

Fraulein Defeats Helen Jacobs at Wimbledon

SECOND BEST IN U.S. BEATEN IN STRAIGHT SETS

Helen Willis Moody Reaches Semi-Finals by Overwhelming Young English Star.

WIMBLEDON, England, July 1.—(AP)—The straight set defeat of Helen Jacobs of Berkeley, Cal., second ranking woman tennis player of the United States by Cecile Aussem of Germany, featured the women's singles quarter-finals in the British championships today. Fraulein Aussem scored at 6-2, 6-1.

Mrs. Helen Willis Moody, defending her British tennis championship, reached the semi-finals today by overwhelming Phyllis Mudford, young English star, 6-1, 6-2.

Elizabeth Ryan, native Californian now living in England, overcame Betty Nuthall, England's famous young internationalist in another of the quarter finals by scores of 6-2, 2-6, 6-0 to 6-0.

Madame Hene Mathieu, first ranking woman player of France, speedily disposed of Joan Ridley of England, 6-2, 6-1, in a third round quarter-final, thus qualifying as the semi-final round opponent of Mrs. Moody.

In men's doubles, John Doeg, Bahia, Cal., and George Lott, Chicago, the American champions, defeated C. E. Maitrey, and R. D. Poland, English players, at 7-5, 2-6, 14-12, 4-3.

Bill Tilden and his Dutch partner Hans Timmer, defeated Berkeley Hill, Dallas, Texas, and Gregory Mangin, Newark, N. J., in the third round of the men's doubles 7-5, 8-6, 6-2.

Both teams of San Francisco and Sarah Palfrey, Boston, advanced in women's doubles by defeating Mrs. M. A. O. Mayne and Miss H. V. Montgomery, England, 7-5, 6-4.

COACH HENDERSON GAINS NEW IDEAS IN JONES SYSTEM

Ray Henderson, coach of the junior high school, has returned from the Utah State college at Logan, Utah, where he attended a month's coaching school conducted by Howard Jones, coach of the University of Southern California. Coach Henderson has some slight affiliation with his "inner ear," and is being treated by Dr. J. J. Emmons. As soon as he is discharged by the doctor, he will resume his annual duties with the Crater Lake park service, until the school opening.

Erwin K. Burcher, University of Idaho star named Medford high school coach, will attend a coaching school conducted by Howard Jones at Pullman, Wash., so it appears that the local school hereafter will use as a basic coaching methods used by the University of Southern California.

Coach Henderson reports that he had a fine time, and assimilated many new ideas on training of young athletes, at the summer school. He also attended a basketball coaching school conducted by the University of Pittsburgh coach, and is also full of new ideas along that line.

According to present plans, the new senior high school coach will arrive in Medford ten days before the opening of school, to start his year's work.

UPSET OCCURS IN NET TOURNAMENT

PORTLAND, July 1.—(AP)—Matches in the Oregon state tennis tournament continued on the Irvington club courts here today. Jack Rhine, Portland, upset expectations in men's singles yesterday, defeating Irving Weinstein, seeded No. 5, in a three-set match, 4-1, 3-6, 6-2.

Ray Casey defeated Henry Neer, former University of Oregon star, in one of the hardest matches of the tournament, 8-6, 5-7, 6-3.

Six of the players originally seeded in men's singles remained in the playing. They are Bradshaw Harrison, Jack Cosgrove, San Francisco; J. C. Edwards, Vancouver; B. C. Frank Grove, San Francisco; and Joe Oughlan, San Francisco, former California junior champion.

LOUISVILLE.—Cecil Payne, Louisville, outpointed Jackie Dugan, Louisville, (10).

WEST SPRINGFIELD, Mass.—Louis "Kid" Kaplan, Meriden, Conn., outpointed Maurice Holtzer, France, (10).

MAT MEN DRAW IN AUSTRALIAN SYSTEM MATCH

Falls in Fifth and Eighth Rounds Feature Rough Going—Frisbie Loses to Going in Prelim.

(By Ernest Rostel.)
In one of those rough and tumble matches that Medford and southern Oregon fans like so well, Bob Kruse, 205, Oswego potato grower, wrestled eight 10-minute rounds with Charles Hanson, 198, Seattle evangelist, to a draw at the Armory last night, before one of the largest and most enthusiastic crowds of the season. The highly touted Hanson failed to take Kruse in two straight falls, as he had boasted. He got the first fall to Kruse after 40 seconds of the fifth round and saved himself by taking the second and last fall after 27 seconds of the eighth round.

Kruse started his favorite writhing within the first few minutes, alternating with headlocks. The Seattle Swede landed a neat kick in Kruse's stomach, causing that matman to fold up like an accordion. Kruse used a vicious rabbit punch to advantage and Hanson attempted to throw the youthful Hob out of the ring, but protecting ropes prevented.

The second round was much like the first, though Hanson, almost as fast as greased lightning, was trying for a standing hammerlock on the potato grower.

Wrestling was a bit warm for the participants and Hanson, especially, became a slippery subject for the energetic Kruse falling numerous attempts for holds. However, Bob managed to gain a wristlock just before the bell and refused to relinquish the hold when the evening followed Kruse when he stumbled toward his corner.

Kruse pulled his hair.
The first hair-pulling of the evening occurred in the early part of the third round when Kruse gathered a handful of Hanson's tassets. Kruse was rushed to the ropes. A variety of holds followed, Hanson clamping on a body seizers and Kruse retaliating with an apparently painful toehold.

In the fourth round Kruse uncocked a few rabbit punches and was warned by referee Harry Elliott. Kruse headlocked Hanson two or three times and kicked him a time or two in the face. The crowd roared lustily when the round ended.

The fifth round ended quickly. Kruse pinning the Seattle wrestler to the mat in 40 seconds. Kruse often crawled to the ropes to escape punishment, but when he became the victim of a tight keylock in the sixth, the ropes were too far away and he took considerable punishment until able to wriggle out.

Hanson tried his body slam, but could never find a proper opening. Kruse hit and worked him and knew what to expect. He hung onto the ropes persistently when Hanson tried to get him on the mat and the referee was forced to tear him loose. When Hanson landed a kick in Kruse's stomach in the opening of the seventh, the latter raced for the ropes and took his time about coming back in.

Hanson went for the ropes the first time in the seventh after he had undergone a series of headlocks. He appeared groggy. Kruse clamped on another and was still hanging on at the bell.

Hanson Uses Slam.
Prepared for his final effort, Hanson used his much heralded body slam and took the second and last fall in the first 27 seconds of the eighth round. The crowd cheered loud and lustily. Hanson, after the fall, said he would welcome another match with Kruse, but would not consider it until this fall, complaining that wrestling is too heavy exertion for the warm season. He said Kruse is one of the hardest men he has met and had never tried his body slam with as little success as last night.

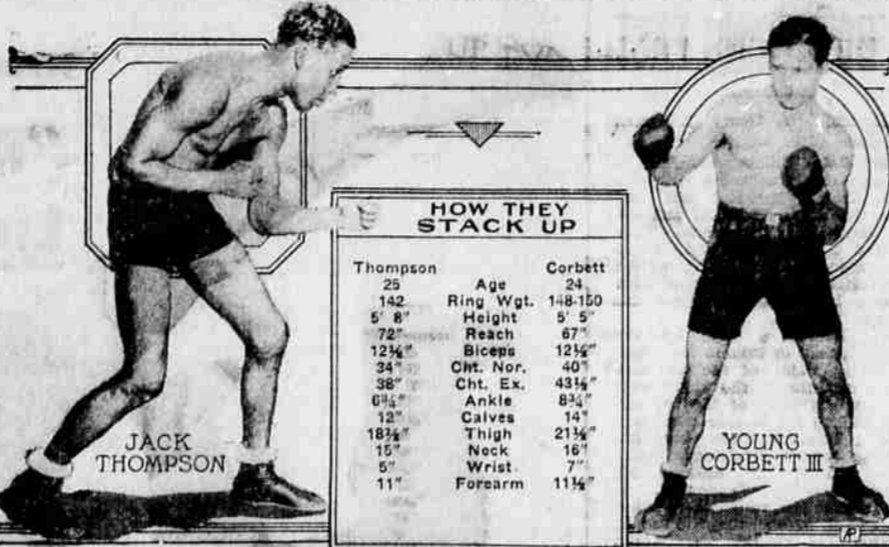

The special event of four rounds resulted in a victory for Walter Logan, 186, over Ray (Fireman) Frisbie, 180, when Logan threw Frisbie out of the ring, stunning him. When the local boy climbed back in, he was an easy victim for a pin fall. Up until this time, Frisbie had been giving Logan, a man of seven years experience, plenty to worry about, especially in view of the fact that Logan's back was red from fresh sunburn, that smarted whenever Frisbie slapped it. The local wrestler has shown much improvement since his first appearance in Medford and is looked upon as a heavy-weight corner, as he has only been in the business a year.

Medford's next match will occur July 9, and will probably present Kruse against John "Redding" "Terrible Swede" of Minneapolis. The match was broadcast over KMEM, the Mall Tribune-Virgin station, from the ring-side, and was heard by hundreds of wrestling fans in southern Oregon and northern California. Hector Fox and Hum Gregg officiated at the microphone.

PLINT, Mich.—Eddie Lord, Hartford, Conn., outpointed Ray Miller, Chicago, (10).

TULSA, Okla.—Causine Vincent, Stillwater, Okla., knocked out "Baby" Stribling, Macon, Ga., (2).

RIVAL WELTERS SHAPE UP FOR BATTLE OF FOURTH

Thompson	Age	Corbett
25	24
142	148-150
5' 2"	5' 5"
72"	67"
12 1/4"	12 1/4"
34"	40"
38"	43 1/4"
6 1/2"	8 3/4"
12"	14"
15 1/2"	21 1/4"
5"	16"
11"	7"
	11 1/4"

Young Corbett of Fresno, Cal., has been knocking at the title door for the last couple of years and already holds two decisions over Jack Thompson and fought him one draw. The bouts occurred before the negro became champion of the welterweight division. Thompson will receive $20,000 for his end of the affair in San Francisco, July 4, a big purse for a non-title fight.

BROOKLYN BUYS BEST BATSMAN FROM MISSIONS

Ike Boone From Missions Will Get Fourth Trial in Majors—Leading Angels Meet Ducks Current Week

By the Associated Press.
The sudden rise of Los Angeles from second to a clear, three-game lead in first place and sale of the Giants, leading hitter of the Pacific Coast league, occupied attention of coast league fans today as the contenders faced the last two weeks of the first period of the season.

Sacramento prepared for its first meeting since the opening week of the season with the Mission. The Reds were to meet the erstwhile pace-setter minus their premier batsman, outfielder Boone, whose sale to Brooklyn was announced yesterday.

The southerner will go up to the majors for his fourth trial. Sale of Boone, another leg, until last week third among league hitters, to the Giants was announced a week ago.

Sacramento had one consolation. Tony Freitas still led league pitchers, with nine wins and one loss. The new leader, Los Angeles, faced Portland for a week, remembering that the Ducks just finished taking four out of seven from San Francisco in one of their last showings as far as Hollywood, after their surprising run of victories over the Senators, prepared to entertain the Oaks, and Seattle to play host to the Seals.

The game warden's find their biggest problem with night shooting who do their gunning in the lower foothills and often close to ranches, endangering property and livestock. Several cases of dead cows have been reported as a result of the poachers shooting at two shining eyes in the dark in the thought it might be a deer. Cows are pastured in the foothill and lower mountain country and often range through the timberland.

The farmer finds the dead cow with a bullet hole through the head, makes his report to authorities and must accept his loss with little hope of redress. Sheep have fared likewise and occasionally a horse.

The shooting has been causing considerable trouble around Ashland near which a game refuge has been established. The refuge has been invaded by the poachers and deer have been killed. A few times, deer have been shot at night within the city limits of Ashland, coming into town from the confines of the refuge, and resulting in illegal venison from unknown families. The officers have tried repeatedly to stop the nefarious practice but due to the size of the territory and the back reaches of the timber country, have been able to make only a few arrests, in the county as a whole.

Changing the subject to fishing, "Pink" Thomason, Medford mill worker, returned Sunday evening from Fish Lake where he spent Saturday and Sunday, catching his limit both days. He was accompanied by Don Elliott and John Pierce, whose families are spending a week at that body of water. "Pink" plans to return Wednesday and will take his mother, 84 years old, with him. She has never gone fishing and has never been on a rowboat. While she has not consented to take up fishing, she is willing to go for a boat ride if the water is not too rough.

Steelhead anglers' delight, are beginning to run better in the Rogue river, Medford. Fishermen reported yesterday. Several good catches were made Sunday near Gold Ray dam and a few salmon were also landed. Sid Bristow landed a big salmon and two or three steelhead. Good steelhead catches are expected for the remainder of the season.

Robert Kincaid, accompanied by Earl Leever, fared well trout fishing in the Rogue river Sunday, hooking 13 fish.

Five of the several practices unlawful for anglers to follow, were

FISH PETITION IS FILED FOR ROGUE

SALISBURY, Ore., July 1.—(AP)—A completed petition signed by 24, 447 names for initiation of a bill to prohibit commercial fishing in Rogue river was filed with the secretary of state yesterday. If the names are all found to be legal the measure will be on the November ballot.

With Rod and Gun In Rogue Valley

By Ernest Rostel and Dick Green

The prey of men who have never known the meaning of sportsmanship, quite a number of deer have been killed at night the past few months in all parts of the county and Game Warden Roy Parr and P. M. Brown, stationed in this district, are exerting themselves in efforts to bring the perpetrators to justice. Not only because game laws are being violated, but to protect private property. Complaints have been coming from farmers in different parts of the district that shooting at night has been continuing promiscuously, but in such scattered parts of the county that the officers have never been able to be at the right place at the right time.

Not content with confining their selves to the open season from September 15 to November 1, hunters are in open defiance of the law in running for venison long after the season has been closed.

The game warden's find their biggest problem with night shooting who do their gunning in the lower foothills and often close to ranches, endangering property and livestock. Several cases of dead cows have been reported as a result of the poachers shooting at two shining eyes in the dark in the thought it might be a deer. Cows are pastured in the foothill and lower mountain country and often range through the timberland.

The farmer finds the dead cow with a bullet hole through the head, makes his report to authorities and must accept his loss with little hope of redress. Sheep have fared likewise and occasionally a horse.

The shooting has been causing considerable trouble around Ashland near which a game refuge has been established. The refuge has been invaded by the poachers and deer have been killed. A few times, deer have been shot at night within the city limits of Ashland, coming into town from the confines of the refuge, and resulting in illegal venison from unknown families. The officers have tried repeatedly to stop the nefarious practice but due to the size of the territory and the back reaches of the timber country, have been able to make only a few arrests, in the county as a whole.

Changing the subject to fishing, "Pink" Thomason, Medford mill worker, returned Sunday evening from Fish Lake where he spent Saturday and Sunday, catching his limit both days. He was accompanied by Don Elliott and John Pierce, whose families are spending a week at that body of water. "Pink" plans to return Wednesday and will take his mother, 84 years old, with him. She has never gone fishing and has never been on a rowboat. While she has not consented to take up fishing, she is willing to go for a boat ride if the water is not too rough.

Steelhead anglers' delight, are beginning to run better in the Rogue river, Medford. Fishermen reported yesterday. Several good catches were made Sunday near Gold Ray dam and a few salmon were also landed. Sid Bristow landed a big salmon and two or three steelhead. Good steelhead catches are expected for the remainder of the season.

Robert Kincaid, accompanied by Earl Leever, fared well trout fishing in the Rogue river Sunday, hooking 13 fish.

Five of the several practices unlawful for anglers to follow, were

ADMIT LADIES FREE TO GAME AGAINST BEND

Business Manager Hall Announces Innovation for Sunday Contest to Boost Attendance.

For the first time in the history of southern Oregon baseball, according to J. Court Hall, ladies will be admitted free to the game next Sunday at the fair grounds between Bend and Medford. This innovation is being inaugurated in an attempt to rouse interest among the fair sex and round up a crowd for what in all probability will be the best game of the season.

Business Manager Hall also states that he will advertise the game from the summit of the Siskiyou to the Hell Gate of the Rogue, and if there is not a good turnout, "I will feed like crying, as I have worked my fool head off." It is hoped the fans will cease fishing and motoring for one Sunday, and restrain the beast manager from bursting into tears.

If there is a large delegation of ladies present next Sunday, the free idea will be continued, and if not it will be discontinued.

The local team defeated, 15 to 9, last Sunday at Bend, will present its strongest line-up. Cliff Best will pitch, and Al Droulette catch. The remainder of the line-up will be as of old.

The Bend team has been strengthened with the addition of a number of Oregon and Oregon State stars. Nightingale, their pitcher, is from O. S. C. Last Sunday, Medford's "murderer's row" did no murdering whatsoever of his slants, and he held the locals to seven feeble hits.

The teams are now evenly matched, and Medford will have the advantage of playing on their own grounds.

A large delegation of Bend fans will accompany the team here.

Baseball Standings

By the Associated Press

American	W.	L.	P.C.
Philadelphia	45	25	.648
Washington	42	25	.627
New York	42	25	.627
Cleveland	35	24	.597
Detroit	29	41	.414
St. Louis	29	41	.414
Boston	26	42	.382
Chicago	24	49	.325

National	W.	L.	P.C.
Chicago	43	26	.623
Brooklyn	39	25	.609
New York	34	22	.615
St. Louis	33	32	.568
Boston	30	33	.476
Pittsburgh	29	34	.465
Cincinnati	27	40	.403
Philadelphia	24	38	.387

BIKE RIDERS KILLED AT GRADE CROSSING

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., July 1.—(AP)—Jackie Layten, 26, of Brooklyn, professional bicycle rider, died today from injuries when a freight train struck his car at Willboro, N. Y. John Costello, 26, a six-day bicycle racer, was also killed.

of which are to follow later, were suggested yesterday by Game Warden Roy Parr as follows:

To angle at night between one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise.

To fish by any means other than with hook and line, commonly called angling.

To use more than one line or line and red held in the hand, to catch any of the fish of the state of Oregon.

To sell or offer for sale, barter or exchange, any of the fish of the state of Oregon taken with hook and line.

To angle with hook and line without having a license on person.

A'S AND CUBS TO MEET IN SERIES IF "DOPE" HOLDS

Current Races Resemble 1929—Leaders On July 4 Touted As Sure Thing at Finish.

By Orlo Robertson
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Fourth of July is the unofficial date for naming the winners of the major league pennants, but already the 1930 race resembles the 1929 chase, with the Athletics out in front in the junior circuit and the Cubs setting a hot pace in the Heydler division.

If history repeats itself the young men managed by Cornelius McGillicuddy and the McCarthy inspired team, will again battle for baseball's premier honor, for on July 4, 1929, the Athletics were leading the American league and the Cubs showing the way in the National. The world's champions failed again yesterday to gain ground on their rivals, although rallying in the eighth to defeat Detroit, 3 to 1.

The Yankees kept pace with the champions by staging one of their frequent slug fests, during which Babe Ruth hit his 30th home run of the season. The Babe is now 12 games and 12 days ahead of his 1927 record, when he cracked out 69 four-base hits.

The White Sox were victims of the Yankees' wrath, losing 15 to 4.

The Washington Senators also kept in the midst of the American league scramble in defeating the St. Louis Browns, 2 to 1.

A five run rally off "Bull" Durham in the eighth gave the Indians, an 8 to 3 verdict over the Red Sox.

With the Robins idle because of wet grounds at St. Louis, the Cubs took advantage of the situation to increase their lead in the National league to one and one-half games as they defeated the Giants, 10 to 3.

In the only other National league game, the Boston Braves managed to eke out a 6 to 5 victory over the Pirates. Lloyd Warner, who has been recovering from an operation, made his first appearance of the season in the Pittsburgh lineup.

PHILADELPHIA, N. Y.—Lope Tenorio, Philippine outpointed Joey Kaufman, New York, (10).

MASON EHRMAN & CO.

Base Ball LADIES FREE

Bend vs. Medford 2:30 P. M.

Sunday, July 6 AT FAIR GROUNDS

Fans, don't miss it, as this should be one of the best games of the season.

A MAD FROLIC OF INSANE FOOLERY

THE CUCKOOS ARE COMING

ARE COMING

Mann's Department Store

"THE STORE FOR EVERYBODY" MEDFORD, OREGON. PHONE-480-487

JULY CLEARANCE SALE!

Of Men's Kuppenheimer SUITS

This Great Suit Event Offers Every Man in Medford a Suit Value Supreme

50 Kuppenheimer SUITS $39.50

The 50 Kuppenheimer suits that go on sale Wednesday at $39.50 represent a value supreme. The very fact that they are new 1930 Kuppenheimer suits makes the difference between just a suit sale and a real clothing value. All the seasons' wanted weaves, patterns and colorings will be found in this group and of course they are tailored as only Kuppenheimer can tailor a garment. Don't forget these are regular $45.00 to $50.00 genuine Kuppenheimer suits. Buy yours on Wednesday at Mann's and be all dressed up for the Fourth.

See Our Main Street Window Display of These Super Values

BROADCLOTH SHIRTS

Genuine broadcloth shirts for a dollar and every one guaranteed fast color. These shirts come in plain white, pastels of blue, tan, and green, also novelty patterns. They are full cut and finely tailored. Your choice. $1.00

B.V.D. UNION SUITS

Men's genuine B. V. D. athletic union suits. The union suit that is world famous for summer comfort and fit. These B. V. D. garments come in size 38 only and are regular $1.50 values. Your choice. 49c

BOYS' KOVERALLS

Boys' full cut well made standard koveralls in khaki and blue. These have the popular drop seat and are sized from 6 to 10 years. The regular values are $1.00 to $1.75. Your choice Wednesday at Mann's. 19c

BOYS' SWEATERS

A sweater bargain for boys. Real all wool slip on style sweaters in all sizes. They come in a good assortment of solid colors and are marked to sell for $2.50 each. Your choice Wednesday. 1.95

RAYON UNION SUITS

Extra special for Wednesday. Men's cool union suits of fine heavyweight rayon button front style and in assorted pastel colors. These union suits are regular $1.25 the suit. Choice. 89c