Ye Smudge Pot
(By Arthur Perry)

The brains of the Republican party of Oregon, is now engaged in some terrific thinking, and will assiduously fool around until they elect a Democratic governor.

In the great World War, many of our men displayed almost a super-natural strength and endurance.

A minister argument is being advanced in favor of the abolition of cigarettes in this state.

Mosquitoes are reported plentiful, and unreasonable, as usual.

A cow kicked little Ray Timms loose from a milk pail Tuesday morning.

Admiral Byrd, home from the Antarctic, is meeting with some lively competition from the Lindbergh boy.

AMONG THE GALS
2 of our schoolma'ams are in Gibraltar.

The Charlis Strang scales committed perjury again Tues., as Boss G., is subsiding only on salads.

NAPKINS ARE NAPERY
I suppose it is a way I was reared. I would have written raised and most of the older readers would have considered it the proper word.

SALEM BANKER NAMED ASSOCIATION LEADER

HOW TO SPEND YOUR VACATION

MILLIONS of Americans will go on automobile trips this summer, some will spend two weeks in the mountains or at the seashore—but only a few will have real vacations.

This is the interesting opinion advanced by Hendrik Van Loon, philosopher-historian, in the current issue of Good House-keeping magazine.

HE sets a schedule for himself, if he is interested, and is as concerned about being at certain points on specified dates as he would be about being at the office on time in the morning.

Travel is not a business and never should be a business, he declares. "Did you ever see a man grow hilarious reading a time-table or a guide book?"

MR. Van Loon's idea of a real vacation, one that will release the mind as well as the body from the monotony of daily habit, is to start out with no particular objective in mind and without caring particularly how much territory you are going to cover or where you are going to spend the night.

"It is really the mental change that counts most, the getting away from day by day habits," he declares in the Good House-keeping article. "A mere physical change without a corresponding mental change will do very little good."

THE old idea that the reputable doctor, lawyer, architect or other professional man could not advertise and maintain his professional dignity is rapidly being supplanted by the conviction that he should advertise in the interest of the public as well as of himself.

WHILE it may be regarded as unethical for architect, lawyer or doctor to proclaim his individual merits to the public, it is to the public interest that such professional classes should advertise as groups and point out to the public the advantage of consulting a reputable practitioner, listing members of the profession and telling where they may be found, the editor shows.

MUTT AND JEFF—Plenty Of Clues But No Evidence
MUTT, YOU'RE RUNNING A CROOKED SWEEPSTAKES—BUT I'LL GET YOU OUT IF IT TAKES A LIFETIME!

THEN I'LL BE EVEN—BECAUSE ALL I GOT WAS LIFE! EXCUSE ME—CUSTOMERS ARE OUTSIDE MY CELL!

HOW MANY? BUT IT DON'T SEEM RIGHT TO BUY A TICKET FOR THE SWEEPSTAKES FROM A MAN IN JAIL. YOU MIGHTN'T BE HONEST!

DON'T BE SILLY, I AIN'T IN JAIL FOR THE SWEEPSTAKES. I'M HERE FOR PICKING A KANGAROO'S POUCH IN AUSTRALIA!

immigrant who is unable to speak English against charlatans who have victimized them for years.

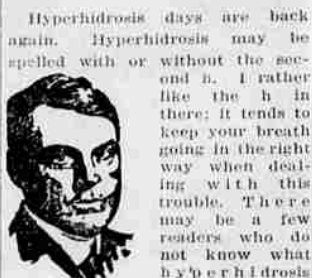

Incidentally, Dr. Shirley W. Wynne, the New York health commissioner, is one of the outstanding medical figures who believe that physicians should practice such group advertising in all newspapers throughout the country.

Personal Health Service

By William Brady, M. D.

Signed letters pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment will be answered by Dr. Brady if stamped self-addressed envelope is enclosed.

FORMALDEHYDE FOR FRETFUL FEET.

Hyperhidrosis days are back again. Hyperhidrosis may be spelled with or without the second h. I rather like the h in there; it tends to keep your breath going in the right way when dealing with this trouble.

Formaldehyde is fierce stuff to handle, however. Remember that even if the druggist fails to remind you.

Formaldehyde comes in a standard solution of 37 per cent of formaldehyde in water and methyl alcohol.

For more severe sweating of the feet it is necessary to paint a sponge solution diluted with water between the toes with a weaker formaldehyde dilution.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
Swedish Bread Is Wholesome. Is this unleavened Swedish bread good for a person? It is light brown, flat and crispy and is usually made in large slabs. Some bakers call it rye-crisp and whole rye and crisp. It would like to know its food value and whether it is fattening compared with white bread—Miss A. M. G.

Little Sister Out of Luck. I would like to get a pamphlet on the subject of sex and life, for my sister, who is 14 years old. I want to congratulate you on your excellent work. I never fail to read your column and have learned a lot from it.—Mrs. A. V.

Last summer in Venice a physician informed me that the sugars of figs, grapes and others were injurious to people with glycosuria, but that the sugars of apples, oranges and others were not, being of the opposite rotatory type.

SUNDOWN STORIES
THE RAINBOW
By Mary Graham Bonner.

The Little Black Clock had only turned the time back a few hours. It was raining a gentle rain and at the same time the sun was shining.

PHOENIX LADIES HONOR SACRAMENTO RESIDENT
PHOENIX, Ore., June 28.—(Special)—Mrs. C. C. Hartley and Mrs. H. W. Frame were hostesses Wednesday at a party commemorating Mrs. George Morris, formerly of Phoenix, now of Sacramento.

Appreciation
In Memory of Mrs. Anna C. Nally
A dear friend was Mrs. Nally. A friend we miss so sadly. A voice we loved is still. Her place can never be filled.
