

THE Studebaker Six

The world's oldest manufacturer of individual transportation vehicles invites your attention to this excellent car, at a low price

Character: Studebaker quality throughout

Power: 70 horsepower motor

Size: 114-inch wheelbase, ample foundation for comfort

Comfort: It is a delight

Price: $895 at South Bend for the 5-passenger sedan

You can depend on this car because of the name it bears

O. V. Myers Co.
132 So. Riverside Phone 464

Society

Two Christmas League Parties

Two Christmas parties are to be given by the Girls' league of the senior high school. One will be given in the afternoon for poor children of the city, and the other during the evening for members of the league. A bazaar will be conducted in connection with the latter.

A meeting of the league was held yesterday afternoon, and the following committees were appointed: Decorations, Louise Bronzner, Colista Johnson, Ruth Cowgill, Lucille Crucher, Beatrice Bedford, Alice Prock and Irene Gale; program, Helen Wood, Verna Forncrook, Louise Hill, Gene Amidon, Madge Croft and Wilda Howitt; refreshments, Helen Williams, Jeanne Hamilton, Dorothy Lee and Helen Power.

Afternoon party: Mrs. Evelyn Grimmett, Mary Chambers, Edna Mae White, Joan Stoeb, Rowena Perdue, Ruth Ottoman and Doris Schaffer; entertainment, Lucille Murray, Gertrude Amidon, Maxine Bannister, Virginia Fredenburg, Aileen Guy and Frances Laine; invitations, Ruth Hanson, Pearl Samuelson, Harriet Frey, Helen Ball, Isabel Fisher, Fawcett Nalting, and Lucille Edson; soliciting, Alice Westfield, Frances Maguin, Ona Hendrickson, June Hooker, Erna Niedermeyer and Dorothy Meyer.

Center Lake Guild is Entertained Howard Home

Mrs. W. W. Howard was hostess last evening at her home, 1507 West Main street, to members of Center Lake Guild of the First Presbyterian church. Assisting her as hostess were Mrs. S. Ralph Dippel, Miss Marvlei Bliss and Miss Gertrude Butler.

Devotionals were led by Miss Elizabeth Burr. The subject for the year being Women of the Bible, Miss Burr chose as her character the mother of Moses.

Following the devotionals Miss Butler entertained the guests with a review of her visit in Oberammergau, last summer during which she attended the Passion Play. She also showed pictures of her travels in Germany.

Several contests were held for the amusement of the guests and a lovely group of songs, sung by Mrs. Elsie Carlton Strang. They were "The Lord is My Shepherd," arrangement by Booth, and "My Lord and My Redeemer" by Buck. At the close of the program refreshments were served by the hostess and her assistants.

Dr. and Mrs. Dippel Entertain

Honoring their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Chase and two daughters of Eugene, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Dippel entertained with three tables of bridge Saturday evening.

Prizes for high scores were awarded Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Winters.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase and daughters, who were in Medford for the holiday and week end, returned to their home in the northern city Sunday.

Luncheon and Cards Enjoyed by Past Matrons

Fifteen past matrons of Reunions chapter, O. E. S., attended the luncheon yesterday afternoon at the Hotel Medford. The holiday spirit was evidenced in the colorful table decorations of red carnations and red tapers. Following luncheon cards were enjoyed at the Masonic hall.

The committee responsible for the pleasant affair was composed of Mesdames Helen Minkler, Mary Mathes and W. H. Merritt.

Garden Club Will Meet Thursday

A meeting of the Medford Garden club has been called for Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Hotel Medford. The regular business meeting will be followed by a lecture at 8 o'clock to which the public is invited. The lecture will be given by Prof. E. A. Cuthbert of Oregon State college, who has chosen as his subject, "Landscaping." The lecture will be illustrated with slides.

Mrs. Grezove Will Return East

Mrs. Martin Grezove, who has been a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter for the past two weeks, will leave tomorrow for her home in Madison, N. C. While here Mrs. Grezove has been the inspiration for several delightful social affairs.

.. ISIS .. THEATRE

TODAY and Wednesday

His burning kisses suddenly revealed to her that she loved her husband after all. But could she go back to him and her child—within the confining walls of that lonely lighthouse? Was love more than merely kisses—after all? SEE this amazing drama with its stormy emotions!

Special Children's Matinee Price 5c
Continuous Shows Saturday and Sunday 12:30 to 11 P. M.
Matinee Week Days 1:30 P. M. Eve. 7 P. M.
All Talkie Short Subjects 10c and 20c

Imman-Bohner Wedding Sunday

A lovely event of Sunday evening at the First Christian church at Central Point was the wedding of Miss Edith Imman and John Bohner. The ceremony was read at 8 o'clock by Rev. D. E. Millard, pastor of the church, in the presence of a group of relatives and friends.

An arch of white trellis work, from which hung a large wedding veil of yellow and white, banked with green, led to the altar, which was lighted with yellow and white tapers.

Miss Fern Hathaway and Mrs. Otto Bohner sang, preceding the ceremony. Mrs. Leonard Freeman played the wedding march. Little Miss Ariene Imman led the bridal party and lighted the candles at the altar. Dorothy Imman, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor and Call Hoyer was the groom's attendant.

The bride was dressed in a white georgette gown and veil, and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. She entered the church on the arm of Mr. Tracy, who gave her in marriage.

The bride and groom are well known here. Miss Imman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy and had lived here for some time before making her home in Medford.

Mr. Bohner has grown to manhood here and is a graduate of the Central Point high school.

Football Awards Dance is Friday

Committee meetings were held yesterday afternoon at the senior high school for those in charge of the football awards dance to be given Friday evening at the senior high school.

The dance is very informal, and sport clothes will be in order. Jean Whitman, president of the organization, announced that it would not be necessary to have dates for the affair.

Anyone wishing to attend will be required to obtain tickets previous to Friday at the senior high school.

Rummage Sale Plans Are Completed

At a lovely catered dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Fish last evening plans for the rummage sale to be held by St. Mark's Guild Saturday in the Palm building, were completed.

The sale will include carbed felt as well as clothes for all members of the family and some very fine things will be offered. The members of the Guild have been working enthusiastically for several weeks on arrangements for the annual event.

Christmas Dance Planned by Eagles

A large Christmas party for the public is being planned by the Fraternal Order of Eagles. The party will be held in the Dreamland ballroom Christmas night. Officers and members of the order are citying much of their time to plans for the dance, and it is expected to be one of the leading affairs of the holiday season.

Friday, December 12th, is the next social night on the Eagles' program and all members are urged to come and bring their friends.

Shrine Dancing Party Scheduled for Tonight

Tonight will be a gala night for Shriners and their ladies for the annual card party and dance which introduces the holiday social season for the order will be held at the Medford army. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock and all Shriners of Hillah temple, visiting nobles and their ladies are invited.

The army has been attractively decorated in holiday attire for the occasion, and an eight-piece dance orchestra employed.

Guests of Andersons

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Anderson enjoyed Thanksgiving at their home on the Applegate river next evening. Those present were Mrs. Helen McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Robinson and daughter Jane, Dr. and Mrs. Walsh of Seattle, Wash., and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Peterson and sons, Raymond, Earl and Harold.

Study Club Meets Tomorrow

The Wednesday study club members have announced as the topic for tomorrow's meeting "The Soviet Experiment." The subject will be introduced by Mrs. Williams.

A book review will be given by Mrs. Altha Vawter and current events by Mrs. Harding.

Lady Lions Meet At Hotel Holland

Members of the Lady Lions club will meet at the Hotel Holland for 11 o'clock luncheon tomorrow afternoon. Luncheon will be followed by cards at the home of Mrs. Allen Smith, 1936 Queen Anne. Mrs. Smith will be assisted as hostess by Mrs. Goodwin Humphreys.

B. & P. W. Party Tonight

Mrs. Hudson is entertaining members of the local Business and Professional Women's club with a novelty party at her home this evening.

Exhibitors to Have Pot-lick Supper

Pythian Sisters will give a pot-lick supper Wednesday evening at the K. P. hall at 6:30. Following the supper, regular temple meeting and election of officers will be held.

Mrs. Bryant Home From Visit North

Mrs. B. H. Bryant has returned from a three weeks' visit in Portland, Salem and Eugene. While in the northern part of the state she was much entertained by friends and was honor guest at

DOLLS! DOLLS!

Big dolls... little dolls... baby dolls... lady dolls
Come to see them all in TOYLAND.

This year the dolls are more beautiful than ever! Lovable babies with dimpled cheeks and chubby arms and legs... when they cry no little mother will be able to resist them! Young lady dolls, too... very smart in their pastel tinted organdie dresses and bonnets to match. Come in... the dolls want to show you their new clothes... and to help you decide what kind of a doll you want for Christmas. Mothers already know that the J. C. Penney Store is famous for doll values.

J. C. PENNEY CO., INC.

COMMISSION CHAIRMAN PLANNING RETIREMENT

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 2. — (AP) — Frank J. Miller, chairman of the Public Service commission, has let it be known that he will retire from the commission after January 1 and will not seek reappointment either by Governor Norblad or by Governor-elect Meier when the latter takes office.

HEAR SALEM REQUEST FOR SANTIAM WATER

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 2. — (AP) — The application of the city of Salem for authority to appropriate water rights from North Santiam river and Marion lake for the purpose of establishing a municipal light and power plant will be before the state reclamation commission for hearing tomorrow.

Tonight
Evening Only one Performance at 8:15
No Matinee at the Holy Today

HOLLY

Lavrette and Niedermeyer

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS PLAY
"The Goose Hangs High"
A THREE-ACT PLAY BY LEWIS BEACH
PRESENTED BY
MEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL
PRICES 75c & $1.00 — SEATS NOW ON SALE
NOTE: Loge seats not on sale. Reserved for High School Faculty and Parents of Members of the Glee.

THEY'LL BE HERE FOR 4 DAYS Tomorrow

AMOS 'N' ANDY

ON THE SCREEN

Miracle Stars of Radio... Idols of Millions... In Their First Feature Motion Picture—

CHECK AND DOUBLE CHECK

ALL THE CHARACTERS OF THE RADIO OUT-SHINING THEIR BRILLIANCE IN A LAUGH-PACKED ROMANCE!

SUE CAROL IRENE RICH ALSO Selected Short Subjects

NO ADVANCE IN PRICES

Children	MATINEE	10c	Children	EVENING	25c
Adults		35c	Adults		50c

PRE-HOLIDAY DANCE PLANNED BY LEGION

One of the biggest pre-holiday dances this season will be given Thursday night, December 4, at the Oriental Gardens under the auspices of the American Legion, Medford Post No. 15.

The committee in charge is busy arranging special features to make this dance the really big event of the month. Music will be furnished by Don Provost's popular "Ten Peddlers," and preparations are under way to entertain a record crowd.

LAMPOR CAPTURES TRAP SHOOT HONORS

At a shoot that attracted quite a crowd of trapshooters to the Medford Gun club grounds last Sunday, Ed Lamport won the Medford Challenge trophy that had been won the previous Sunday by T. J. Enright on an added bird handicap. The trophy will rotate among the winners and will be won at each shoot. There is considerable interest in the competition and handicaps have been so arranged as to give all shooters, experienced and inexperienced, equal chances for winning.

YEGGS GET BIG HAUL IN ANNAPOLIS POSTOFFICE

ANNAPOLIS, Maryland, Dec. 2. — (AP) The Annapolis postoffice was robbed last night of stamps and currency expected to total $10,000 by a group of men, who according to officers, worked undisturbed in the place with the lights on. The vault was cut through with an acetylene torch.

SEVERAL CLUBS. In Portland she was guest of Mrs. C. N. Davis, one of the Gold Star mothers of Oregon, who recently visited in France. She also visited Rev. and Mrs. J. E. McDonald, formerly of this city, who are now making their home at Falls City, near Salem.

AIR QUEEN

She'll adore this Shock-proof WESTFIELD

Not only this Christmas but for many years to come. For Westfield beauty is enduring beauty — and Westfield accuracy can only be appreciated as the years prove its dependability...

The exquisite Air Queen, complete with new style mesh hand-casts only $17.75

Many other beautiful models at $9.75—$12.75—$17.75

Brophy's JEWELERS MEDFORD, ORE.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING GETS RESULTS