

FINE CEREMONIES FOR OBSERVANCE OF SINGLER DAY

The warm weather, while slowing up most home folks somewhat, does not in the least affect the speed and pep of Rudy and Raymond Singler—in fact, increases it, and that is why today in the city court was Singler brothers' day, the observance of which caused Rudy and Ray to plead guilty to indulging in the modern urban sport of speeding, and on Judge Taylor's suggestion each paying $10 over to help swell the city's coffers.

There was no other feature of the program and after its completion the well known section of the Singler brothers speeded up as they hot-footed it out of the court, glad to leave the room behind in which they had just invested $20 of hard-earned coin.

For some unknown reason Rudy and Ray speeded their cars down Main street about 9:30 last night, close together, one behind the other, which rolled Tom Robinson, city traffic officer, who met them in front of the Copco building and placed them under arrest. Tom may occasionally look the other way when an ordinary speeder comes along, but when they approach in flocks or by families, why business is business, let the fines fall where they may. Besides such evolutions do not show proper respect to the Copco and its building.

Dick, August and Val, another section of the famous Singler brothers, feel quite badly over this break of their close relatives, who so forgot themselves while loosening up their cars a trifle so not to look around for a speed cop and "got caught," thus discrediting the hitherto spotless family escutcheon and reflecting discredit on the general intelligence of the entire collection of brothers. The trio think that Rudy and Ray should be more smooth while running a mite fast. They themselves have never been caught, owing to their good eyesight and discretion.

The sympathy of the public goes out to the mother of the misguided brothers who are leading such fast lives that they spend $10 each for a few minutes' visit in the federal building with the city judge.

TURN OFF WATER AT CALL OF FIRE

Although it has been announced several times that city water for irrigation purposes must be turned off during a fire, it was learned yesterday that during the grass fire on Catherine street a short check-up revealed 22 irrigation hose in use, affecting the pressure of the fire hose. This number was found as the result of a few minutes' work and it is thought there were many more running at the same time.

Fire Chief Roy Elliott said today that water department officials in the future will keep a perfect check on water users and those found using water during a fire will be promptly arrested.

FULL CREWS FOR PACKING HOUSES

The majority of the fruit packing houses in Medford report that their crews for the season, who are soon to begin work, have all been hired and that there is a sufficient number of applications on hand to make up two or three more crews. The engaging of employees was completed some time ago, experienced former employees as a rule being given preference, but, despite that situation the foremen of the various packing houses are continuing to be besieged for positions by persons out of employment.

The rule that makes delicious doughnuts is the rule in roasting HILLS BROS COFFEE

By cooking doughnuts a few at a time in the hot fat, every one is cooked and browned evenly. By roasting coffee a few pounds at a time instead of in bulk, Hills Bros. roast every berry of their fine blend evenly. No other roasting process can develop the flavor Hills Bros.' continuous process—Controlled Roasting—does.

MIKSCHKE REGAINS AUTO WHEN THIEF STOPPED AT LINE

Raymond Miksche of the Monarch Seed & Feed Co. was up in the air for a time this forenoon when he saw his coupe disappear around the corner on Riverside avenue. The key had been left in the car and a transient, headed south, took possession and drove away. The police were notified and in turn the fruit checking station at Hornbrook, Cal., was advised of the theft. In a short time the coupe arrived at the station, occupied by two men, both of whom are being held by officers and are to be brought to Medford this afternoon. One man claims he is a hitch-hiker and was picked up along the road by the other. The license plates had been changed on the car and the identification mark which led to the unfortunates of the occupants was a deep dent in a fender, included in a description given the California officers. The news of the car's recovery brought Mr. Miksche down to earth quickly. Rids will be opened for constructing and improving Canyon City-Hurra grading project in Malheur national forest.

RABBIT BREEDERS DISCUSS EXHIBITS FOR COUNTY FAIR

At the Southern Oregon Mutual Rabbit Breeders' meeting last night, H. G. Fowler of the Jackson county fair board addressed the meeting in the interest of the fair. In view of the fact that there are two local rabbit associations (which fact surprised the body) Mr. Fowler considered that the appointment of a neutral man for the superintendency of the rabbit exhibit would be best for all concerned and asked co-operation. It was promised, stipulating, however, that he must be an experienced rabbit man. Some of the world's finest specimens of rabbits are raised here in southern Oregon by the members, and it was the sense of the organization that their care would be turned over only to a thoroughly reliable person, having the welfare of the industry at heart. It was voted to continue radio broadcasts over KMED, since the results have been good. Communications from Oregon's representation in Washington in response to the associations' resolutions for a tariff on raw rabbit pelts were read and discussed and it was decided to let the matter rest until the next session of congress when the breeders will start a nation-wide agitation for a duty of 50 per cent on rabbit pelts.

Nancy Carroll to Star at Craterian

Nancy Carroll, petite and charming Irish colleen who captivated old and young with her comical and funny parts in "Sweetie" and "Honey," will be seen and heard in an entirely new type of screen portrayal in "The Devil's Holiday," which opens at the Fox Craterian theater today. In this picture of modern life in America's wheat-belt, Miss Carroll is the gold digging manicurist who has her hand in hand with plotting salesmen of farm implements in putting over their deals with unsuspecting farmer prospects.

Much of the action takes place in a big hotel, the rendezvous for wealthy farmers and tricky city folks. Miss Carroll tries her lungee game on Phillips Holmes, son of the wheat-king of that region, and later regrets her shameful trickery when she discovers that he loves her. The play is charged with dramatic dynamics and stirring emotional scenes. Miss Carroll, as the central, starring figure, has to carry much of the highly explosive burden of acting. How she does it stamps her as an eminent genius in this type of role.

"Undertow" Scores Hit at Fox Rialto

Mary Nolan achieves an entirely new screen triumph in her current starring feature, "Undertow," which opens at the Fox Rialto theater today. The exotic blonde star, who previously has bedazzled her audiences in comedy-drama roles, now reaches the zenith of sheer drama in a portrayal which definitely marks her as among the finest emotional actresses of the all-talking screen. A powerfully unique story, laid for the most part in a lighthouse several miles from shore, "Undertow" affords Miss Nolan a marvelous opportunity to show the great versatility of which she proves herself capable.

LIONS ENDORSE MISS MEDFORD'S REIGN AT PORT

A duel will not be fought by the Legion and Lions over the hand of "Miss Medford" in spite of much talk heard on the streets regarding the allegation by the Legion of the service club's beauty, who will participate in the festivities of the airport dedication and celebration to be held following arrival of the Pacific Northwest Air Tour at the local field. Four resolutions were adopted at today's luncheon of the Lion's club at the Hotel Medford endorsing the celebration to be sponsored by the Medford post and granting the veterans the right to use "Miss Medford" in their advertising and program. No opposition to "Miss Medford's" participation will be voiced by the Lions although she is under contract to the club until August 6. The musical program for today's luncheon was furnished by Miss Boutah Gore and Miss Alice Holmback, well known local musicians, who are students of the University of Oregon. Miss Gore played on the violin, Valse, Couquette and Berceuse, accompanied by Miss Holmback. These numbers were followed by a piano duet, Norwegian Dance, by Miss Gore and Miss Holmback. The report of the happy thought committee was given by Lion G. W. Newberry. Many happy thoughts, and some, which Lion Conger described as "not too happy," were given by other members. Others submitted quarters to the kitty while fitting substitutes were given for them by more ambitious members.

The cargoes are said to be the product of "convict" or "slave labor." In either case, they should be excluded. We don't let our convict labor compete with free labor, and ought not to allow Russian convict labor to compete. But if we quarrel with Russia and exclude her goods because we do not like her political opinions, we are acting foolishly. Such action might prevent Russia spending hundreds of millions in America, giving employment to American workers, and profit to American capitalists. If our "boob minds" haven't brains enough to keep American workers employed, they should allow Russia to give them work, if Russia will. Canada's election surprised many of our friends in the north. MacKenzie King, who has been prime minister for 12 years, lost the election to a conservative, a lawyer, named Bennett. King, educated at Harvard, was always on friendly terms with the United States. Perhaps his defeat means that Canada doesn't like our new tariff. For the first time a woman is elected to the Canadian parliament. Nine more that wanted to be elected failed.

When you are traveling serenely in an express train and it stops suddenly you put your head out of the window to look, or ask the conductor, "What is the matter?" We were all traveling in the prosperity express train, it stopped with a jolt last October, and every body is still asking: "What is the matter?" Adolph Zukor, an intelligent American business man, who retains his capacity to keep cool and think clearly even when business is not good, says: "For one thing, we had lost our heads. We began to think about a dollar as we ought to think about a 25-cent piece. "After a while we shall learn what money is, what thrift and common sense means. Then we shall be better off than we ever were. "Nothing better than this so-called slump could have happened to us. "For my part, I was never more optimistic in my life." Mr. Zukor of course speaks sincerely, and his optimism is justified. This country needs a lesson and is having it. How long it will last, nobody knows. Two Russian ships loaded with pulpwood for newsprint are excluded. Other Russian ships now on
