THE HOME OF BREAD LIKE MOTHER MADE FOR THE OUTING

When preparing for the Fourth of July outing, saving is most essential for two reasons—first, of course, is economy—and second is the variety in the lunch. Here you will find outing foods in endless varieties—salads, fried chicken, cold meats, cheese of all kinds, as well as a wide assortment of the little relishes that tend to make the luncheon a success. And best of all—you avoid that worry and fatigue that takes so much of the pleasure out of the outing—and it costs no more. So keep out of the hot kitchen—let us supply the picnic lunch. Here are just a few examples:

Bread
Your own baking is its only rival.
