AGED PIONEER OF JACKSON CO. PASSES AWAY

William Dorn, 98, Who Came to Jacksonville 9 Years Before Civil War, Called to Reward.

William Dorn, one of the oldest pioneer citizens of the state of Oregon, died in his ninety-eighth year at the Sacred Heart hospital at 11 p. m. Wednesday. Mr. Dorn came to his death as a result of cancer of the face but was otherwise in the best of health. He has followed mining for seventy years, coming to Oregon from Missouri in 1852, he settled at Jacksonville, then a small mining camp and has resided in the Rogue River valley since that time except for 12 years which he spent mining in Idaho. Dorn was a soldier of the Indian war and was on the government pension list at the time of his death. He was born at Baltimore, Maryland, Nov. 12, 1832 and has spent a rugged frontier life of nearly a century.

Besides his wife who is now confined in the hospital, he leaves three sons and two daughters, David and Fred Dorn of Jacksonville; Ernest of Chehalis, Wash., Mrs. Addie Louden of Fern Valley, Oregon and Mrs. Laura Wheeler, San Francisco.

Funeral services in charge of Conger Funeral Parlors, will be held at the Log Town cemetery near Ruch, at 10 a. m. Saturday.

DICK SHERWOOD OPERATED UPON IN CALIFORNIA

Richard Sherwood, well known Medford man better known as Dick, who remained in Los Angeles when Mrs. Sherwood and their sons, Stanley and Robert, departed for home, they reaching here last Monday, underwent an operation in a Glendale, Cal. hospital yesterday, which he well withstood according to a telegraph message received from Dr. Russell Sherwood today. He will be in the hospital for from 10 days to two weeks yet, and then cannot leave for home until about two weeks after that time.

The Sherwood family went to Los Angeles about two weeks ago to attend the graduation of Russell Sherwood from the College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons after five years' of study there. Mrs. Russell Sherwood and son accompanied the family back to Medford. Russell, following his graduation, entered the Los Angeles county hospital as an interne, and will be on duty until next March when he will be turned loose on the world as a full-fledged osteopathic physician and surgeon, and come to Medford to at once enter practice here.

The local Copco organization will have to worry along the best it can this summer without the young doctor, who has spent the summer vacation in working for Copco since he began his medical course.

EGG MARKET HAS BETTER DEMAND

PORTLAND, Ore., June 26.—(AP)—Butter and egg prices ruled steady in the Portland wholesale market today. Egg demand showed improvement. Butter dealers reported a moderate volume of trading with a fair demand for storage.

Country dressed meats and poultry prices remained unchanged except for a 1 cent drop to 16 cents for choice veals brought about by a draggy movement of supplies on hand.

Strawberry receipts are declining.

Barrelers' supplies continue at an unexpected liberal volume, one barreller alone reporting processing of 15 barrels of strawberries at their Oregon plants yesterday.

RAINS DAMAGING SALEM CHERRIES

SALEM, Ore., June 26.—(AP)—Showers during the night Wednesday and Thursday morning spread over the Salem cherry district gave growers, shippers and canners all extreme concern as to the possibility of extensive damage both to the black and Royal Anne cherry crops.

Reports were received from various orchards of Bings and Lamberts, showing a percentage of cracked cherries.

Predictions were made by shippers, canners and growers alike that three days continuance of present weather conditions might wreck both black and Royal Anne cherry crops.
