirate pitcher, to win 9-6.

The Cubs lost to the Braves, 3 to 2, despite a pair of homers.

The New York Giants picked up a game on the Cubs, remaining three games behind, by putting on a performance similar to Brooklyn's, and took a 6 to 4 decision from the Reds.

The St. Louis Cardinals attained a .500 average again by taking two games from Philadelphia. The Cards eluded 23 hits against five Philli pitchers to win by scores of 12 to 3 and 9 to 3.

The Detroit Tigers altered the American league standing a bit by winning a pair of games from the Boston Red Sox, 5 to 3 and 4 to 2. The double triumph put the Tigers into fifth place.

The Yankees picked up a half game on the leading Philadelphia Athletics, who moved to Cleveland for Sunday and dropped the final contest to the Indians, 4 to 2. They scored all their runs in one inning to win the first game 5 to 4. The Yanks lost the second contest by a 5 to 0 count.

Washington, with Ad Liska pitting a five hit game and Art Shires leading the attack on his old team with three busses that drove in four runs, made an even greater advance by trouncing the Chicago White Sox, 10 to 3. They picked up a full game on the Athletics, resting 2 1/2 games behind the leaders and only a half game behind the Yankees.
