

TRIBUTE VOICED IN ROTARY MEET FOR WM. LYMAN

Resolutions expressing a tribute to a former Rotarian, Wm. (Billy) Lyman, beloved Civil War veteran, who died in Portland last week, were read at the noon luncheon of the local Rotary club at the Hotel Medford today by Past President Frank J. Newman and adopted by the club. A copy will be sent to Mrs. Lyman. The resolutions were read following the address given by Mr. Newman, describing in a brief way the life of Mr. Lyman, whose absence is mourned by the entire club. A prayer by the members of the old soldier, for whom funeral services were held yesterday, was given by Rev. Carman E. Mell.

Mr. Newman was closely associated with Mr. Lyman during the years that he lived in Medford, through the activities of the veterans' groups. Mr. Newman being a member of the Spanish American War Veterans and Mr. Lyman commander of the Medford post, G. A. R.

"Billy Lyman was always working for the uplift of the city, even during old age. He was a 100 per cent Rotarian until he was confined to his bed with illness," Mr. Newman stated. "We then made him an honorary member, the first ever to belong to the Medford club."

The letter sent to Mr. Lyman during his illness by the Rotary club was read by Mr. Newman and a description given of his brave fight against neuritis. "Even while suffering the pains of the disease he laughed and talked to us. His whole life was spent in an unselfish way. To administer to those less fortunate than himself was always the true spirit shown by Billy Lyman," Mr. Newman stated. "His life should be a great lesson to all of us, a small way to accomplish a few of the many good deeds done by him."

As a representative of the local club, Dr. Ed Shockley presented Mr. Newman with the past president's emblem with an expression of Rotary's appreciation of the work accomplished during his term as president. Mr. Newman responded stating that he appreciated the emblem but even more the friendship he has known in the club.

John Boyle, chairman of the international committee, and C. F. Steward, chairman of the classification committee, were urged by President E. C. Corn to begin their activities.

A meeting of the board of directors was called following the luncheon, at which it was decided to invite Mr. Munn of Vienna, internationally known speaker and Rotarian, who is making a tour of the United States and is now visiting in Chicago, to address the local club. The Ashland Rotarians will be invited to the meeting, time and place for which will be announced later.

Card of Thanks I wish to thank my friends and neighbors for their expressions of sympathy and deeds of kindness during the illness and death of my dear husband. Also for the lovely floral offerings. Mrs. Cora Branham.

Mr. Van Dorphy fell from the wagon on to the tongue where he was carried for several rods, then hurled under the wagon. One wheel ran over his arm, chest and shoulder. ARMSTRONG MOTORS NEW CHRYSLER AGENTS

C. A. Whalen, representing the Chase-Garfield Motor company of Portland, distributors for Chrysler cars, was in Medford today completing arrangements for the transfer of the Chrysler agency to Armstrong Motors, Inc.

The new Chrysler showrooms is now on display in the showrooms of the new dealer as is the Plymouth. They also have a complete line of parts and are prepared to render first class service to these cars.

Mr. Armstrong says: "The automobile industry in 1934 experienced one of the biggest sensations of its history. In that year Walter P. Chrysler, until then unknown except to the trade, brought out a motor car bearing his name that was radically different from anything else on the market. This Chrysler was capable of 70 miles an hour, when the absolute top passenger car speed of the day was a mile a minute. The first Chrysler was compactly built, low to the ground for that day and comparatively small, though not low in price. It entered and achieved swift popularity in a crowded field of motor cars. The reception of the new Chrysler eight eclipses that of the first Chrysler six."

The new lines and colors, low build, all steel bodies, multi-range four-speed, transmission, down-draft carburetor and hydraulic brakes are among the many attractive features of the new eight."

GOSS RANCH FIRE BREAKS CONTROL

The suspected man-caused fire which started on the Goss ranch in the Butte Falls district, near Hunter's Peak several days ago, and which was thought to have been under control early yesterday afternoon after burning over a grass and brush territory of 200 acres, broke out again later in the day and was raging fiercely, still in brush, early this afternoon, at which time it covered 600 acres.

Inasmuch as the fire is approaching good timber, 60 or 70 fire fighters, under Chief Ranger E. J. Rogers of the Crater National forest service, is battling the flames. This force is composed of a contingent of the Forest Guard, the Oregon Forest Rangers, the Goss ranch crew and other picked-up temporary fire fighters.

No other fires were reported as existing in the Crater National forest up to early this afternoon, although there was considerable smoke in the valley today, which had drifted in from forest fires north of this section. The smoke from the so-called Goss ranch fire has been drifting south away from the valley.

Mystery and Elegance Feature Winter Styles; Lengthen Skirts

PARIS, France, July 29.—(AP)—Milady's frocks this winter must be both elegant and subtle. Mysterious penlines, tiers and tunics mark the silhouettes displayed this week by half a hundred style establishments which consider themselves "high style" before buyers searching for the new and beautiful with which to clothe Eve's posterity.

The lines, interrupting, but not distorting the outlines of the new completely feminized figure, promise complication for the home dress-makers' art.

When the style shows are rapidly approaching a climax, none of the half dozen biggest houses has yet exhibited and until they do final "style dope" is still subject to upset.

The consensus is, however, that skirts are to be only slightly longer for day wear, while the waistlines have the curve nature designed for them. Colors to date emphasize a rich brown called "Van Dyke" after the painter, greens in many dark shades, rich reds, some purple and black and white for morning, noon and night.
