HARRY ELLIOTT WINS TWO FROM TOM RYAN

SALEM, Ore., June 26.—(AP)—Harry Elliott, wrestling instructor at the University of Oregon, defeated Tommy Ryan, Medford middleweight, here Wednesday night, two-out of three falls. Ryan took the first fall after a series of headlocks. Elliott staged a strong offensive to win the next when he slammed Ryan to the mat with such gusto that the latter needed an extra five-minute rest period. Still weak, Ryan fell an easy victim to Elliott's flying body scissors, the fall coming in 41 1/2 minutes.

CRUCIAL SERIES ROBINS VS. CUBS OPENING TODAY

Four Games in Chicago Expected to Decide Leader at Turning Point, July Fourth.

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Separated by one game, the Robins and the Cubs open in Chicago today a series of four games which probably will decide which will reach July 4, the traditional turning point of the season, on top.

Brooklyn has held first place for about a month with a crippled Cub team hanging right onto the next rung of the ladder.

The Robins could not hit Ray Kremer yesterday, getting but seven blows. Pittsburgh touched Dudley and Clark for eleven blows and a 5 to 1 victory.

The Cubs hit the Philadelphia pitching much more freely but barely pulled out the game by a 13 to 12 score to sweep the three-game series and score their eighth victory in nine starts.

The Cincinnati Reds shoved the New York Giants deeper into third place, by winning the final, 11 to 3, to break even in the four games.

The Yankees took a double victory over the Browns, 16 to 4 and 5 to 1.

The Senators held onto second place by beating the Cleveland Indians for the fourth successive time, 13 to 5.

The Athletics got an even break with the Chicago White Sox, romping through the first game 8 to 1. Chicago led the second, 7 to 2.

Jack Russell of the Boston Red Sox had just one bad inning against Detroit, the eighth, but that was enough to give the Tigers the game, 4 to 3.

ASSOCIATED OIL FETES CHAMPION CAT BALL TEAM

The Associated Oil company, through Manager Webster last night at the Hotel Medford tendered a banquet to its kitten ball team, winner of the city championship, R. J. Cook of Portland, district sales head, of Portland arrived from Roseburg after a hurried auto trip, to be present at the session, which lasted until 11 o'clock. Roy Wakefield of the local force presided. The team and others present did full justice to the fried chicken.

The officials complimented the players upon their victory, and the players thanked the Associated Oil company for the fried chicken and trimmings, in short speeches. Extemporaneous remarks were made by Rudolph Singler, Ray Lewis, Elbert Coleman, John Beckin, Stanley Biden, Warren ("Pug") Hamlin, Leon Lawton and others. Malcolm Stine made a speech and executed a number of piano solos in a capable manner.

The meeting adjourned with plans underway for an Associated Oil basketball team next fall, and a gridiron team, in the event kitten football is played.

PORTLAND, Ore., June 26.—(AP) At Karasick's head proved to be a little harder than Abe Colman's and Karasick won last night's wrestling match, two out of three falls. After five minutes of wrestling for the final fall they met head-on. Both lay limp on the canvas. Karasick was the first to recover and by blind instinct crawled over to where Colman lay and fell across his body. The Jewish wrestler took the first fall with a flying boogie in 31 minutes, 31 seconds. Karasick evaded the second flying reverse headlocks. Colman was in a fair way to capture the deciding fall when the battle of skulls ended the match.

SLAPSIE MAXIE FINALLY GAINS CHAMPIONSHIP

By Edward J. Neil, Associated Press Sports Writer. BUFFALO, June 26.—(AP) Slapsie Maxie Rosenbloom of New York, stood forth today as new champion of the light heavyweights, conqueror of the only man who ever consistently gave him trouble during his amazing fighting career in three divisions.

Maxie has whipped the best middleweights, some heavyweights, and now he has accounted for the last of the 175-pound top-lighters who had held out against his discouraging ring attack.

Last night Rosenbloom gained a close decision over Jimmy Slattery before a crowd of 13,500 in the International league ball park here, and with victory came the only championship he has ever fought for in 10 years of battling outstanding ring men.

Five times before, the team of Slattery and Rosenbloom furnished the feature attraction along various by-paths of ringland, and in four of the engagements, Jimmy, pride of Buffalo's first ward, gained victories.

Maxie won only once. Of all the men he has beaten, including Leo Lomski, Ace Hudkins, Jimmy Braddock, Dave Shade, Larry Johnson and Pete Latzo, only Slattery was able to come back and defeat him consistently.

But last night, before $55,000 worth of customers, Rosenbloom gained his revenge by winning the title Slattery has held since last February when he defeated Lou Scozza here and gained general recognition as the successor to Tommy Loughran, retired from the 173-second ranks to fight with the three crows against the heavyweights.

CRUISE TO MEET REAL OPPONENT IN BIG SWED

Hanson Rated One of the Toughest Matmen Ever to Face Oswego Rancher—Match Is Monday.

Bob Kruse, the Oswego rancher, will tackle the toughest opponent he has ever faced when he meets Charley Hansen, Seattle heavy-weight wrestler, in the main event at the Army Monday night, June 30.

Hansen didn't gain his name of "The Terrible Swede from Seattle" without earning it. And he has earned the title because of his mad deeds.

Inoffensive and the most gentlemanly kind of a chap when out of the ring, he forgets all this when he starts hostilities. Not that Hansen is unnecessarily rough, and violates the wrestling rules.

Instead, he sticks to the rules as long as his opponent does, but he is naturally strong and rough, and doesn't handle his opponent with kid gloves.

Again, his pet hold, the reverse body slam, is ruinous when he applies it properly and puts all his steam behind it. Whirling his opponent in the air, the slam, as its name signifies, slams him to the mat with such force that it is a simple matter to walk over and pin his shoulders, for it leaves the unlucky fellow "out." He knows not what is going on.

Whether Hansen can do this to Kruse is a question. Bob, who weighs the same as Charley, is very strong and a wrestler who Hansen can do with his trick. He doesn't propose to be tricked by it.

As Bob is going to be extremely busy applying wristlocks, he figures that he will have Hansen on the defensive from the start. Other good wrestlers have tried, and been badly mistaken.

Charley can get this hold so quickly and from any position, that he is dangerous at all times, even when half groggy. He was in this condition from a series of headlocks applied by that past master, Ed (Strangler) Lewis, but he slipped it on this big fellow, who ruled the world as champion for a period of years.

Hansen picked Lewis up in their match, 233 pounds, carried him to the edge of the ring and dumped him on the bare boards outside. This, in the opinion of the referee, constituted a foul, and as it was the deciding fall, he lost the verdict. However, a man who can handle Lewis like this is going to be dangerous for Kruse, or anyone else.

Both wrestlers are stronger than their actual weight would indicate. With their speed and experience, they should battle along even terms in practically every respect.

Cornell Crews Lead in Percentage In Annual Poughkeepsie Regattas

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y.—(AP)—Cornell, with 13 victories out of 32 starts, still holds the best winning average in the annual intercollegiate rowing regatta.

The Navy, however, is close behind and a victory for the Midshipmen today would give them the lead.

The Navy has won three times in nine attempts and if successful this year would have an average of 400 to Cornell's 394.

All of Cornell's victories were gained prior to 1916 in the reign of Coach Charles E. Courtney, while all of the Navy's triumphs have been achieved since the war.

The records of the crews:

College	Won	Lost	Pct.
Cornell	13	19	.406
Navy	3	6	.333
Washington	3	7	.300
California	1	4	.200
Syracuse	5	21	.192
Columbia	4	28	.125
Pennsylvania	3	29	.094

Wisconsin competed in 21 races, Georgetown in 8, Stanford in 2 and Harvard and Massachusetts Tech in 1 each, but never managed to finish first.

PORTLAND LEADS 'MUNIE' GOLFERS IN SEMI-FINALS

PORTLAND, Ore., June 26.—(AP)—Seven Portland golfers and one visiting player, Barge Pease, Tacoma, today are battling over a 30-hole route for places in the semi-final round of the first annual Pacific northwest public links championship tournament.

With the exception of Pease, all visiting players who qualified were eliminated in the first or second round of the championship flight yesterday.

Clyde Finlay, Seattle, one of the local threats, defeated George Inglis, Portland, 5 and 4, in the first round yesterday but was eliminated on the 19th in the second round by George Parker, Portland.

Pease, the Tacoma, had an easy time yesterday, eliminating Dr. R. J. Pashberg, Portland, medalist 5 and 4 in the morning round, and Bill Prantlich, Portland 4 and 3, in the afternoon.

SOLONS RETAIN LEADERSHIP BY CLOSE MARGIN

Seattle's Defeat of Angelo Enable Sacs to Avert Tie for Pinnacle—Ducks Lose Again.

(By the Associated Press)

Sacramento's staying power as sole holder of first place in the Pacific Coast league remains intact yesterday in spite of the feat of the Senators by Hollywood 8 to 2, thanks to Seattle's 4 to 0 winning triumph over Los Angeles 7 to 6. An Angel win would have given them a tie for the lead.

Turner of the Stars held Sacramento to five hits as the Blue wood outfit made it two straight taking a four-run lead in the fifth inning. Thomas, on the hill for the Sacs, went out in the seventh.

Knothe, Indian third baseman, clouted a two-bagger in the eighth of the ninth with the ball full, to overcome a Los Angeles lead and even the series in a game which, Lamanski was the winning pitcher.

San Francisco gained leadership by downing Portland 6 to 1, by 7 to 2, Jimmy Zinn keeping the Ducks from flying far, evening the series.

Herman Pilette of the Miners shut Oakland out after their first run second inning, and the Brown as Huff's second batter on the day accounted for the last out.
