Crews-Hall Wedding Event of Sunday.
 Miss Dorothy Crews, daughter of Mrs. Lucy Crews, and Mr. Melvin Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hall were married Sunday morning, June 22, at a lovely home wedding, solemnized at the home of Mrs. Crews, Rev. A. G. Bennett officiating.

The bride was lovely in blue georgette, and was attended by her sister, Miss Lucille Crews, who was dressed in pink satin. Miss Nelda Crews, sister of the bride, at the piano, played softly throughout the ceremony.

The room was decorated in roses and lilies-of-the-valley, the ceremony being performed under an arch of beautiful flowers.

A wedding breakfast was served following the ceremony, at which relatives of the bride and groom were present, including Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hall, Wilda Hall, Veva Hall, Leland Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Graydon Crews and Wayne Crews.

Garden Club to Hear Lecture.
 Mrs. W. L. Lawton, president of the National Society for Protection of Roadside Beauty and the Nature Association of America will be in this city Saturday to give a lecture at 2:30 p. m. at Hotel Medford.

Mrs. Lawton is making a survey of Oregon under the auspices of the Oregon Federation of Garden Clubs. Her visit to this city is anticipated by all persons interested in the campaign for beautification of highways. Work accomplished along this line in other states will be reviewed by Mrs. Lawton for instruction of local people.

Miss Villm to Be Honored Tonight.
 Miss Jean Villm, whose marriage to Robert Hart will be an event of June 30, will be honor guest at a bridge party at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. P. Holt, Corning Court, this evening. Mrs. Helen Holt Wilson acting as hostess.

Miss Rae Simmons has returned to this city from San Francisco, where she has been vacationing for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stovall and Mrs. Stovall's mother, Mrs. Nellie Chisholm, left here by motor last night for Eugene. Mrs. Chisholm had spent the past week visiting her daughter and son-in-law.

Attend Conference.
 Among Medford girls who are attending the conference being held this week at Rogue River under the auspices of the Presbyterian church are the Misses Susan Dygan, Dorothy Paley and Marjorie Pughan.

Walters Returning Home.
 Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walters, who have spent several days here visiting friends and looking after property interests, left today by auto for their home in Portland.

Miss Crawford Bride Today.
 At a lovely ceremony at the First Presbyterian church at eight o'clock this morning, Miss Aileen Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oris Crawford, became the bride of Mr. George Maddox of Seattle. The service was read by Rev. Claude B. Porter and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Dressed in a quaint basque creation of white taffeta with pastel floral pattern and veil and carrying a shower bouquet of white roses, the bride was preceded down the aisle by the two flower-bearers, Barbara Butler and Rupert Maddox Jr. While the wedding march was played by Mrs. George Andrews at the organ.

Mrs. Warren G. Butler, her matron of honor, wore a peach colored gown of georgette and Miss Joyce Maddox and Miss Maurine McKenney, bridesmaids, were dressed in orchid and rose, and carried corsages of many colored flowers. Rupert Maddox, brother of the groom, was his only attendant.

The church was beautifully decorated with the altar banked with many varieties of summer flowers for the occasion.

Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Maddox left this afternoon for the Olympic mountains, Wash., where they will spend several weeks before making their home in Seattle.

Piano Recital By Mrs. Gore's Pupils.
 Piano pupils of Mrs. E. E. Gore will be heard in recital Friday evening, June 27 at 8:15, at St. Mark's Parish hall. Friends, pupils and those interested in educational music work are invited.

Coming to Rialto

If laughing makes you fat, do without your dinner the night you attend the Fox Rialto theater to see "Midnight Mystery," which opens there tomorrow. True, the picture has a murder in it. Most murders are not funny. But there really is merriment in the way the murderer is discovered by pretty Betty Compson in this feature screen offering.

"Midnight Mystery" has enough to hold thrill-hungry fans until the final confession comes. A gent gets killed all right, but the joke is on the killer.

Rogers Scores Hit

Capacity audiences at the Fox Craterian theater are endorsing the verdict of every city where it has been shown that "So This is London," Will Rogers' second starring production for Fox Movietone is deservedly rated a comedy triumph.

SCOUTING

Monday evening the cub scouts met at Scout headquarters under the leadership of Lloyd Showers. The boys are making good progress and will be ready to pass some of their tests within the next few weeks.

DEUEL BUILDING PLANS UNDER CONSIDERATION

Three or four plans are under consideration for the reconstruction of the Deuel building, Main and Bartlett streets, but none have yet arrived at a definite state. H. S. Deuel said yesterday. He said that some unavoidable delays had been encountered, but that a definite announcement would be forthcoming in a very short time.

"Coming events cast their shadows before"

TRIED AND TRUE!

When tempted to over-indulge "REACH FOR A LUCKY INSTEAD"

Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. Avoid that future shadow* by avoiding over-indulgence, if you would maintain that modern, ever-youthful figure. "Reach for a Lucky instead."

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Lucky Strike has an extra, secret heating process. Everyone knows that heat purifies and so 20,679 physicians say that Luckies are less irritating to your throat.

LUCKY STRIKE CIGARETTES "IT'S TOASTED"

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

*"I have come to the conclusion," writes Sir Henry Thompson, M. D., F.R.S., "that more than half the disease that embitters human life is due to avoidable errors in diet." We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky instead," you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight, and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.
