Publicity
Southern Oregon received some good publicity in the June issue of "Western Out-of-Doors" magazine through the reproduction of two excellent photos of nearby scenic attractions. A novel picture of Crater Lake was used as the cover cut and on the inside cover appeared a cut of the Redwoods. Both of the cuts were supplied to the magazine through the courtesy of The California Oregon Power company.

LOS ANGELES, Calif. July 12.—(AP)—Otto Sanhuber, convicted "attorney-lover," has been freed in spite of his conviction of manslaughter for shooting Fred Osterreich, husband of the woman he loved, to death in 1922. The man who lived for more than a decade in secret attic compartments in the Osterreich home, was released because for man slaughter the statute of limitations was exceeded five years before his trial was concluded. Both Sanhuber and Mrs. Osterreich were indicted for the crime. The latter is awaiting trial for the slaying set for August 4.

ROMBAY, India, July 12.—(AP)—Estimates today were that more than 500 persons were injured in police suppression of yesterday's nationalist demonstrations, staged by the All-India congress committee in sympathy for 17 members of the Royal Gharwal rifles who were imprisoned for disobeying orders during Peshawar riots.
