FRESH Tea

A QUALITY YOU WOULD INSIST UPON IF YOU KNEW ALL THE FACTS

Till coffee was packed in vacuum, you never knew how much of its glorious flavor you had been missing. The same is true of tea. The two are identical in one respect. A little air—a little moisture—and pff!—the finer flavors are gone. With coffee it happens quickly. With tea more slowly—but surely. And it is many months before tea reaches you from the tea gardens—frequently a year. Its original flavor you could never enjoy until Schilling, by a secret process, packed tea hot in vacuum.

SCHILLING TEA

SEALED HOT IN VACUUM Both a tea leaf and a coffee bean must be toasted to drive off the moisture, which helps to rob them of flavor. Good coffee is packed in vacuum immediately after roasting. Tea is toasted at the tea gardens, then sealed in large chests lined with lead. When it arrives in America it is repacked in ordinary tins or even cardboard boxes. And that's where the damage is done! But this is how Schilling does it. As the tea is poured from the lead-lined chests, it is toasted again, and while still hot (just like your coffee) it is sealed in vacuum. Schilling Tea comes to you as fresh and fragrant as it left the Orient—the only tea completely protected from the tea garden to you.

SCHILLING ICED TEA

Schilling Iced Tea is far more refreshing than any other, because it is fresh to begin with—fresh and fragrant. Black tea (orange pekoe) is best for iced tea. And try using tea bags instead of loose tea. Steep the tea to the desired strength, remove the tea bag, and your tea can stand for some time before pouring over the ice. No danger of its steeping too long before icing. Just two or three minutes over-steeping makes a lot of difference in the flavor of tea.

TEA IN BAGS

Tea bags as well as loose tea are packed in vacuum by Schilling. A Schilling Tea bag contains just the proper amount of tea for two delicious cups or two tall glasses of fragrant iced tea. Try this modern way of serving it.

FREE METHODISTS NAME DELEGATES FOR CONFERENCE

Rev. A. C. Archer of the local Free Methodist church and Proud Fitt were elected this morning to attend the Free Methodist general conference which will probably be held in Denver. Rev. J. E. McDonald of Medford and Central Point and Merle Dunlap were elected as reserves.

The southern Oregon conference which is being held in the Methodist church, south, opened Wednesday afternoon, with Bishop Wm. Pearce of Evanston, Ill., presiding. Medford, Central Point, Ashland and Grants Pass are represented in the Medford district. The Roseburg district, which includes Roseburg, Sutherlin, Cottage Grove, Springfield, Eugene and Dorena, is also a part of the southern Oregon district.

Ministers who are attending the conference include Rev. W. E. Goode, evangelist; A. C. Archer, Medford; J. E. McDonald, Medford and Central Point; D. D. Dodge, Grants Pass; E. F. Lee, Sunday school secretary and evangelist; Otto Fuson, evangelist; J. D. McCormack, evangelist; Emma Thomason, Ashland, and M. H. Pitcher, Cottage Grove.

Delegates present at today's meeting included Merle Dunlap, Arminda Stoops, Proud Fitt, Wm. Garrison, Mrs. Long and Mrs. Grant.

Frank J. Kline of Evanston, Ill., is attending the conference, being a representative of "The Free Methodist," a magazine published in Chicago. Mr. Kline is attending the Free Methodist conferences throughout the northwest.

A memorial service will be held tomorrow morning for four of the Free Methodist church members, after which appointments for the coming year will be made.

ASKS RAILROAD FOR REDRESS AFTER FALL

The Southern Pacific railroad, as owner of the right of way, is named defendant in a damage action filed against it yesterday in circuit court by Marie Mosier, who is seeking $2953 for a broken leg sustained when she fell on the allegedly icy sidewalk at the corner of Main and Fir last January during the heavy snow storm and cold spell.

Mrs. Mosier was a waitress at the Jackson Hotel at the time of her injury and claims she was unable to work for three months as a result of the accident.

SALESMAN SEEKING DAMAGES IN CRASH

The sum of $19,120 is sought as damages in a suit filed in circuit court yesterday by Charles Erb, traveling salesman, against Herman Shope, truck driver, as a result of an auto crash on the Pacific highway last February. Shope is a driver for the Consolidated Truck and Medford-Portland truck lines and is charged with careless driving by the plaintiff.

The plaintiff claims that as a result of the crash he was forced to spend 12 weeks in a Grants Pass hospital. Of the sum asked by Erb, $17,500 is sought for general damages.

MAILMEN'S PICNIC SET FOR JULY 20, BAR CANDIDATES

It was announced today that the second annual picnic of the Medford postoffice carriers and clerks and the rural carriers operating out of that office, and their families will be held on Sunday, July 20. The place of the outing has not yet been finally decided on, but inasmuch as last year's picnic at the Star Ranger station vicinity in the Applegate section was so successful and the location so delightful, that place may be decided on.

The committee on arrangements denies that the various state Republican gubernatorial candidates will be invited to attend as guests, as this is only a picnic and not a national convention and then, too, the postal outfit would have to hold the affair at Fort Lewis or the state fair grounds, in order to have room for all the candidates.

Some of the postal employes also favor inviting President Hoover to attend, but the committee is adamantly opposed to this as they feel sure he would accept the invitation, and they feel that his presence is needed at Washington all of July.

High pressure salesmanship is the subject of tonight's installment of Cecil and Sally, scheduled on station KMED for 7:15 o'clock. The two youngsters are cleaning up behind the counter when they find a book which teaches selling as it should be done. Cecil reads a few pages and tries out the first lesson on two customers.

KMED will send anybody who writes the station, a picture of Cecil and Sally.
