Bertha Whillock Becomes Bride of Mr. Stutz Today

Miss Bertha Whillock of Corvallis, daughter of Mrs. C. W. Whillock of 714 West Tenth street, will become the bride of Mr. Lester E. Stutz, also of Corvallis, at four o'clock this afternoon, at the home of the bride's mother. Rev. Alexander G. Bennett will read the service, with Miss Elizabeth Swigart playing the "Wedding March" by Mendelssohn.

Miss Lilly Nordgren of Corvallis will sing "O Promise Me," and Mrs. W. A. Holloway will sing "Because," accompanied at the piano by Miss Swigart.

The bride will wear a dress of powder blue lace, and will carry a bouquet of rosebuds and sweet peas. She will be attended by Mrs. Delmer M. Goode of Corvallis, who will be attended in apricot chiffon. Mrs. Fred Stutz, brother of the groom, will be his only attendant.

A reception will be given at the Whillock home following the wedding, for the guests, after which the couple will leave for Victoria, Canada.

Rev. Wood Greeted at Reception Held On Friday Evening

The reception for Rev. Wood the new pastor of the M. E. church South, Mrs. Wood and their son Harold which was postponed from last week on account of the death of Rev. H. M. Branham, was held Friday night in the church basement.

There was a varied program consisting of songs, readings, and instrumental selections on piano, ukulele, mandolin, guitar and harmonica.

Dr. Roberts extended the hearty welcome of the entire membership of the church to Rev. Wood and family and called upon the whole body of the church to put forth earnest effort to make this year the best possible.

Rev. Wood responded voicing his sincere appreciation for the real welcome accorded him and his family since their arrival and outlining in a small way some of his plans for the year.

About eighty were present. After the program refreshments were served.

Young Artists Are Whillock's Guests

House guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Whillock of 915 West Tenth street are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McTherson and family of Los Angeles, Mr. McTherson has just returned from a trip abroad, having visited England, Ireland, Scotland and France, while the rest of the family remained in Los Angeles, as Miss Marian was dancing with the Fanchon and Marco Revue.

Both Miss Marian and little Miss June, aged 13 and 8, respectively, are talented dancers, both being pupils of Ethel Meglin, producer of the world-famous Meglin Kiddie Revue; while the younger members of the family, Joseph, Jr., Donald and Robert, are equally talented, all having taken part in Tech-Art pictures in Hollywood. Miss Elizabeth, who enjoyed a two months' visit in Medford last fall, is an accomplished singer and linguist.

Among the interesting affairs enjoyed during their stay was the beautiful trip to Crater Lake, including an overnight visit to Prospect, during the past week.

Having motored up over the Redwood highway, the return trip will probably be made over the inland route.

They were accompanied by John Hamill of that city, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Hamill.

Olson Players during their masterful presentation of St. John G. Irvine's powerful emotional drama, "The Ship."

"The Ship," a compelling three-act English drama by St. John Irvine was given a highly artistic and convincing presentation last night by the Moroni Olsen players.

Musical circles, however, are glad to know Miss Marjorie Cowan was also in the city making tentative arrangements for the appearance some time in December of the Seattle Symphony orchestra, with 83 people, at the armory.

The Seattle symphony is known as one of the 12 major symphonies in the United States, and is conducted by Director Kruger. During the past week, Mr. Kruger has been conducting the orchestra in the Hollywood bowl, and recently returned from Philadelphia where he directed an orchestra.

Tentative Arrangements Made For "The Ship" And Seattle Symphony

Local dramatic circles are interested to learn that Miss Janet Young, business manager of the Moroni-Olsen players, and one of the original seven players was in Medford Friday, in interests of the company, which will be presenting "The Ship," three-act drama by St. John G. Irvine.

This is one of the finest plays from the pen of Irvine, who is also the author of "The First Mrs. Frazier," now playing in New York City. "The Ship" was presented by the players five years ago, and has been requested many times since.

The following comments have been made of this play by the Butte Miner and Seattle Times, respectively:

"A crowd which filled the Broadway theater laughed and cried last night with Moroni Olsen, Janet Young and the other artists who make up the Moroni Olsen players during their masterful presentation of St. John G. Irvine's powerful emotional drama, "The Ship."

Child Artist of Chicago Entertains Local Society at L. A. Salade Home

One of the most interesting affairs in local society during the past week was the musical given on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. A. Salade Jr., at which her niece, Miss Marjorie Wescott, young coloratura-soprano was presented. Marjorie, who is in Medford with her mother, Mrs. J. B. Wescott, from Chicago is also a niece of Mrs. Marjory Feasley. She is just 11 years old and delighted the 60 guests, who called at Mrs. Salade's home with her mastery of French, Italian, German and Swedish as well as English interpretation of music.

She has been studying voice, piano and languages since she was five years of age. She has mastered them and at the same time kept her natural child smile and naive manner, which pleased the appreciative audience almost as much as the exceptional range of her voice.

Musical groups of Medford are hoping that the child artist may be heard in recital here before she returns to the east.

Her lovely voice is dominated by artistic feeling in all her songs, which seem to convey an ability heaven sent, always attributed to geni for which ordinary humans can find no other way of describing in the scheme of things. Such ability seldom blossoms in a child so young as Marjorie so to the training of her instructor, Hanna Butler, who is also her great-aunt, much must be conceded.

Her program Thursday afternoon included the following compositions:

German Lullaby - Mozart
Swedish Folk Song - Mozart
Serenade - Grevaskia
Cyril Scott - Cyril Scott
Bell Song - Delibes
Little Pink Rose - Delibes
Carrie Jacobs Bond
Charmant Oiseau - David
Mr. and Mrs. Piper - Curran
Encores, Cara Nomi - Verdi

Several interesting affairs have been held during the past week at resorts neighboring Medford. Among those listed for the coming week is a house party at Lake of the Woods, being planned by members of Phi Mu sorority from the University of Oregon.

Members from Klamath Falls and Medford will gather at the popular resort for the week-end to enjoy fishing, boating and swimming.
