

Klamath Falls Defeats Merchants 18 to 17 in 11-Inning Battle

HEAVY HITTING IS FEATURE OF WEIRD CONTEST

Locals Score 15 in First Three Frames—Best and Hughes Unable to Stop Pelican Drive.

Klamath Falls defeated Medford, 18 to 17, yesterday, in 11 innings. It was a wild and woolly ball game from start to finish, interspersed with sensational catches and pathetic errors. There was a fair-sized crowd present and what was scheduled to be the best game of the season turned out to be the weirdest.

The locals scored 15 runs in the first three innings and apparently made the game on ice. This early show of strength was featured by a one-handed catch of a hard drive by Markle in right field. Later in the game Harry Dunn, at short, caught a sizzler off his shoe tops.

Klamath Falls showed a burst of speed in the middle of the game and scored 11 runs in three innings to become dangerous, while the best the locals could do was to gather two runs after their early splurge. The longer the visitors played the stronger they showed. They used four pitchers and finally one halted the local "murderers' row," which did all its murdering at the start of the game.

The Pelicans were clouting Cliff Best right smart when he was relieved by Jack Hughes in the seventh. That young man was wild and nervous, and before the side could be retired five runs had been scored. In the next inning he reversed himself and struck out three men in a row. However, his teammates were feeble in the field and with the stick.

In the ninth Klamath tied the score with three runs and the game went into an extra session. Neither side scored in the tenth, but in the eleventh the winning run crossed the plate with a long drive to the right field.

SALEM HURLER GIVES PERFECT PERFORMANCE

SALEM, Ore., July 14.—(P)—Andy Peterson pitched a no-hit, no-run game here Sunday and the Salem Senators defeated Corvallis, 1 to 0, in a Willamette Valley league game. Brown, on the mound for the Chiefs, pitched a fine brand of ball, allowing but five hits. Two of them, however, in the third, were good for Salem's only score.

With Rod and Gun In Rogue Valley

By Ernest Rostel and Dick Green

The failure to catch many steelhead in the Rogue river at this season has been attributed by one fisherman to weather conditions, responsible for the few steelhead found in the river. The stream is several inches lower than the normal depth for this time of the year and is also fairly warm, affording unfavorable conditions for the fish. The river has quite a number of tributary streams of much colder water and to these the steelhead find their way. Here they linger until warm summer days are past and then find their way back into the river, battling their way upstream. However, there are still enough steelhead in the river to make angling interesting.

A swim for his life was a part of H. Fox's fishing trip to the Rogue river yesterday near Bybee bridge with Marvin Barick and Tim Fallon. He was wading in the river up to his chest when suddenly the current took him off his feet and he was forced to swim ashore, paddling with one hand and holding his fishing pole with the other. In addition to losing a large fish that he had hooked, his wristwatch became soaked and did not choose to run.

A recent fishing trip here no profit for Tim Fallon, local railroad man, who, after spending most of a day at the river, vainly casting for trout, discovered the loss of a well-stocked fly box. It did not bear his name, but he believes some honest fisherman may find it and return it to him. It was lost at Bybee bridge.

A successful day was reported yesterday at Fish Lake by a party that included Al Piche, for whom it was the fifth trip of the season.

Anglers on the Rogue river are warned by health authorities to avoid drinking river water anywhere this side of Prospect. The water is not pure at this time of the year and the river does not purify itself as it flows.

Concerning a recent following report was brought down from the Crater Lake national park: "Four of an Oregon University football squad are getting into fall condition by working on the highways of the Crater Lake national park. Like other strong, carefree boys, they wandered a little—not much, but enough to discover in a single of grass and rhododendron, a few, appearing, and wondering how they could get back into those soft, lambent eyes without losing an impulse to pro-

ANGELS FINISH FIRST HALF AT TOP OF LEAGUE

Hollywood Takes Second Place Honors With Spurt at Finish—Sacs in Third Position.

By the Associated Press. The first half of the Pacific Coast league's season over, fans today were remarking on the late rally that put Los Angeles in front instead of Sacramento, and on the sudden rise of Hollywood from sixth to finish in second place.

Los Angeles closed with a bang, blanking Seattle 10 to 0 in the second game of their double bill yesterday, after losing the first, 5 to 2. Hubbel was the winning pitcher in the first. The Angels drove Simoni, losing hurler, from the box in the first inning of the second.

Hollywood today boasted a record of eighteen wins in the last twenty-two games, having split a double bill with Sacramento yesterday to clinch second place after a nip and tuck contest for the place with the Sacs. Six pitchers worked as the Senators won at Stockton in the morning, 7 to 4, and Rhodes beat Vinci on the mound as the Stars took the afternoon game, 4 to 1.

San Francisco finished in a tie with Oakland for fourth place by dividing yesterday's game with Portland. McDougal worked in the mornings as the Seals won, 4 to 2, and Jimmy Zinn was driven to the showers as the Ducks took the afternoon game, 8 to 4, with McDonald in the box.

Oakland's heavy hitting gave Edwards an easy victory over the Missions, 10 to 2, in the morning, but the Reds came back in the afternoon behind Ted Pillette to squeeze out an 8 to 7 win.

REDS LOSE VIM UPON INVASION ENEMY FIELDS

Beat Chicago and Phillies in Redland Park Tilts, But Drop Aggression in New York.

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer. The Cincinnati Reds have developed quite a punch at home, but it is strangely lacking when they take the road.

Last week they looked like a team of world beaters at Redlands park, taking four straight games from Chicago. They still looked good as they picked off the lambs Philadelphia for three more victories, but yesterday when they moved to New York they lost, 9 to 5.

The Cubs moved to Boston yesterday and lost two games to the Braves, 2 to 1 and 3 to 0. Chicago's double defeat came as something of a boon to the league leading Brooklyn Robins. They lost one of the year's toughest decisions to Pittsburgh, 1 to 0, but still gained a half game.

The Philadelphia Athletics once again forged to the top of the American league standing by soundly routing a 12-to-1 victory over the St. Louis Browns, while Detroit beat Washington, 5 to 4. These results placed the Athletics a full game in the lead.

The Yankees, although out of it all, did their scoring early and had only to check a Chicago rally that netted three runs in the ninth to defeat the White Sox, 7 to 5. The Sox bailed to capitalize on their chances, having 16 men stranded on the sacks.

Cleveland held fourth place, six games behind, by pinning on Jack Russell for five runs in the opening game and hitting up an 11-to-0 score against Boston before rats halted the game in the seventh inning.

HELEN MOODY IS HOME WITH CROWN

NEW YORK, July 14.—(P)—Mrs. Helen Wills Moody, world's ranking women's tennis player, returned home today to receive the championship acclaim of her countrymen for the fourth straight year.

She immediately announced her intentions of leaving for California Wednesday, returning a week before the opening of the national championship at Forest Hills, August 18.

Jones May Retire From Active Golf Competition If Amateur Title Is Regained

by ALAN GOULD, Associated Press Sports Editor. NEW YORK, July 14.—(P)—The 28-year-old monarch of the links, Bobby Jones, already three crowned in his all-conquering campaign of 1930, may retire from active competition if he completes his record-shattering march by regaining the American amateur championship at the Merion Cricket club, Philadelphia, in September.

The emperor himself, back home today in Atlanta after his third straight victory of the year and his twelfth in eight years, has not definitely committed himself to any plans beyond competing in the last big event of the current season.

But if he wins, there will be no more worlds of golf to conquer, no records to break except his own, and his friends believe he will bid at least a temporary farewell to the swirling fields of championship action.

Won Despite Strain. At Interlachen, barely a week off the beat from Europe, the experts figured Jones would show the effects of the terrific strain he underwent abroad, especially in a succession of nerve-racking matches in the British amateur tournament. It was thought the human machine might slow down.

Jones howled over the dope, the opposition and the records at Interlachen. He shattered the course record on his third round with a 68, the best he has ever scored in the event, and a performance that put all of his rivals except Macdonald Smith to rout. He finished with a 72-hole figure of 287, his own lowest in American competition and within a stroke of tying Chic Evans' all-time mark. He sank a 40-foot putt on the home green to finish two strokes ahead of his nearest rival, Mac Smith, who ended the vain but gallant chase in 259. He was five strokes in front of Horton Smith, the young professional who led at the half-way mark.

Mac Smith, the "hard luck guy" of golf, had the misfortune to be playing his greatest game at a time when Jones was at his peak. The Scot knew how little Bill Johnston felt with Bill Tilden around to block him off. A great stylist, Mac Smith has the game, the shots and the courage to go with them, yet he has always fallen just a stroke or two short of one of the main goals.

The battle of Interlachen long will be remembered, not only for the achievement of Jones in winning his fourth American open, but for its kaleidoscopic turns. The order of finish at Interlachen, with scores and prize money, included: Bobby Jones, 287, championship and gold medal; Mac Smith, 289, and $1000; Horton Smith, 292 and $750; Harry Cooper, 293 and $650; John Golden, 294 and $550; Tommy Armour, 297 and $450; Johnny Farrell, 299 and $250.

RECEIVE BOBBY WITH GREATEST DIN IN ATLANTA

Home Town Declares Holiday to Give Returning Golf Idol Royal Welcome—Rest Needed.

ATLANTA, July 14.—(P)—Bobby Jones returned today from his triumphant golfing wars to find his home folks had prepared the greatest of all receptions since he began winning national golf titles eight years ago.

Atlanta declared a holiday today to give Bobby Jones, a "pretty happy" golfing warrior of 28, a welcome fit for an emperor.

Bobby said he was "pretty happy" to capture the National Open title, but that modest phrase was much too mild to express the pent-up enthusiasm of his Atlanta admirers, most of whom had not seen him since he departed in the spring to win the British amateur and open crowns.

He probably was more interested in a reunion with his enterprising son, aged three, who added whistling to his accomplishments in the absence of his father.

To Surpass Gotham. But friends of the lawyer-golfer insisted upon a formal reception, a parade, bands, an official holiday and all the other trappings of public functions. Many said they were determined to surpass, in noise at least, the welcome tendered Bobby in New York.

In a secretary it's Capability

in a cigarette it's Taste

THROUGH COMPETENCE, the individual rises to positions of responsibility and respect. Through dependability of taste, a cigarette attains ever greater popularity.

INCREASING MILLIONS of Chesterfields are lighted each day because smokers find that in this cigarette good taste is unfailing.

CHESTERFIELDS ARE RICH IN AROMA, flavor and fragrance, which come from the right selection of choice tobaccos, blended and cross-blended to a rare cigarette goodness. They offer the utmost in smoking enjoyment... "TASTE above everything".

We state it as our honest belief that the tobacco used in Chesterfield cigarettes are of finer quality and hence of better taste than in any other cigarette at the price. LIQUETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.
