

NORBLAD'S ATTITUDE EXPLAINED

Official Statement On Refusal Become Candidate, Bares Reasons Ousting Commission Members—No Apology for Action.

SALEM, Ore., July 3.—(AP)—Governor A. W. Norblad made an announcement yesterday by issuing an official statement that he will not be a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor at the hands of the state central committee when it meets in a few weeks to name the late George W. Joseph's successor as Republican nominee.

The governor's statement touches lightly on his reasons for not becoming a candidate, and goes at length into some of his official acts since the primary election that have brought criticism upon him. Particularly the statement deals with changes made in the highway, game and war veterans' state aid commissions.

He denies that his removal of Robert W. Sawyer of Bend from the highway commission was to fulfill a promise made before the primary to Senator Jay H. Upton of Bend. Sawyer, he says, caused lack of harmony in the highway board and showed no interest in the Roosevelt coast highway. All officials removed, he says, were opposed to his announced policies.

Support Appreciated.

Norblad expresses appreciation for pressure which, he says, has been brought upon him to be a candidate before the state committee, for the 47,000 votes given him in the primary election and the 9000 plurality given him outside of Multnomah county, but adds that since he has always been a subscriber to the Oregon primary system, he accepts the verdict of the voters at the polls.

"I would like to say to the people of Oregon that I have tried to fulfill all the promises I have made," the statement says. "I did remove Mr. Sawyer from the highway commission, Mr. Corrigan from the game commission and Mr. North from the veterans' state aid commission for reasons which appeared to me to fully justify my action in that regard."

Sawyer Made Trouble.

"In addition to that, so far as Mr. Sawyer is concerned, I can now tell the people of the state that in so far as Mr. Sawyer was concerned, he was responsible for lack of harmony on the state highway commission and also, to say the least, he had shown no interest in the completion of the Roosevelt highway which I consider one of Oregon's greatest assets."

"Mr. Sawyer hardly had any reason for personal complaint, since he received the office of highway commissioner through the requested resignation of Commissioner Judge Doby, who was admittedly one of the finest highway commissioners Oregon ever had. I wish to deny most emphatically the published statements to the effect that Senator Jay H. Upton had anything to do with the removal of Mr. Sawyer."

"The unvarnished truth is that Mr. Upton had no knowledge of my intention to remove Mr. Sawyer and was not a party to it in any way, shape, or form. I accept the entire responsibility for removing Mr. Sawyer."

Notes Approval.

"It is pleasing to me to note that in no single instance have I heard anyone disapprove of the selections I made to fill the vacancies caused by Mr. Dave Evans to the game commission and Mr. Hanson to the world war veterans' state aid commission. I am also pleased to note that there has been no criticism of my work as governor."

"Such criticisms as have been made, relate only to the removals stated and some petty charges concerning my official expenses. The people of Oregon may expect, and shall receive from me, my very best services as governor until the expiration of my term.

Postal Telegraph Pole On Right of Way to Oil Plant Will Be Moved Soon, Is Belief.

The polar controversy underway about a Postal Telegraph pole which infringes upon the right of way of the Southern Pacific spur to the Jackson county road oil heating plant, snowed signs this morning of being settled, after delaying road oiling operations for several days.

According to County Engineer Paul Rynning, it looks like the matter would be adjudicated by the middle of next week. As soon as it is, the work of placing the final coat of oil on the Fuch highway and the Sams Valley highway will be started.

Lake Resorts and Nearby Celebrations Lure Local Folk Over July 4 Holiday

Lake resorts will play an important part in the celebration plans of Medford people, inquiries today revealed. Diamond and Fish lakes and Lake of the Woods are the three main attractions. Quite a number of motorists left this afternoon to avoid the heavy traffic that is expected tomorrow morning. Other large delegations will find their way to celebrations at Crescent City, Ashland and Klamath and there will be the usual number of people who will remain to keep the home fires burning.

Of course, as usual, Crater Lake will attract many Medford people. Plans of a few Medford citizens picked at random are as follows: Carl Y. Tengwall will stay in his office, and create a payroll. "I would be foolish to go out tomorrow when everyone else is making the roads dusty. I can go fishing any time."

C. G. Smith will work in the morning, and go out some place for dinner in the evening. A. S. Rosenbaum will get up at five o'clock, go to Klamath Falls, Crater Lake, and in the evening to Ashland. His two nephews will accompany him. Jack Carle will be around. No particular plans made, unless to mow some lawns. Willie Pruitt—"I'm going fishing. I don't know where but I'm going some place where I can catch fish. Probably to some little stream."

Dr. B. R. Elliott—"We have a boat reserved and everything all set to catch fish at Diamond lake. I'm taking my family with me and will remain there until Sunday."

Verne Shangle—"I may go to Portland, Crescent City, Crater Lake. And I may stay home and play golf. When a fellow has a wife he can't say where he will go."

Tim Fallon—"I'm going to spend the Fourth of July right in Medford, Ore. Oh, I'll go fishing in the morning, of course, but that isn't news."

Don Newbury—"Prospect, Crater Lake or Klamath Falls. We can't decide which. We asked the baby and she wanted to go to all three."

Mrs. Maud Chapman—"I'm going to stay at home and rest until evening. Then we will take our supper out on the river, probably into the Sams Valley country."

Glenn Brenner—"I'm going to sleep while the town is quiet, if you think anyone cares to know."

Tom Pison—"I'm going to Lake of the Woods for the Fourth. I'm going to take all the fish out of the lake and bring them back and distribute them among my neighbors. Will stay there the fifth, too. Taking no one but the family."

Mrs. E. W. Wakefield—"Applegate and a picnic dinner. That's how we'll spend the Fourth, with the J. W. Wakefields, E. R. Cross family, Willard Whitmans and Lester Cox and family."

Wm. Isaacs—"At my cabin, my favorite spot. I'm going down tonight. And I'm going to do some fishing."

Mrs. A. W. Mason—"We're going to Crescent City tonight. We're not going to take anyone but the dog. We're going to do what we please and eat where we please."

The Misses Lucille Barrett and Ruth Koozer plan to celebrate in Klamath Falls, now famous for its bearded men.

T. J. Enright and family will visit the Herb Hanna family at Jacksonville all day.

Among local residents planning to motor to Diamond Lake are Mrs. Josephine Jones, W. P. Gillette, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Garlock, Raymond Mays and Fred Thomas. Crescent City will attract Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farrell, Constance Andrews, Helen Dugan, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Banwell, Arthur Perry, Fred Parsons.

William Schulz will find his way to Fish Lake and Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Gorman and daughter Nellie will visit Dead Indian. Ashland will also be the destination of many local people and Lake of the Woods is attracting another large delegation.

SENATE AGREES ON STUDY FUND

WASHINGTON, July 3.—(AP)—Continuance of the Hoover law enforcement commission's inquiry into enforcement of all laws was assured today when the senate accepted the house provision for $250,000 in place of its own $50,000 fund limiting the inquiry to prohibition.

The action overturned an earlier senate vote to restrict the commission's investigation.

President Hoover had warned congress that the larger amount were not forthcoming, he would obtain the extra funds from private sources.

SARGON GAVE HIM A 14 POUND GAIN

painful I could hardly use them and my right hip and leg were in about the same fix. I was in pain and misery all the time. Medicines, treatments and had the doctor do me any good, but 12 bottles of Sargon drove every pain out of my body, built up and strengthened my whole system and gave me a gain of 14 pounds.
