Ye Smudge Pot

Mr. Legge of the Farm Board, sets a world's record for offhand insulting last week, when he advised 1,850,000 farmers of Kansas to "go to hell."

Every angle of the Tom Mooney case is covered with doubt, except that Mr. Mooney is still in prison.

"One of the Critz mules, bit off his own tail some time Wednesday night" — (Mallin Jettings).

The male quartette that threatened this hustling burg for the past 11 years, has swooped down on Prospect.

Several lawyers are taking vacations from their vacations.

A girl named Helen has become modernized, and hereafter will spell her monicker: "Helynn."

The chief argument against the selection of Tom B. Kay, as the GOP nominee for governor, is an alleged "physical weakness."

A LIVELY DAY (Hillsboro News) We are told that when Mr. Schaper's car hit the filling station pump, the impact jarred George's false teeth out of his mouth and they bit a hole in the windshield.

A new auto of runt proportions is scheduled to darken the highways of these parts, at no late date.

THE MOST UNHAPPY LOT Perhaps the saddest lot that can befall mortal man is to be the husband of a lady poet. It is, of course, bad enough to be a husband at all, so I am reliably informed by authorities, but to be the husband of a woman who squats on Pegasus and is pleasurably tickled by his tall must be the apex of human misery.

Dr. R. P. Richardson of Union City, Okla., also is a banker, farmer, druggist, postmaster and cotton gin operator.

WHAT'S 'SMATTER WITH KANSAS?

IT'S easy to criticise. It's easy to tear down. The man who rises on a soap box and calls everyone but himself a crook, damns the government and all its works and, with fire in his eye, fans the flames of prejudice and discontent, is certain of an audience.

Governor Reed of Kansas, candidate for re-election, is now following this familiar demagogic pastime. Everything is wrong in the worst of worlds. The hard-working wheat farmers of Kansas are starving, thanks to the lowest wheat price in 16 years, and Alexander Legge of the plutocratic farm board, with his nefarious scheme of co-operation and reduction of wheat acreage, is responsible.

It's a fairly safe bet that, with wheat at its present price, the farmers of Kansas will follow his advice. But, assuming his election, his future course is not so clear.

Naturally, why bother with constructive criticism, when destructive criticism serves so much better, and requires so much less thought and effort?

Why worry about what will bring prosperity to the Kansas farmer if Governor Reed can convince them Mr. Legge with his farm relief program is what took it away?

In fact, it is a pretty safe assumption that only one thing is worrying Governor Reed; namely, that someone will put a question to him he can't evade, phrased somewhat as follows:

"If the Republican administration, with its program of co-operative marketing and acreage curtailment, is responsible for the present low price of wheat? For certainly the wheat farmers of Kansas have not organized co-operatively, nor have they, or the farmers anywhere else, curtailed their acreage of wheat. Can any program that has not been tried be responsible for a condition that already exists?"

It would be interesting to hear Governor Reed's answer to that question. The situation reminds one of that old story about the village pastor who on a Sunday afternoon stroll caught some boys fishing in the creek.

"It's very wicked to fish on Sunday," quoth the pastor. "Who's fishing?" retorted one of the boys; "haven't had a bite all day."

The farm relief measure may be as wicked as Governor Reed maintains. But neither he nor anyone else can KNOW it is wicked—or know it is futile—until it has at least been tried.

It hasn't been tried, and if Governor Reed has his way it never will be tried, and yet with a perfectly straight face he maintains it is responsible for the lowest wheat price in 16 years.

OH, HUM! It's a funny world, Brethren! And nothing about it is funnier in one sense, or more disheartening in another—than the flim-flam game of politics.

Stand up for the government when times are good, boys, down with it when times are bad. Never consider or admit the obvious truth that the party in power was no more responsible for the first condition than for the second.

There's some catch in everything. The districts that gained in population will have to have another Congressman.

Favors Regulation.

To the Editor: I notice in Sunday's Mail Tribune where there is some talk of stationing a traffic officer at the corner of Eighth and Oakdale, which is greatly congested during the midday golf course located there, and to tax the golf course a sufficient sum to pay the salary of this officer.

I think that this is a fine idea, and would not only provide employment for some worthy man, but would not be any hardship to the owner of the golf course, as it would appear that his profits must be enormous. I am informed that he only pays $20 a month rental for the grounds and anyone who desires only has to count the enormous number of players present each evening to reckon what immense profits he must be making.

However I believe that an officer situated at this course every evening could render greater service than merely directing traffic. There are several abuses of law and convention which are perpetrated nightly around this course, and I am sure that the owner and operator of the course means well and that it is his intention to have an orderly course, frequented by ladies and gentlemen who wish to entertain themselves in this healthy, interesting and innocent pastime.

However, there are always certain persons everywhere who have little respect for law and conventions, and a police officer would have a very good effect on this kind of person. One of the nuisances to which I refer is absence of any sanitary equipment on the golf course, an objectionable feature to owners of adjoining property.

Also, there is some drinking going on which has taken place in a wood shed of an adjoining property holder. I do not wish to argue the merits of wet or dry here, but do believe that everyone will agree that property owners and tax payers should not be annoyed by people drinking on the premises.

Also, practically every night the alley is completely blocked with cars, which works an inconvenience on the people who wish to get into their garages, besides constituting a serious hardship to the proper operation of fire apparatus in case a fire should occur in this district. Cars are frequently double parked in the streets adjoining this course, all of which I understand is directly against existing city ordinances.

To sum up, I believe that an officer on this corner could be of great service to the neighbors, as well as to the owner of the course, whom, I would think, should welcome police assistance in keeping order, as it would make his course more attractive to the better class of people, which after all, I am sure is the class he wishes to enter.

A NEIGHBOR. (Name on file).
