

The Week's Society Happenings

Edited By
Eva Nealon

Miss Wiley Becomes Bride of Mr. Riddle at Lovely Ceremony

Miss Elizabeth Wiley, daughter of Mrs. C. J. Reilly of Los Angeles and William Howard Riddle, son of Mrs. Mayme E. Riddle of Medford, were married at 8 o'clock Friday evening at an impressive ceremony read by Rev. Alexander G. Bennett of the First Methodist Episcopal church on the spacious lawn of Big Rock lodge on Rogue river, country home of the groom's uncle, Wm. F. Isaacs. Guests were the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom.

Lighting effects, suspended from the trees, cast light and shadows about the lawn leading down to the river as the bride, attired in ivory satin and lace, entered the grounds to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played on the pipe organ, and broadcast from station KMED for the wedding.

She wore no veil and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Her maid of honor, Mrs. C. B. Best, wore a dress of orchid chiffon print and carried a bouquet of sweetpeas. The groom's attendant was Frank Perl.

Following the ceremony a reception was held with Miss Frances Kinney and Miss Tess Merrell assisting the hostess, Mrs. Riddle, after which the bride and groom left for a motor trip to coast points. They will return to be at home to their friends at 696 South Central.

Miss Brommer Gives Luncheon for Guest

Miss Fredericka Brommer is among members of the local younger set who entertained during the past week for Miss Margaret Coates of Albany, who is a Medford guest. Miss Brommer was hostess at a luncheon, followed by bridge Friday afternoon.

Miss Baldwin Feted Prior to Departure

Miss Edith Baldwin of Ross, Calif., who has been guest of Miss Roxane Dahl for the past two weeks, was honored guest at a dinner and theater party given by Miss Dahl Tuesday evening.

Epleys Motor to Crater Lake

Mr. and Mrs. Malcom Epley of Eugene and their house guest, Jack Dudley of West Point, were among visitors in Medford last week, who enjoyed a motor trip to Crater Lake. While here they were the guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lay. Mr. Epley is city editor of the Eugene Register.

Miss Heckman Guest in Klamath Falls

Miss Annette Heckman, who is in this city from Hills, T. H., to spend the summer with her father, Dr. W. H. Heckman of Corning Court, is guest this week-end of her brother, William Heckman and family at their home in Klamath Falls. Miss Heckman will return to the Islands the middle of August to resume her position as supervisor of Kindergartens in Hills.

Shingles Home From North

Mr. and Mrs. J. Verne Shangle and young son returned to Medford the first of the week from Portland, Seattle and Port Townsend, where they spent the preceding ten days visiting relatives and friends. In Port Townsend they were guests of Mr. Shangle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Shangle.

Mrs. Everett McArthur of Portland was guest during the past week of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Corlies and sister, Mrs. George Codling.

Miss Mildred Carlton has returned to her home on the Old Stage road after spending several days in San Francisco.

Organist

MISS FLORENCE SEVERANCE is organist for Adair Chapter No. 3, Jacksonville, of O. E. S. Golden Anniversary of which was observed Wednesday.

Dunbar Carpenters Arrive Today From Bay City by Motor

Alfred S. V. Carpenter will arrive in Medford today by motor from San Francisco, accompanied by his brother, Dunbar Carpenter and son, Dunbar Jr., of Winchester Mass., who will be guests in this city for several weeks. They are traveling from the bay city via the Redwood highway.

Miss Coates Is Much Entertained Guest Local College Set

Considerable entertaining has been done during the past week in the college set honoring Miss Margaret Coates of Albany, who is guest of the Misses Mary Martha and Katherine Sweeney, with whom she attended Oregon State college.

The Misses Sweeney were hostesses at an evening of bridge Tuesday. Guests were: Misses Oma Geblauer, Sara Whitlock, Marjory Daily, Sally Roberts, Eleanor Peter, Georgia Edwards, Fredericka Brommer, Mary Edwards, Edna Mohy, and Dolly Schofield and Mesdames Frank Perl, Jack Porter, Bernice Redfield and Richstein and the honor guest, Miss Coates.

Miss Coates stopped in Medford the first of the week on her return from Del Monte, where she attended the convention of Alpha Chi Omega as representative from the Oregon State college chapter.

Local Bride-to-Be Is Honor Guest

Mrs. James Kerr was hostess Tuesday evening at a kitchen shower given in honor of Miss Erma Templeton, local bride-to-be. The bride was the leading diversion of the evening and prize for high score was won by Miss Viola Templeton and consolation by Miss Rosalie Root. There were 10 guests present.

Mrs. Dunham Returns To Chicago

Mrs. Robert Dunham, who has been guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Preston at their ranch home left Friday evening to return to Chicago. Mrs. Dunham is Mr. Preston's sister.

Picnic Planned For August 3

The Woodcraft Thimble club will hold a picnic at Elk Creek, Sunday, August 3. Those who have room in their cars for extra passengers call Mrs. Fisher, 1275-R and those who have no way of transportation call Mrs. Fisher, who will arrange means of transportation.

Royal Neighbors Plan Lawn Party

The Royal Neighbors will give a benefit lawn party at the home of Mrs. Calla Geer, 907 North Riverside, Thursday evening, July 21. An interesting program is promised all persons who attend. Many attractions have been arranged as well as an appealing list of summer refreshments.

Leave For Vacation

Miss Neva Samuels, Miss Anna Patton and Miss Mary Louise Flynn left Saturday for a two-weeks vacation trip which will include Crescent City and other popular beach resorts. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Samuels who accompanied them will return to Medford Sunday evening.

Mrs. Thompson Honored

Mrs. E. W. Simmons of South Laurel was hostess at an evening of bridge at her home Tuesday honoring her sister, Mrs. Thompson of Pasadena, Calif., who is her house guest this week. There were three tables in play.

Crowells of Paris Are House Guests of Dr. Salades

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Crowell and daughter, Eunice, of Paris, France are guests of Mrs. Crowell's parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Salades at their country home near Central Point this week.

They arrived in Medford Thursday and plan to spend four or five months here. After living abroad for five years, they are contemplating making their home in the states. They came from France on a ship of the new line, recently inaugurated, which makes the ocean voyage direct to San Francisco.

Mrs. Crowell is well known here and will be the inspiration for considerable entertaining during the summer season.

Mrs. Vawters Opens Series of Affairs With a Luncheon

The first of a series of luncheons planned for late summer was given Friday afternoon by Mrs. Wm. Vawter at the country home of Mrs. Alice Hultoway. There were four tables of bridge in play following luncheon.

Pleasant Affair Is Given Tummy Home

Mrs. Earl Tummy was among the many local matrons who entertained during the past week for out-of-town guests. She was hostess Thursday afternoon at an informal luncheon at her home for Mrs. Thomas H. Mills and house guest, Mrs. George K. Voss of Portland, Mrs. L. A. Salade Jr. and sister, Mrs. J. B. Wescott, and Mrs. Jack Briggs of Illinois. Covers were placed for ten guests.

Mrs. Corless Hostess At Bridge Luncheon

Mrs. Eva Corless entertained at a bridge luncheon last Wednesday at her home at Phoenix. There were four tables of bridge in play with high score won by Miss Fay Carver, second score won by Mrs. Crowell, and low score by Mrs. Sullivan.

The tables and room were very prettily decorated in appropriate tones of yellow and green with attractive favors of same color for each guest.

The guests were: Mrs. W. D. Barnes, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Lillian Coleman, Miss Fay Carver, Mrs. W. V. Barnum, Mrs. Frost, Mrs. B. M. Griggs, Mrs. John Crews, Mrs. W. H. Hanson, Mrs. Harry L. Butler, Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. Carl Seiger, Mrs. W. C. McCusker, Mrs. Ted Littlefield, Mrs. Wm. Campbell, Miss Dot Berry and Miss Billie Carless and the hostess, Mrs. Eva Corless.

Haskins Motor to Berkeley for Visit

Mrs. Leon B. Haskins and daughter, Helen, Gertrude and Dorothea, left Medford the first of the week by motor for Berkeley, Calif., where they will be guests of Mrs. Haskins' sister, Mrs. George Johnson. They were accompanied by Miss Margaret Johnson, who has been spending the summer here.

Mrs. Robinson Entertains

Mrs. Gail Robinson entertained at luncheon yesterday afternoon honoring the many guests who are in Medford from other cities to spend the summer.

Miss Metehan Entertained Here

Miss Dolly Metehan, daughter of Dr. E. L. Metehan of Portland, who is house guest of Mrs. A. H. Lamm, has been considerably entertained by the local school group. She was luncheon guest of Miss Joan DeLoach Wednesday.

Mrs. Scherer Hostess At Picnic Supper

Mrs. Paul Scherer entertained a group of friends Friday evening with a picnic supper on Rogue river, honoring Mr. Scherer's birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Lutz Daily has as guests this week her niece, the Misses Edna and Virginia Taylor of Medford.

Neighbors To Meet Monday

The Chrysanthemum Circle, No. 54 of the Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the L. O. O. F. hall.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Patterson and children left this city for their home in Los Angeles Wednesday after spending two weeks as guests of Mr. and Mrs. K. N. Moyle, West 10th.

Miss Helen Norris, Author, With Two Good Friends at Brookbank Orchard

Miss Coates Is Much Entertained Guest Local College Set

Considerable entertaining has been done during the past week in the college set honoring Miss Margaret Coates of Albany, who is guest of the Misses Mary Martha and Katherine Sweeney, with whom she attended Oregon State college.

Mrs. Edgell Hostess Recent Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln McCormack, who are guests in Medford from Irvington-on-the-Hudson, were honor guests at the dinner given Monday evening by Mrs. Corbin Edgell. Other guests were Mrs. Frank Preston and house guest, Mrs. Robert Dunham of Chicago; Slater Johnson and C. S. Newhall.

Visit Former Schoolmate

Prof. and Mrs. Carleton Cummings with son, George, and daughter, Jean, were guests for several days of Mr. and Mrs. A. Orin Schenk at their home on South Holy. Prof. Cummings is dean of music at the Idaho State university, Moscow, and both he and Mrs. Cummings were schoolmates of Mrs. Schenk at the Schenck-Wadsworth university, and had not met for 17 years until the past week. The Cummings have traveled extensively. While here they enjoyed a trip to Crater Lake and were enthusiastic in their praise of the world wonder. They also commended residents of Medford upon the prosperous appearance of the city and surrounding country, compared with eastern cities.

They plan to spend some time in the north before returning to Moscow for the opening of school early in September. Mrs. Cummings and children will spend a few days at Lake Louise, while Prof. Cummings joins a deer hunting party in southern Canada.

Neighbors of Woodcraft To Meet Monday

The Chrysanthemum Circle, No. 54 of the Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the L. O. O. F. hall.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Patterson and children left this city for their home in Los Angeles Wednesday after spending two weeks as guests of Mr. and Mrs. K. N. Moyle, West 10th.

Helen Norris Will Visit Studio Group KGO, San Francisco

Miss Helen Norris, well known local author, will leave Medford tomorrow for San Francisco, where she will visit studio friends of KGO, who have broadcast so many of her radio dramas. She will be met in Oakland by Miss Grace Wolandine of New York and will be extensively entertained in the bay cities.

Bohemian Club Jinx Draws Guests from Local Ranch Colony

The Bohemian club jinx on the Russian river near San Francisco will be attended by two residents of the local ranch colony this year. T. Slater Johnson left for San Francisco Friday evening and will be joined there next week by Col. Gordon Voorhies, who will attend the jinx as his guest. Col. Voorhies plans to leave for the Bohemian Wednesday.

Former Superintendent of Schools in Medford

Among the much feted guests in this valley during the past week were Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Collins and children of Springfield, Ill. Mr. Collins, former superintendent of Medford schools, is looked by many people here, who greeted the family on its recent return.

Many changes in the city of Medford significant of progress were noted by Mr. and Mrs. Collins. While guests of Mr. Collins' brother, S. C. Collins of the Table Rock district, they enjoyed several drives about the valley and to neighboring resorts. In this city they visited Mrs. Elgin Hurd, an old friend of the family. They motored to Medford from the east and will return by auto.

Mrs. Mehaffey Visits Friends and Relatives

Mrs. Lawrence Mehaffey, formerly Miss Maude Newbury, was a visitor in Medford during the past week with her sons, Donald and Lawrence Jr. Mr. Mehaffey is living in Antioch, Calif., and stopped in Medford on his return from Minneapolis, Minn., where she visited Mr. and Mrs. Carl Newbury. While here she was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Don Newbury and visited her mother, Mrs. Wilbur Jones of Klamath Falls.

Miss Helen Tallis of this city has as guest, Miss Bertha Wenke of Schenectady, N. Y.

Summer Guests Are Complimented With A Bridge Luncheon

Mrs. Lincoln McCormack of Irvington-on-the-Hudson and Mrs. Alice Bowne of New York, who are spending the summer in Medford, were honor guests at a bridge luncheon given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. John Tomlin at her home on the Old Stage road. There were two tables in play.

Shepards Find Many Friends on Arrival In Rio De Janeiro

Letters received from Buenos Aires, S. A., brings news of Mrs. Wm. Shepard and children, who recently joined Mr. Shepard in making their home in that city.

Mrs. Shepard stopped in Rio De Janeiro while en route and was extensively entertained there by former residents of Medford. Among them were I. B. Walters, Paul McKee, J. F. Partridge, Russell, Hacketts, and L. F. Ivanhose.

Linen Shower Given for Miss Carless

Miss Billie Carless was the inspiration of a linen shower given by Mrs. Ted Littlefield at her lovely home west of Phoenix. A lovely buffet luncheon was served by the hostess at 1:00 o'clock. The tables were very prettily and tastefully decorated with Dresden shades of flowers, including sweet peas, gladiolus and petunias. The bride-to-be table was graced with a centerpiece of a miniature bride and groom.

Following the lovely luncheon the balance of the afternoon was spent playing bridge. The first prize being won by Helen Norris, the second prize by Mrs. T. M. Wilson, and the consolation by Mrs. Sullivan.

The guests were Mrs. Walter Frazer Brown, Miss Emily Brown, Mrs. Harry L. Butler, Mrs. Sullivan, Miss Thelma Ganaway, Mrs. Harry Young, Mrs. Alvin Inman, Miss Winnifred Inman, Mrs. Harvey Boyer, Mrs. J. B. Webster, Mrs. Berthold Barnum, Miss Helen Norris, Mrs. T. V. Williams, Mrs. O. V. Maule, Mrs. A. W. Shepherd, Mrs. Gertrude, Mrs. Lillian Coleman, Miss Gay Carver, Mrs. Eva Carless, and the guest of honor, Miss Billie Carless.

Enjoy Picnic in Lithia Park

Mrs. Newburn-Hodges and son, Donald, of Medford, Mrs. Floyd Watkins and daughter, of Medford, Mrs. Roy Burleson of Phoenix, and Mrs. Gilbert Hermance of Eugene, picnicked in the Ashland Lithia park last Wednesday. The four ladies mentioned were classmates in the Phoenix school, all graduating with the class of 1924. The day was very pleasantly spent in reminiscing old times and reviewing school days together.

Guests From Illinois

Mrs. J. B. Wescott and talented little daughter, Marjory, of Chicago, Ill., accompanied by Mrs. Jack Briggs, are guests in Medford of Mrs. Wescott's sisters, Mrs. Marjory Feasley and Mrs. L. A. Salade Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burnham returned the first of the week from a fishing trip on the north fork of the Umpqua.

Visits In South

Miss Dorothea Haskins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Haskins, who is a guest in Berkeley, Calif., this week.

Mrs. Mills Hoonrs House Guest With Dinner Wednesday

Honoring her house guest, Mrs. George K. Voss of Portland, Mrs. Thomas H. Mills entertained at dinner at her home on Geneva Wednesday evening. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Egan and house guest, Tom Duiyman, of San Francisco; Mrs. Sprague Riegel, Chas Voorhies, and Mrs. Voss.

Tuckers Entertain Burlingame Guests

Guests who are spending this week end at the Nion Tucker cabin on Rogue River arrived in Medford on the morning Shasta Friday from Burlingame, Calif. They are Mr. and Mrs. George Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Power Symington and Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Lyman.

Miss Jean Prochnow Honor Guest

Miss Jean Whitlock entertained Thursday evening at Jackson Hot Springs with a swimming party in honor of Miss Marjorie Prochnow, who was the house guest of Miss Whitlock during the week.

Following the swim, a picnic dinner was enjoyed, with the following guests present: Miss Prochnow, Helen and Deah Higdon, Lella Kasska, Mrs. Richard Stoner, and Mrs. C. W. Whitlock.

Mrs. Willett Returns From Vacation Trip

Mrs. Rosa Blackmore Willett has returned to Medford after vacationing in Crescent City, Calif., and will re-open her studio next week for morning classes only through the month of August.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. White and Mrs. White's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Coggin are spending several days vacationing at Crescent City and Eureka.

Campbell's Dairy

Will Establish Retail MILK ROUTES

Beginning AUGUST 1st

We Will Take Over the Gillman Dairy Route on that Date

MILK

5c a Pint . . . 10c a Quart

Those wishing Daily Service on GRADE "A" RAW MILK

Phone 599-W

ONE STANDARD QUALITY

THE choice of diamond experts...selected for brilliance and color... Bluebird Rings add lasting joy to romance. Set only in iridium platinum or 18-karat white gold... a double Guaranteed investment in Happiness.

BLUEBIRD

Registered DIAMOND RINGS

C. Earl Bradfish JEWELER

Small Payment, Balance By Week

... but you can be positive that every Certified Virgin Diamond is a blue-white, carefully graded gem of exceptional brilliancy, and what is more important, direct from the mines, never before owned or worn. Virgin Diamonds of guaranteed quality, many be secured from $25 to $2,500.

All Fine Diamonds are not necessarily VIRGIN DIAMONDS

Sold exclusively through Authorized Virgin Diamond Dealers

Lawrence's