HOARY HURLERS LEAD IN MAJOR PERFORMANCES

Box Scores Prove Fallacy of Adage 'Youth Must Prevail'—Five Old Timers Cited Wednesday.

By Hugh S. Fullerton, Jr. (Associated Press Sports Writer) Whoever it was that said "youth must prevail" probably would be inclined to retract that statement if he should look at the major league box scores these days.

Five moundmen whose combined ages total about 240 years, while only one pitched a complete game nearly all turned in good performances. A d.o.f. Luque, Cuba's leading baseball hero, age 39, did a great job as he made first place in the National League safe for the Brooklyn Robins.

The Robins' gain was made possible by their neighbors, the New York Giants, who downed the Chicago Cubs, 8 to 6, to put Brooklyn a full game plus a few odd points in the lead.

Ancient Athletics, whose years number somewhere near 45, also played well, gave the younger pitchers a lesson. Quinn had a little trouble in the ninth inning and George Earnshaw finished the game for him as the A's downed Detroit, 4 to 1.

Urban "Red" Faber, second in age to Quinn in this quintet, did not figure as a winner or loser for the Chicago White Sox. After holding a 1-0 lead for five frames Faber weakened and allowed the Boston Red Sox three runs in the sixth. Hal McKain relieved him and got credit for the victory as Chicago rallied again and gained a 5 to 3 decision.

Johnson was charged with the defeat in the second game, the Braves winning 5 to 5. Herb Pennock, the youngster of the quintet, age 26, had a rough time of it against Cleveland and was the principal victim of the Indians' eighth inning rally which netted five runs and a 10 to 5 victory over the Pittsburgh Yankees.

The Phillies and New York used pitchers of almost every kind as the Pirates won two games through Phil Traynor's two home runs, 2 to 1 and 16 to 15.

The Kenwood Giants and the Jacksonville Pirates, division winners in the valley ball league, will play at the Giant diamond Sunday afternoon, managers of the teams announced today. The game promises to be one of the hardest fought fought ball games which the league followers have witnessed this season.

Both of the teams were victorious in games played last Sunday. The Pirates defeated the Talent nine at the fair grounds and the Giants won a double header, one from the Stickies and another from the Modoc Orchard team.

CHICAGO BANDITS TAKE RACE BETS

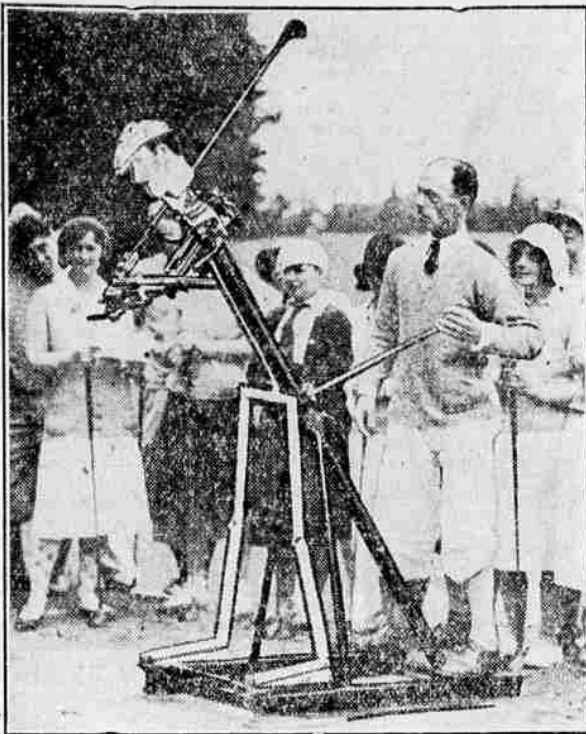

CHICAGO, July 24.—(AP)—Retardation of whether the horses were running well, there were no profits yesterday for racing followers in Chicago, a smogged suburb.

The bandits slipped into handbooks the rest of a horse show, turning the bettors against the well-known $2000 from the property, but an unestimated amount from the patrons.

Women agents of the Soviet Republic are reported to have begun their operations in London, following England's recognition of Russia. They are said to be beautiful creatures who can go anywhere and by their grace and charm win friends in any grade of society. They already are reported to be busy in the fashionable West end.

Shorts Solve Dilemma For Fair Tennis Player When Skirt Fails

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., July 24.—(AP)—The gallery was on its feet today cheering; bowing and gasping as Miss Josephine Dunham, Washington, and Miss Reba Kirtson, Baltimore, battled in the West Virginia open tennis tournament here yesterday.

Miss Dunham drove the ball fiercely at Miss Kirtson. Reba rapped to take the drive—B-r-r-r!—frantically at her falling skirt. Play stopped and Miss Kirtson hurriedly retired to the dressing room.

A few minutes later she reappeared, attired in a pair of men's "shorts." And the game went on.

WILMER ALISON AND JOHN VAN EYEN were the American selections for the doubles team, but when Pierre Gillou reserved the right to name the French doubles team Saturday, Captain Dixon of the Americans refrained from making an official announcement.

TILDEN FACES JEAN BOROTRA OPENING PLAY

American Hopes of Retrieving Davis Tennis Cup Focus on Friday Challenge Round.

PARIS, July 24.—(AP)—William T. Tilden of the United States and Jean Borotra of France will dispute the first singles of the Davis cup challenge round tomorrow at Roland Garros stadium. The draw today also determined in the second match George Lott of the United States will meet Henri Cochet of France.

On Sunday the order will be reversed, Tilden facing Cochet and Lott engaging Borotra.

The draw for the doubles match Saturday will not be made until the result of the first two singles is known tomorrow night.

The luck of the draw once again placed upon Tilden practically the entire responsibility of carrying the burden of American hopes to capture the Davis cup, for both American and French experts agree that upon the result of his match against Borotra rests the fate of the cup.

Cochet is a 2 to 1 favorite to win from Lott.

Wilmer Allison and John Van Eyn were the American selections for the doubles team, but when Pierre Gillou reserved the right to name the French doubles team Saturday, Captain Dixon of the Americans refrained from making an official announcement.

PRINK CALLISON REVISITS SCENE GRID SUCCESS

With Rod and Gun In Rogue Valley By Ernest Rostel and Dick Green

The time for vacation has arrived and this period of the year in some respects is dangerous in view of the possibility of accidents that occur on recreation jaunts.

Safe drinking water is one of the big questions and in view of the recent condemning of quite a number of southern Oregon streams for drinking purposes makes this matter important.

Safe Milk—Do not drink milk without first knowing that it is produced under the best sanitary conditions without the possibility of pollution entering the milk by way of the fly, dirty milking or dirty utensils.

Safe Hiking—If you are making a trip into the mountains in which a variety of water and milk supplies will be encountered follow the above suggestions, and as an added safeguard, be immunized against typhoid fever.

Safe Swimming—Use care in selecting a place to swim. Typhoid fever can be contracted by swimming in polluted water.

Safe Camping—Choose high and well-drained ground for your camping sites. Be sure that the water supply is so situated as to avoid any possibility of pollution from the sewage. Keep a clean camp and burn all garbage and rubbish.

Safe Traveling—If taking an automobile, try always observe traffic regulations. No matter how far in the country you may be there may be someone just behind you, so be sure to indicate clearly your intention of stopping, turning, etc. Watch for railroad crossings, and don't attempt to cross one without stopping and looking in both directions. Don't try to break existing speed records. Others have tried—many of them are dead.

Shakespeare for Africans. Shakespeare is being translated into Swahili by Sol Plantale, a native journalist of Uchuanland, South Africa, and the idea is making a hit among the natives, who are greatly interested in the sayings of the Bard.

When With Smooth Axes. IRRADIAN, Manitoba.—(AP)—Brought about by mutation which is believed transferable to commercial varieties through hybridization, wheat plants with smooth awns have been produced by Prof. S. J. Sigfusson of the Dominion experimental farm at Brandon.

Organize for Profits. MEMPHIS, Tenn.—(AP)—Declaring that unprofitable returns from peachers during recent years organized growers to realize the need of organization, Roane county, Tenn., producers have organized a cooperative marketing association.

Russ Bank Note Girl Modest. Agnes Monjokkin, whose features are to grace Russia's new bank notes, has been proclaimed by the government as "a beauty with struggle in her eyes." She also is declared to be one of the most modest girls in the country.

Follows Son To Grave. SALEM, Ore., July 23.—(AP)—An hour and a half before the time set for his son's funeral David A. Harris, 73, dropped dead at his home at Riekey, near here, yesterday afternoon. The son, Frank Harris, died in the Veterans' hospital at Walla Walla.

Break La Grande Jail. LA GRANDE, July 24.—(AP)—"Splice" Malone, charged with liquor violation, and George Hays, held on a larceny charge, escaped from the county jail last night after locking Tom de Bords, jailer in their cell.

Grants Pardon. SALEM, Ore., July 24.—(AP)—On recommendation of District Attorney Stanley Myers of Multnomah county and a number of prominent citizens, Governor Norblad yesterday granted a conditional pardon to William Stacey, serving time in the penitentiary for receiving stolen property.

Acorns and Seals Even in Hot Series—Missions Defeat Ducks By Huff's Heavy Hitting.

(By the Associated Press) Oakland and San Francisco, showing good baseball in the second half season, today were in the middle of a hot series that kept both from rivaling the Missions' league lead.

Oakland won yesterday, 3 to 1, to even the series, with a Seal error by Cronetti giving the decision to Craighead over McDougall, though only one earned run was scored by each team.

Los Angeles, making the largest gain of the week, was in a second place tie, as a result of having downed Sacramento for the second time last night, 9 to 3. Moore's homer with two on led the Angels' six run attack in the second inning.

The Missions stayed out in front by evening the series with Portland, winning last night, 6 to 2. Huff's three doubles, one scoring three runs, featured the game in which Knott held the Ducks to six hits.

Claywood started hitting Hubbell early to defeat Seattle, 7 to 5. The Indians got plenty of hits off Thibode, but they were scattered.

"Fireball" in Scotland. What is believed to have been a luminous meteor fell and exploded recently on the farm of Captain A. Manson, near Kibbewan, Scotland. Mrs. Manson said that everything had been unusually calm, when a loud hissing noise was followed by a terrific crash. Flashes of light flew in all directions.
