

The Week's Society Happenings

Edited By
Eva Nealon

Miss Vilm Will Be Bride, Lovely Garden Wedding Monday Eve

Miss Eugenia Vilm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Vilm, and Robert C. Hart, son of Mrs. Anna Hart, will be married tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock in the garden of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Swigart, Genesee street, Rev. Wm. B. Hamilton of the St. Mark's Episcopal church officiating.

Miss Betty Vilm, sister of the bride-to-be, will be her maid of honor. Little Harriett Hart will be flower bearer. Mendelssohn's wedding march will be played by Miss Elizabeth Swigart at the piano and the bride will be given in marriage by her father.

Mr. Floyd Hart, brother of the groom will be his attendant. Following the ceremony, which will be performed in the presence of a few relatives and friends, the bride and groom will leave for a motor trip to coast points.

Mrs. Wilson Hostess At Bridge Shower For Bride-to-Be

Among the interesting affairs of the past week given in honor of Miss Jean Vilm, local bride-to-be was a bridge shower at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. V. Holt Tuesday evening at which Mrs. Helen Holt Wilson was hostess.

There were two tables of bridge in play and Mrs. Justin Smith was recipient of first prize for high score. Many lovely gifts were presented Miss Vilm. Refreshments served by the hostess at the close of the evening.

Guests were Mesdames W. B. Johnston Jr., Chas. Wortman, Ben Trowbridge, Max Pierce, Justin Smith, Jack Wurts and Misses Dee Scheffel and Jean Vilm.

Iverson-Putney Wedding Tuesday

Tuesday morning, June 24, at 10 o'clock, Miss Marie Iverson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. Iverson, became the bride of Mr. Maynard Putney, son of Mr. Arthur Putney of 508 Plum street, in the presence of 35 guests at the home of the bride's parents on Ross court.

Reverend Iverson, father of the bride, performed the impressive wedding service, assisted by Rev. C. B. Porter of the Medford Presbyterian church, and Rev. R. B. Davidson of the Eagle Point Presbyterian church.

Proceeding the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wilcox of Ashland, formerly of Eau Claire, Wis., sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly." Miss Georgia Gurley, who played the processional wedding march, also played "Falling Waters."

The bride's gown was of white silk chiffon. She wore a bandeau of orange blossoms and a strand of pearls. The bride bouquet was pink roses. Miss Iverson's only attendant was Miss Irene Standley of Phoenix, who wore a dress of pale green silk. She carried an arm bouquet of rosebuds and sweet peas.

Mr. Putney's cousin, Mr. Marvin Wick, of Medford, was best man.

The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the groom to the immediate relatives, after which the couple departed on a short trip. Mr. and Mrs. Putney will be at home to their friends at 2 Everett court after July 1.

Miss Ruff Bride of Giddison Crow

Miss Juana Jean Ruff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Ruff, became the bride of Giddison Crow, son of Rev. G. O. Crow. The ceremony was performed at high noon at the home of the bride's parents, with the father of the groom officiating.

The bride was lovely in an afternoon dress of blue crepe, and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas and cosmos. Only immediate members of the family and intimate friends were present.

Following the wedding luncheon at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left for La Grande, Ore., where they will make their home.

Will Spend Summer in Medford

Mrs. E. V. Maddox, who came to this city the first of the week to attend the wedding of Miss Aileen Crawford and George Maddox, plans to spend the summer with her son, Rupert Maddox and family.

Mrs. Waite Is Guest

Mrs. Frank Waite of Portland is spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lyman of East Jackson street. Mrs. Waite has been spending the past month with her son, Fendel Waite and family of Klamath Falls and is now returning home.

Mrs. Tom Billings, Mrs. P. Padlock, Mrs. Ira Walker and children and Mrs. J. Fry motored to Yreka Friday morning to spend the day visiting Mr. and Mrs. Warren Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Keag of Fort Morgan, Colo., Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Cozans of Santa Monica, Calif., and Dr. Eva Mains Carlow visited Crater Lake on Saturday.

Mr. H. H. DeArmond, son Robert, and daughter, Betty Jean, arrived from Bend Friday evening and will be guests of their uncle and aunt, Drs. Carlow, and of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ernest Smith, for several days.

Bridge Luncheon Given Saturday For Bride-to-Be

Mrs. Justin Smith and Miss Josephine Koppes were hostesses yesterday afternoon at a bridge luncheon at Hotel Medford, given in compliment to Miss Eugenia Vilm, local bride-to-be.

Prize for high score at bridge was won by Mrs. E. H. Hedrick, second high by Mrs. James Lively and low by Mrs. Searle Spencer.

Guests were: Mesdames Helen Wilson, W. B. Johnston, Max Pierce, Ben Trowbridge, Robert Norria, Jack Porter, Donald Newberry, Charles Wortman, John Lawrence, E. H. Hedrick, James Lively, Donald Grey, Flavius West, Jack Wurts, Glad Smith, Allen South, William Bolger, Bert Lageson, Ted Gelbauer, Searle Spencer, Nitsel, and Miss Jean Vilm.

Birthday Party Is Given Younger Set

Mrs. M. J. Leonard entertained with a party at her apartment on 10th street Friday evening honoring the 16th birthday of her daughter, Helen McDonald. The first part of the evening was spent at the miniature golf course. After returning to the apartment the guests gathered round a table decorated with sweet peas and pink roses. In the center stood a large birthday cake with 16 pink candles. Refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening devoted to games.

Guests were: Helen McDonald, Martha DeSouza, Katherine Oliver, Elsie Oliver, Arlene Jensen, Agnes Pollner, Lowell Dupray, Ralph Denman, Edmund Simmons and Jack Marshall.

Mrs. Ben Trowbridge, Sr., Mrs. D. L. Flynn, Mrs. James Stovall and Mrs. Frank De Souza assisted Mrs. Leonard in entertaining.

Mrs. Downing Honor Guest at Luncheon

Mrs. O. V. Myers and Mrs. R. A. Koppes entertained informally at a one-o'clock luncheon at Hotel Medford Tuesday, honoring Mrs. Kenneth C. Downing of Spokane, Wash., who is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley D. Henson.

Miss Mary Hayes Returns From North

Miss Mary Hayes, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Hayes, has returned to this city from Seattle, where she attended the University of Washington. To spend the summer with relatives and friends, Miss Dorothy Ness, with whom she enjoyed a motor trip through northern Washington and British Columbia following the close of school, is remaining in Roseburg for a few days to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Ness.

Buffet Supper at Hart Home

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hart will entertain in this evening with a buffet supper honoring Miss Eugenia Vilm and Robert Hart, whose marriage will be an event of tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Porter Hostess at Bridge Luncheon

There were four tables of bridge in play following the luncheon given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Jack Porter at her home on Reddy avenue. Tables were attractively decorated in pastel colors for the event.

Cole-Aldredge Nuptials Sunday

On Sunday, June 22 at two o'clock, Miss Viola Cole and Mr. P. Moman Aldredge were married at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. Conder of the First Methodist church, South, officiating.

The bride wore an afternoon frock of printed eggshell chiffon, and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas and roses. She was attended by her younger sister, Miss Ethel.

Guests from Medford included the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cole, the bride's sister, Miss Ethel Cole, and her grandmother, Mrs. W. J. Lingerfelt, Mr. and Mrs. Willard E. Caye, Mr. and Mrs. Tom G. Caye, and Mrs. M. Sumner Ruff. Guests from out-of-town included the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Aldredge of Myrtle Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Hulbert of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Haines of Kerby, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cook of Ashland, the Misses Carol Perns and Elizabeth Pitcher of Silver Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Humphrey and Mrs. Lee Humphrey of Central Point.

Mrs. Aldredge was a June graduate of the Southern Oregon normal school where she was a member of Sigma Epsilon Phi and of Caeothes Scribendi.

Following the ceremony, the young couple left for points on the Oregon and California coasts. Upon their return, they will live in the Berrydale district, where they will be at home to their friends after July first.

Mrs. Bowne Honored At Luncheon Given By Mrs. McCaskey

An interesting event of the past week was the buffet luncheon given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. H. D. McCaskey at her country home on the Old Stage Road, honoring Mrs. Alice Bowne of New York, who is guest in Medford for the summer of her sister, Mrs. Edward Burgess. Thirty-four of Mrs. Bowne's friends were invited to the luncheon, which was followed by several hours of bridge.

The guest list included: Mesdames Edward Burgess, Gain Robinson, Thomas Mills, Alfred Carpenter, H. Van Hovenburg, James Owen, F. Corning Kenly, Marjorie Peasley, George Roberts, Evan Heaton, Louis Salade, Sr., Louis Salade, Jr., Alex Sparrow, Paul Scherer, Shelby Tuttle, Robert Ruhl, Donald Clark, Margaret Hubbard, Earl Tamy, Gilbert, E. H. Janney, Bartel, Tom Williams, Blanner, the Misses Ann Livingston, Mae, Helen and Mildred Carlton, Mrs. Nelson and daughter and Mrs. Alice Bowne, honor guest.

Mrs. Salade Honors Mrs. Bowne at Bridge Luncheon on Friday

Mrs. L. A. Salade, Sr., entertained with a bridge luncheon Friday in compliment to Mrs. Alice Bowne of New York, who is spending the summer in this city. Guests were Mrs. Earl Tamy, Mrs. Gain Robinson, Mrs. E. G. Burgess, Mrs. H. Van Hovenburg, Mrs. H. D. McCaskey, Mrs. L. A. Salade Jr., and Miss Bowne.

Mrs. Huntress Is Guest From Portland

Mrs. D. D. Huntress arrived in Medford Friday evening from Portland to spend a week visiting relatives and friends in southern Oregon. She is now guest of her sister, Mrs. John Dodge of King street. She will be joined later in the week by Mr. Huntress and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Huntress of Portland, who will motor to this city and on to Crater Lake over the Fourth of July week end. Mrs. Huntress is remembered here as the former Miss Katherine Nealon. She was a member of the faculty of the Washington school for two years and is welcomed on her return by many friends.

Eastern Wedding of Local Interest

Of interest to social circles of Medford is the marriage of Miss Inez Lyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lyon of Grants Pass and Kenneth Edward Groder of Augusta, Maine, which was an event of Wednesday, June 25th, in the St. Mary's church in the New England city.

The bride formerly made her home in Medford and is remembered here by many friends.

Mrs. Carpenter Guest at Welch Home Here

Mrs. A. E. Carpenter and sons, Kenneth and Arthur, of New York City, are the guests of Mrs. Carpenter's parents in this city, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Welch. They plan to remain here about two months.

Kenly Entertains School Master

Marcus H. Dall, master in the Thatcher school at Ojai, Calif., was entertained during the past week at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Corning Kenly, as guest of their son, Corning Jr., with whom he made the trip from Ojai.

Miss Bernyce Hensley returned to Medford the first of the week from Portland and Salem, where she visited friends for several days. She motored to Newport, while in the northern part of the state and enjoyed a day at the beach. Miss Hensley will spend the remainder of the summer with her sister, Miss Margaret Hensley and return to Burns in the fall to resume her duties as instructor in the city high school.

Mrs. J. C. Spencer returned to her home in Eagle Point last week from an extensive tour of Canada. She made the return trip from Victoria to Seattle by boat.

Miss Eugenia Vilm

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Vilm, who will become the bride of Robert Hart at a wedding in the garden of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Swigart at 7 o'clock tomorrow evening.

Misses McWilliams, Ruhl, Honor Guests

Miss Julia McWilliams of Pasadena, Calif., who is house guest in this city of Miss Roxane Ruhl, with whom she attended the Katherine Branson school, Ross, Calif., has been the inspiration for considerable entertaining during the past week.

Miss McWilliams and Miss Ruhl were honor guests at a luncheon given Wednesday by Miss Frances Sparrow at her country home on the Rogue and at a dinner given the following evening by Mrs. F. Corning Kenly.

Swimming Party Enjoyed Thursday

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Storah entertained their employees and families with a picnic and swimming party at the famous Cantrell swimming hole on the Applegate river, Thursday evening between 5 and 9 o'clock. There were about fifty present.

The refreshments were superintended by Mrs. H. C. Williams, forewoman, and were thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Mr. Scudder Guest of Eugene

Jack Scudder of Chicago, Ill., is guest in this city of Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Egan, having accompanied them to Medford on their return from their winter home at Pebble Beach, Calif. Mr. Scudder is Mrs. Egan's son.

Mrs. E. N. Eldredge and son, Billy, Mrs. Cleone Butcher and daughter, Joan Rose, have returned to this city from spending several days in Portland visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. Rose Effert, who accompanied her daughters on their trip north, will remain in Portland for another month.

The Misses Susan Dyan, Dorothy Paley and Marjorie Phytian were among Medford girls who attended the Presbyterian conference at Rogue River during the past week.

Miss Joyce Maddox of this city was a guest at the wedding of Miss Lucille George in Portland Wednesday.

Mrs. Davies Is Feted Guest Harding Home

Mrs. O. L. Harding of Queen Anne was hostess Friday at a bridge luncheon for Mrs. W. T. Davies of Tacoma, Wash., who has been her guest for the past week. The tables were attractively arranged with decorations in pastel colors for the event and eight guests enjoyed Mrs. Harding's hospitality.

This party is the first of a series Mrs. Harding has planned for the entertainment of her guest.

Birthday Party Enjoyed By Very Young Set

Mr. and Mrs. J. Verne Shangle entertained with a party Thursday afternoon honoring the first birthday anniversary of their son, Verne G. Shangle.

Seven little folks gathered at the Shangle home on Dakota avenue to play games and partake of the birthday cake, which was lighted with twelve little candles, representing the months of the year and the big candle for the year.

Guests were: Barbara Bevan, Lyle Wilcox, Betty Thorndyke, Lloyd Colbaugh, Patricia Wilkinson and Dolores Wilkinson.

Mrs. Dyer Entertains For Grand Daughter

Mrs. W. H. Dyer of West Jackson was hostess at a party Tuesday honoring the first birthday anniversary of her granddaughter, Mary Ann Stevens. Eight little guests, accompanied by their mothers, called to wish Mary Ann a happy birthday and enjoy an afternoon of games. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Getchells Return Wednesday From Seattle

Mrs. Delroy Getchell and daughter Gloria returned to Medford Wednesday evening from Seattle where Miss Gloria has been attending the St. Nicholas school. Mrs. Getchell has spent the school year in Seattle with her daughter and son, Bayard, who is a student at Washington university. Bayard will return to Medford next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Green and son Fred, Jr., have returned to this city from Yakima, Wash., where they have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Blanford Shores.

Mrs. Wurts Hostess At Bridge Luncheon Honoring Miss Vilm

Among the interesting affairs of the past week given in honor of Miss Eugenia Vilm, whose marriage to Robert C. Hart will be solemnized tomorrow evening, was the bridge luncheon Friday afternoon at which Mrs. A. J. Wurts was hostess.

Covers were laid for 16 at the luncheon at Hotel Medford, where the table was decorated with mixed flowers, candles of harmonizing colors and favors in shades of orchid and green.

Following the luncheon on the guests went to Mrs. Wurts' home on Ashland avenue and enjoyed several hours of bridge. Prize for high score was awarded Mrs. W. B. Johnston, Jr., second prize went to Mrs. Justin Smith and a guest prize to Miss Vilm.

The guest list included: Miss Eugenia Vilm, honor guest; Mrs. D. A. Wilson, Mrs. W. B. Johnston, Jr., Mrs. Chas. Wortman, Mrs. Ben Trowbridge, Mrs. James Lively, Mrs. Glen Smith, Mrs. Bob Norris, Mrs. S. West, Mrs. Jack Porter, Mrs. Max Pierce, Mrs. Justin Smith, Mrs. Nitsel, Mrs. Searle Spencer, Mrs. Allen Smith and Mrs. Bert Lageson.

The Bolds Family Moving to Portland

Mrs. C. E. Bolds, son Edward, and daughter Gloria, leave Monday for their summer home, Shadow Wood, near Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Bolds purchased the Woodlawn orchard near Central Point nine years ago and have resided there part of each year. They recently sold the farm to H. A. DuBouque, and look as part payment for the DuBouque Green Acres farm. They have just closed the deal, selling the latter to H. Hamstrom and will make their home in Portland hereafter.

Crawford-Maddox Wedding Is Social Event of Tuesday

Miss Aileen Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oris Crawford, became the bride of George Maddox, son of Mrs. E. V. Maddox, at an impressive ceremony at the First Presbyterian church in this city at eight o'clock Tuesday morning. The ceremony was read by Rev. Claude B. Porter in the presence of a large assembly of friends and relatives of the bride and groom.

The bride, attired in white tulle with floral pattern, designed on quaint basque lines, and wearing a veil caught with orange blossoms, came down the aisle on the arm of her father as the wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. George Andrews. She was preceded by the little flower bearers, Barbara Butler and Rupert Maddox, Jr., her two bridesmaids, Miss Joyce Maddox and Miss Maurine McKenney, who were dressed in orchid and rose, and her matron of honor, Mrs. Warren Butler, who wore a summer creation of peach georgette.

The bride carried a shower bouquet of white roses and her bridesmaids carried nosegays of many colors.

Rupert Maddox, brother of the groom, was his best man.

Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Maddox left for the Olympic mountains, where they will spend a few weeks at a summer resort, then return to Seattle to make their home, where Mr. Maddox is employed as a soloist over station KJR.

Thirteen members of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Christian church motored to the Cantral ranch on the Applegate river for a swimming party Thursday. They were accompanied by Mrs. E. N. Biden.

Miss Hamill Maid Of Honor, Eastern Wedding Saturday

Miss Peggy Hamill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Hamill, who has been attending Pine Manor school during the past year, was maid of honor for her cousin, Miss Helen Streeter, of Boston, Mass., at her marriage to John Whittier, which was a social event in Stonington, Conn., yesterday.

Mrs. Hamill, who left Medford a short time ago for the east to accompany her daughter on her return for the summer vacation period, was a guest at the wedding. After a short visit with friends in Buffalo and Chicago, Mrs. Hamill and Miss Hamill will arrive in Medford about July 30th.

Swimming Parties Popular Diversion

Many swimming parties have been enjoyed by Medford society during the past week. Wednesday a group from this city accompanied by several out-of-town guests motored to the Reames county home on Wagner creek for an evening of swimming. In the party were: Mrs. C. T. Steward, Mrs. Helen Miksche, Mrs. Hazel Roberts, Mrs. Pearl McCredie, Mrs. Lynetta Goodwyn, and Miss Juanita Griffin of Medford; Mrs. John Darrow of Hoquiam, Wash.; Mrs. Weimar of Coquille, Miss Gail Sankey of San Francisco and Miss Elza Ditto of Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Keag of Fort Morgan, Colo., and their daughter, Helen Cozans, husband, and two children of Santa Monica, Calif., were the guests of Drs. Carlow Friday and Saturday, on their way to Washington, Yellowstone Park and other points of interest.

Enjoy Swimming Party Appreciate

Thirteen members of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Christian church motored to the Cantral ranch on the Applegate river for a swimming party Thursday. They were accompanied by Mrs. E. N. Biden.

Enjoy Swimming Party Appreciate

Thirteen members of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Christian church motored to the Cantral ranch on the Applegate river for a swimming party Thursday. They were accompanied by Mrs. E. N. Biden.

The BRIDE'S Gift

The gift most beautiful . . . the gift most useful and the gift most remindful of your love and thoughtfulness is the one most appreciated by every Bride on "Her Day"

We feature the beautiful Charm pattern made by Holmes and Edwards still in existence. A set of 12 pieces of tableware.

Pieces of 8
$43.25

Dignified Credit

—and a Watch

A Beautiful Gruen Watch — always the cherished gift by the Bride.

$35.00

Every bride appreciates the beauty and usefulness of fine hollow ware. Many pieces are priced as low as $1.50

Dignified Credit

Hamilton Electric Clock $35.00

A distinctively different and wonderful gift in this finest of all electric clocks. Cased in genuine mahogany. Dignified Credit

Brophy's JEWELERS MEDFORD, ORE.

GRUEN WATCH

SPECIAL

DR. WEST'S TOOTH PASTE

3 Large Tubes 50c

Regular Price 75c

THIS WEEK ONLY

Colvig Drugs

See Windows Next to Rialto

MONDAY

Your Last Chance to Buy at

SALE PRICES

An L. & H. or a

HOTPOINT ELECTRIC RANGE

No Carrying Charge

SOUTHERN OREGON ELECTRIC

409 E. Main Phone 889