REV. M'DONALD TO SERVE AS SUPPLY PASTOR POLK CO.

A number of former pastors of the Free Methodist church of Medford were given assignments for the year at the annual conference of the Oregon district of that denomination in Portland, which came to an end last Saturday night. First in importance was that Rev. John E. McDonald of Medford, who with Mrs. McDonald recently returned from about a year spent in Europe and the Holy Land, was appointed as the supply pastor at Falls City, in Polk county. Whether this means that Rev. and Mrs. McDonald are going to remove to the northern part of the state, or not, is not known here, because they have not yet returned home from Portland. Rev. Rosella Douglas received the appointment to The Dallas church, going from the church at Falls City, and in addition was re-elected conference Sunday school superintendent. Rev. Rhoda Burnett received the appointment of superintendent of the Portland Commons mission.

Card of Thanks.
We wish to thank those who so kindly assisted us with words of comfort and floral offerings during the recent illness and death of our beloved father, W. H. Frederick, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Snider, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Frederick. 307
