Economy Groceteria

THE HOME OF BREAD LIKE MOTHER MADE

Keeping Your Home Canning Expense Down

With the approach of the heavy fruit season—we are again confronted with that extra drain on the family purse—home canning expense.

Jars, lids, rubbers, and many of the cooking utensils necessary to the proper handling of the fruit must be bought.

Keep that expense down by buying your supplies at the Groceteria. Here you will find besides the usual needs such as jars, etc., all of the utensils, kettles, strainers, presses, cookers, and all other supplies priced on the basis of our lower business costs.

And the fruits—be sure to can home grown—they are better, fresher, and usually cost less. Various kinds are beginning to ripen now—peaches will be ready soon. The quality will be very good and the price low.
