

36 COMPLETE SUMMER WORK AT S.O. NORMAL

SUNDAY'S GAME PITS FIELDERS AND CLOUTERS

Second Six-Week Term Will Open Monday—One Additional Teacher—Graduates Named.

Lakeview Excels On Defense While Locals Have Power in Heavy Hitting—Expect Great Game.

ASHLAND, July 25.—(Special)—Thirty-six students are completing their work at the Southern Oregon Normal school at the close of the six-week summer term today, according to announcement made by President J. H. Churchill. Most of these graduates received their diplomas at the commencement in June, and those who were not graduated at that time will be included in the June, 1931 class.

Southern Oregon baseball fans will see some fine pitching next Sunday when Lakeview and the Medford Merchants battle for supremacy at the Jackson county fair grounds.

The second six-weeks term opens Monday. Miss Marie Churchill of Portland is the only additional faculty member employed for the term. She will be in charge of courses in play production, mythology and word derivation as a part of the English department.

Baker for Lakeview pitches easy, is a fine fielder on bunts, and has a great assortment of curves; his submarine balls are almost "unhittable."

Miss Clara Trotter, Miss Henrietta Chaille and Miss Eloise Buck, members of the faculty are leaving for the next six weeks' term. Miss Bernice Heff, who has been in charge of the individual instruction work at the training school is leaving for her home in the mid-west. The training school is not operated as a part of the second term.

Those who witnessed the splendid pitching duel last Sunday between Hughes and Baker think the Lakeview pitcher is even greater than Cliff Best. Anyway Baker gives one a thrill when he is in the box.

Students Listed.

Students completing their work today include: Elva Adams, Central Point; Edith Ayer, Grants Pass; Minnie Beaver, Ashland; Ethel Boussum, Medford; Ora L. Brown, Grants Pass; Warren Conrad, Medford; Genevieve Crowley, Sitkum; Lavida Arleen Culbertson, Central Point; Goldie DeFew, Medford; Letha Dodge, Ashland; Lela M. Dodson, Grants Pass; Louise Downs, Talent; J. E. Evans, Polley; Burns, Carroll, Burns, Lakewiew; Florence Fuller, Roseburg; Naomi Gray, Grants Pass; Charlotte P. Harrang, Foster.

Valencia Back

Manager Valencia will be back in his old position at first base and Maas will be switched to second. This line-up will give the added punch that may be required to win. Every player on the team Sunday is a strong hitter. Nevertheless, some of them will look weak against Baker.

Ruth Harmon, Grants Pass; Susanne Keskke, Portland; Clara Ladd, Hornbrook, Cal.; Thelma Lewis, Klamath Falls; Helen McCauley, Hood River; Mildred K. McGee, Ashland; Letha Miles, Ashland; Levretta Newton, Canyonville; Charles Pitcher, Silver Lake; Elizabeth Pitcher, Klamath Falls; Don Ray Smith, Marshfield; Olive E. Swedenburg, Ashland; Bernadine Schneider, Cottage Grove; Walter Shull, Bend; June Thompson, Burns; Lilla Scott Vowell, Roseburg; Wanda Wilcox, Couville; Una B. Inch, Medford.

Lakeview fans are coming in full force to cheer the best team they ever had, on to victory. Over one-half of the Medford team is composed of old players, and they are going onto the field Sunday with the determination to win from those college boys playing on the Lakeview team. Medford has more home boys on their team than all the rest of the teams in the league together.

FILM COMEDIAN HERE FOR FISH

Neil A. Sparks, the well known moving picture comedian with the poker face and drawl, who is enjoying a vacation between pictures, arrived in Medford yesterday from Hollywood, Cal., to spend several days fishing in the Rogue river, and after outfitting himself properly by last evening, he thoroughly enjoyed the sport, went out early this morning to spend the day at the river.

Closes August 24th
Sunday's game will be the last appearance of the Medford team at home until August 17th and they close the season at home on August 24th. Then the team winning the last half will play a series of games with Medford for the championship.

Forecasters are being made by the fans that the largest crowd of the season will witness Sunday's game. For the reason they expect a thrilling game, and also want to help in the Frank Chester benefit.

LYMAN FUNERAL SET FOR MONDAY

Funeral for Wm. (Billy) Lyman, who died in the Veterans' hospital in Portland Wednesday night, will be held Monday afternoon, the definite hour and place to be announced later. It was noted this morning following return to Medford of Mrs. Lyman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lyman, Jr., and Mrs. Fred Scheffel.

Tom Kay and Phil Metschan are said to be claiming all the way from 16 to 17 votes apiece. Julius Meier says he is without a complimentary vote but believes he has more "absolute assurance" than any other candidate.

The vast majority of committeemen came to Portland unpledged. It was revealed today. Several pointed out they are carefully considering selection of the best man in the state—one who will be able to avert a bolt to an independent.

To be nominated a candidate must receive a majority—at least 12 of the 26 votes.

U. S. G. QUICK

stipation with headaches and back-aches helped pull me down and I was about ready to give up. While on a cross-country trip with my son a druggist in Butte, Montana, recommended Sargon and that was the turning point to good health. Six bottles put me back on my feet in great shape. I'm as sound as a silver dollar and haven't felt as good as I do now in 20 years. I stood an examination for life insurance the other day and the doctor said I was in wonderful shape for a man of 62. "Sargon Pills completely ended my constipation and my days of taking purgatives are past."—U. S. G. Quick, 404 2nd St., Portland, Oregon. Magill Drug Co., Agents.
