SCREAMING WOMEN IN MOB FURY

Horrible Scene Enacted in Marion, Indiana, When Frenzied Women Trample and Claw Prostrate Negro to Death — Men Hang Victim's Colored Companion.

MARION, Ind., Aug. 8.—A frenzied mob of 1,000 persons which stormed the Grant county jail late last night, snatched two negroes from their cells and hung them on the courthouse square. The victims of the mob's fury were Thomas Shipp, 18, accused of fatally shooting Claude Deeter, 23, of Fairmont, Ind., and Abe Smith, 19, who police said admitted attacking Deeter's girl companion, after the shooting on a lonely country road east of here.

Using sledge hammers, after they were driven off once by use of tear gas bombs, members of the mob smashed a hole in the masonry beside the jail door and broke their way through two steel doors to reach the cells of the negroes. Shipp's clothing was torn from him by the madmen, and he was borne in a blanket to the courthouse yard and hanged from the bars of a window in the building.

Women Trample Negro.

Smith, borne from the jail by a group of men after they had knocked him unconscious with their fists and hammers, was thrown on the ground where a horde of screaming women trampled on him and tore his body with their fingernails. He was then hung on a tree in the courthouse yard.

The mob dispersed early today after it had taken from the jail and severely beaten Herbert Cameron, 16. Today 50 state policemen and police officers from surrounding towns, armed with sub-machine guns, maintained order in this city, while Governor Harry G. Leslie said he stood ready to recall the National Guard from its training quarters at Camp Knox, Ky., if further trouble developed.

The vengeance of the mob was appeased after Cameron was returned to the jail. It was discovered the men had intended taking Robert Sullivan, 19, who was implicated in the killing of Deeter, instead of Cameron, whose connection with the other negroes was only that of an accomplice in several recent robberies.

Girl's Uncle Saves One.

A move toward Sullivan, after the mistake was discovered and Cameron returned, was thwarted by a man who said he was an uncle of the girl attacked. He harangued the mob, saying the two men directly involved had been punished, and advised against further violence.

Duchess Of York

The body of Shipp, after swinging against the side of the building for a time was moved to the tree on which Smith was hanged, the meners announcing they would be left there until noon as a warning to other negroes.

Deeter was fatally shot Wednesday night as he sat in his parked automobile with Miss Mary Ball, 19, of Marion. Four negroes appeared, and after ordering him to throw up his hands, shot him four times. One of the assailants then attacked the girl. Deeter was brought to the Grant county hospital where he died yesterday afternoon.

Bodies Removed.

Shipp, Smith and Cameron were arrested by police at their homes early yesterday, and Sullivan was arrested in an automobile late in the day.

Sheriff Campbell removed the bodies of the negroes from the tree at 6 o'clock this morning. At that hour there were only a few stragglers about the courthouse.

The negro section of the city was quiet, although during the night there was a gathering at which there was criticism of alleged and county officers for alleged failure to protect the prisoners.

Prosecuting Attorney Harley Hardin said this morning he planned no immediate action against members of the mob. Thus far, he said, no one has been identified as having taken part in the lynchings.

Lewis Lindenmuth, Marion police chief, said none of his men had been able to identify anyone connected with the lynchings.

ROGUE ELK

Rogue Elk Hotel, with its genial proprietor and wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McDonald, is the scene of many summer banquets, dinner dances, luncheons and birthday gatherings.

Hotel reservations are filled and many turned away.

Among the notable guests of the week were the Ziegfeld party of New York city. Mr. Ziegfeld, noted movie producer, his wife, Billie Burke, and daughter, with seven others in the party, enjoyed their stay at the hotel. Mr. Ziegfeld was quite enthusiastic over Rogue River fishing and took back with him a 20-pound salmon as a result of his fishing ability.

Another fisherman and writer of note, stopping at the hotel, accompanied by a friend, was James Gray, son of Zane Gray, the well-known author. Mr. Gray left for his home, to return soon, accompanied by his wife, for a prolonged stay, enjoying and praising Rogue River, as the best known fishing stream.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McDonald, well known recently returned travelers, from Europe, Asia, and Africa, are visiting Mr. McDonald's brother, W. G. McDonald, proprietor of Rogue Elk.

Mr. and Mrs. Pessley, from the Pessley studio at Medford, entertained dinner guests recently at the Rogue Elk.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burnam, with Mrs. Noyes and mother, well known Californians, who are spending the summer at their beautiful home on Rogue River, were welcome callers at the hotel recently.

Well, we've read a couple of Mr. Coolidge's columns, but for the life of us we can't see anything funny in his stuff.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

JOHN D. TWOHY, GRANTS PASS R. R. BUILDER, PASSES

A recent picture of the Duchess of York, who is resting in Glamis, Scotland, in expectation of an early visit of the stork.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8.—John D. Twohy, 45, Oregon railroad man, died at St. Mary's hospital here early today of pneumonia after several weeks illness. He was a member of the contracting firm of Twohy brothers and lived for many years in Portland, but recently made his home here.

Twohy was well known in the Pacific northwest as a railroad contractor. In his youth he was known as a football and baseball star at Gonzaga university, Spokane.

He was born in St. Paul, Minn., October 7, 1885. He is survived by his widow, who before her marriage was Genevieve Fish of The Dalles, and by four children, Patricia, Mary Lou, John and Robert.

His mother, Mrs. John Twohy, lives in Los Angeles. Two brothers and two sisters survive him. They are James P. Twohy of Portland and Philip Twohy of Spokane, and Mrs. Frank Martin, San Jose, and Mrs. James McKinney of Los Angeles.

Funeral services will be held from St. Ignace church in San Francisco Monday. Burial will be in the family plot at Santa Cruz, Cal., where his father, the late Judge John Twohy, is buried.

There is no baby food that equals mother's milk. A baby raised on mother's milk has a much better start in life than one raised on the bottle. It has just six times the chance of keeping well and vigorous.

Breast milk is fresh, clean and pure because it is taken at its source. Nature provides that the milk shall reach the nursing without being exposed to the air, and her plan keeps out dirt, germs, flies and fingers.

Breast feeding is cheapest and simplest, easiest and safest, and usually calls for no training. Bottle feeding is not so safe. The modification of the milk to suit the individual baby requires skill and practice; the washing and sterilizing of the bottles take time.

The nursing mother should be careful with her own diet, for the things she eats or drinks affect her milk.

Certain medicines, such as mercury (calomel), headache powders, opium, purgative salts, rhubarb, arsenic, bromides, when taken through the mouth, have after-effects been found in the mother's milk.

If mother's milk is not available, babies should have the best and freshest cow's milk that can be obtained. Whether such milk is to be pasteurized is a question for the doctor to decide in the individual case.

Unless very sure of the supply, the doctor usually will take no chances; he will advise pasteurized milk for the baby, especially in summer time.

D. M. LOWE PREPARING A RECORD EXHIBIT

The Oregon state exhibit in the Western States building will be the largest entered in the California State fair in Sacramento, according to D. M. Lowe, who is arranging the exhibit and spending a short time at his ranch near Medford before returning to California to complete plans for the show.

There will be eight booths in the Oregon exhibit, each devoted to a major industry of the state. The products to be featured are fruit, flax, vegetables, honey, wheat and other grains, dairy products, game and minerals.

Special Free Offer Schilling's Products

Medford shoppers tomorrow will have another of the attractive specials offered from time to time by Schilling's on their popular products, that can be had at the Medford grocers.

With every purchase of Schilling's coffee a jar of prepared mustard sauce will be given free. With each purchase of tea a bottle of vanilla extract will be given free and with the purchase of baking powder a can of black pepper will be presented the purchaser. Each purchaser will also be given an 80-page book of "Flavor Secrets," prepared by Schilling's.

WM. CHAMBERS, JACKSON COUNTY PIONEER PASSES

William Chambers passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. P. W. Foster, in Hill, Cal., Thursday, August 7, at 11:40 p. m., after a short illness. Mr. Chambers was born in Douglas county, Missouri, December 6, 1863, and was aged at death 66 years, 8 months and 1 day.

In 1882 he, with his parents, crossed the plains by ox team from Missouri, taking some time for the trip, and they arrived and settled in the Rogue River valley near Central Point, Ore. Deceased was one of Jackson county's oldest pioneers, having lived here for 72 years; a very sturdy built man, with keen intellect and foresight, even for his 91 years. He was always for community development and helped very much to settle this part of the state. He remained for a few years from Crescent City to Jacksonville.

Mr. Chambers was married to Mary Wilson in 1862 at Jacksonville, his wife passing away May 1, 1924. He leaves the following children: Five daughters and two sons: Mrs. Ida Tuttle of Tucson, Ariz.; Mrs. Florence Spower of Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Eva Bateman of Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Wattie Turpin of Medford, Ore.; Mrs. Myrtle Foster of Hill, Cal.; J. W. Chambers of Klamath Falls, and W. H. Chambers of Butte Falls.

The funeral services will be conducted from the Perl Funeral Home, Sunday, August 10, at 2 p. m. Interment in the family plot in the Jacksonville cemetery.

NUDE CULTS ARE FREQUENT ALONG FRENCH RIVIERA

ST. MAXIME, France.—(AP)—With the arrival of summer nude cults began springing up like mushrooms in southern France. Already four have been located between Toulon and the Italian border.

Several years ago the police took action against a colony that occupied the top of a mountain behind Cannes. The German doctor who headed the colony was heavily fined and his 40 followers were given a fortnight to leave France. They started for Haiti where they were told the winters would be less rigorous.

The new colonies live behind high walls surrounding huge estates and in two cases have private beaches.

Bathing "in the raw" is a common night time diversion all along the Riviera. One group was surprised in the water one moonlight night by three men and the host had to pay a hundred francs before the intruders would leave.

CHINESE RULED IN PHILIPPINES LONG AGE AGO

MANILA.—(AP)—Ancient Chinese records which indicate that the Philippines were under Chinese sway more than 500 years before the "discovery" of the islands by Magellan in 1521, have been found by Verne Dyson, professor of history at the University of the Philippines.

Dr. Dyson went to Canton and also to Hong Kong searching for evidence in the old Chinese records of the early relations between the ancient empire and the islands.

"The earliest date showing communication between the Philippines and China is 982 A.D.," said Dr. Dyson. "The Chinese chronicles state that in that year traders from Manila visited Canton. In addition there are records that the islands sent tribute to China long before the appearance of Magellan."

Professor Dyson also found at Canton records showing that early in the Ming dynasty, beginning about 1495 A.D., several of the larger islands in the Philippines were ruled by Chinese officials. These governors held sway for 50 years or more and most of them seem to have been Cantonese.
