Study Club Names Committee Heads at Annual Picnic Party

Although each year the Wednesday Study club chooses some distant land about which to study and to dream, the club always chooses the same spot at which to hold the annual picnic. This favored place is in Ashland's beautiful Lithia Springs Park.

On Wednesday, June 25th twenty-three of the members with either husband or guest assembled at the long tables so artistically placed under the trees between Lover's Lane and the winding creek.

Although the Wednesday Study club has become traditional in its excellence, the remainder of the menu always taxes the vocabularies of the "picnickers" no matter how many new adjectives an intensive year of foreign study may have added to their powers of description.

Great credit for the success of the picnic and other social affairs of the year is due to the Good Times committee with Mrs. W. C. James as chairman, Mrs. C. Meeker, Mrs. H. G. Wortman, Mrs. J. F. Lawrence, Mrs. N. T. Hodges and Mrs. L. B. Humphreys.

The retiring president, Mrs. J. O. Gray who during the last two years has so graciously and efficiently fulfilled the honors of her office, in a few effective words thanked her officers, committees and members for their cooperation during the two years.

Upon presenting the gavel to the new president, Mrs. T. W. Miles, Mrs. Gray expressed the wish that the same pleasure from the office that it had been her privilege to enjoy, Mrs. Miles in a few words expressed her appreciation of the honor accorded her as the club's choice for president and announced her committee for the year, following: Program committee, Mrs. J. O. Gray, Mrs. W. E. Crews, Mrs. J. F. Lawrence, Mrs. C. G. Lemmon, Mrs. E. N. Warner; membership committee, Mrs. L. E. Williams, Mrs. W. C. James; Good Times committee, Mrs. F. D. Deuel, Mrs. B. B. Hammond, Mrs. W. M. Van Sooye, Mrs. H. G. Wortman, Mrs. Jonas Wald, Press committee, Mrs. A. J. Huffby, Mrs. L. B. Humphreys, and Mrs. N. L. Hodges.

After a short message from the treasurer, Mrs. M. F. Alford, the year's work was officially closed. Following a little more visiting, the picnic came to an end—a royal finish of a successful and valuable year.

What the Girl Scouts Are Doing

By Mrs. D. J. Willson

Here is a Girl Scout camp almost ready to open! We have been talking and planning for it during the whole past year. Everything points to a bigger and better camp than ever before and judging from the enthusiasm of the girls it certainly will be!

Mrs. H. E. Cully of Portland, is coming down to be camp director for the three weeks. We expect Mrs. Cully sometime during the week, possibly about Wednesday. Her camp name by the way, is "Sirens." Mrs. Cully is not how we call her "Sirens" as her name would imply!

Miss Marjorie Goff will have charge of the swimming, and we hope that every girl will know something about swimming when she leaves camp. There will be instruction every morning and afternoon, with the girls divided into classes, depending on their proficiency in the water. Wouldn't Neptune be a fine name for Miss Goff?

Miss Marjorie Kelly will have charge of archery and basketball and several of the handicrafts. One of these handicrafts will be soap sculpture, something we have wanted to learn all year. There will also be nature craft, and for all these things you will need your knife. A good paring knife will do, but if you buy scout knives do not get them in a large awkward size.

Here are some extra items for your camp equipment list. Bring some sort of a small size rug, piece of carpet or canvas to put beside your cot. There are no floors in the tents so you will certainly welcome this suggested substitute. For the soap sculpture you need the standard size Ivory. Bring two or three bars of Ivory for your soap supply and if the sculpturing doesn't please you, you can simply use it to wash your face and ears!

Camp registrations are coming in rapidly. There will be a large group from Poots Creek and Rogue River, and possibly Grants Pass.

The Girl Scout office is at 228 East Main, over Lampert's. The phone number is 129-3. I am there on Mondays, Thursdays and Saturdays from 2:30 to 4:30. At other times you can phone me at home, at 574-H.

Miss Marjorie Daily is spending the week-end in Dunsmuir, Calif. as house guest of her brother, Oris C. Daily and family.

Gore Students Give Pleasing Recital For Large Crowd

Before an interested audience of friends and relatives, the piano pupils of Mrs. E. E. Gore were heard in their annual recital at St. Mark's parish hall Friday evening.
