

PENN HELPLESS BEFORE ATTACK OF NAVY SQUAD

FRANKLIN FIELD, Philadelphia, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Navy set a string of storm signals for all of Army to see today as a surprising versatile squad of midshipmen battered and passed Pennsylvania's fair eleven into submission before an enthusiastic crowd of 60,000.

Whipped four times this season, rated hardly a formidable rival for the powerful cadets in the charity climax of the eastern campaign in New York next Saturday, Navy pulled the plug on an amazingly potent offense and smothered the Quakers 25 to 0.

The score might have been twice that large if the midshipmen had chosen to take chances instead of kicking and waiting for scores until they all but dropped in their laps.

So completely was Navy in complete command of the situation without the aid of a single marine, that the Pennsylvania team that scored 29 points in the Notre Dame rout got just three first downs and gained only 15 yards more than it lost from scrimmage. Two desperate passes, one complete because of interference, and a 12-yard run by Captain Dick Gentile on a fake kick from behind his own goal line provided the entire Pennsylvania offense for the afternoon.

DIEGEL, ESPINOSA GO TO FINALS IN OPEN MATCH PLAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Leo Diegel, Agass Caliente professional, and Al Espinosa of Chicago, swept into the finals of the national open match play golf championship with semi-final victories on the Lakeside links of the San Francisco Olympic club today.

Diegel eliminated George Von Elm of Detroit one up, while Espinosa defeated Joe Ear of Chicago by a margin of 3 and 2.

Diegel went into an early lead in his match with Von Elm winning the second hole and the sixth to be two up at the turn. Von Elm cut the lead to one by taking the eleventh, but Diegel won the twelfth when Von Elm's approach to the green went into some trees. The next three holes were halved at par and Von Elm came back to win the sixteenth and seventeenth with par fives to tie the match.

Diegel took the 18th with a par 4 to Von Elm's 5, however, and took the match.

Espinosa had an easier time of it with Ear. He won the third hole with a par 3, the eighth with a birdie 2 when Ear's putt knocked his ball into the cup and the ninth with a par 4 to hold a lead of 3 up at the turn.

Espinosa and Diegel will meet tomorrow for the championship.

KRUSE TO MEET STRACK ON BILL

Wrestling fans have a big night in store for them at the armory next Wednesday night when Bob Kruse, Portland, wrestles Charlie Strack, Omaha, in finish match. A fast special event will present Ray Frisbie, Medford's fast rising wrestler, with Gabby Smith, husky, rough Seattle matman.

Strack is not an old veteran at the wrestling game but he is plenty good and he has proved his mettle by throwing some of the best heavyweights in the world. He was mentioned on Walter Camp's all-American football team and he was good at this game. While still in college he began taking up wrestling and soon he was attracting wide attention at the swath he was cutting in the amateurs. He had the distinction of winning the national championship in 1924 and 1926. He was on the United States Olympic team in 1924 and 1928.

After this he began taking up wrestling as a profession and soon was throwing the best of them.

A big match between Dr. Karl Sarpolis and another of the great boys is in the light if the fans will just get out and support the matches that are now being presented. The fans in Medford are seeing just as good if not better matches than those that are being put on in Portland.

HURRICANE AND CYCLONE BEATEN

TULSA, Okla., Dec. 6.—(AP)—The heretofore unconquered University of Tulsa eleven was trampled here today by a fighting bank or red-skin warriors from Haskell Indian institute of Lawrence, who won the prized scalp by a decisive 24-7 victory.

Led by Louis (Little Rabbit) Weller, who reeled off many a sensational d.a.b., the Haskell tribe counted touchdowns in rapid fire order after the initial period. The onslaught was a terrific one, far too much for the touted Tulsians.

TROJANS IN TITLE GAME OUTCLASSED

Through the greater share of the fourth quarter's gloom and advancing dusk, Notre Dame kept the ball deep in Southern California domain, hard put to score, the visitors launched a passing attack which Hanley quickly stemmed on the S. C.'s 23-yard line. Nicholas Lukats, a substitute Rockne back, put the finishing touches to the affair by scoring from there on a clever reverse.

With Duffield gone and the highly praised Mohler also out of the picture, Blanchard Beatty, third string Troy quarter, started down the field. He work put the ball on the Raiders' 25-yard line as the encounter ended.

The victors' passes, well timed, found sure fingered receivers in the open on four occasions out of 12 attempts, while S. C. made good on four of their 16 tries. The interceptions told the story for Notre Dame intercepted five to one for Troy.

O'Connor covered 109 yards in ten runs for an average of 10.9 yards. Schwartz in a dozen charges stepped off 109 yards for an 8.8 average.

The Rough Riders made 16 first downs to 8 for Jones' eleven. Just how badly S. C.'s offense failed and how unerring was that of the invaders is shown in the fact that Notre Dame ran up a total of 123 yards against 140.

Only in the punting was Southern California superior. The Trojans had an average of ten yards superiority in the kicking.

Line-up and summary.

GEORGIA TRIMS TECH; CARNEGIE DOWNS OLD JINX

ATLANTA, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Butteted around all season, the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets displayed unsuspected strength in their final game here today to hold a raging Georgia Bulldog eleven to a 13-0 score in their annual game on Grant field.

Stopped for nearly half the game by a Georgia Tech stand and the wet and slippery condition of the field the Bulldogs elicited effectively behind their dual axes, Austin Downes and Jack Roberts, in the closing minutes of the first half and hammered across a touchdown with Downes scoring on an end run of 10 yards.

Georgia's second touchdown came midway in the last period as Tusculobus recovered a Tech fumble on Tech's 47-yard line and the Bulldogs began another tremendous march which ended as Downes flipped a pass over the goal line to Smith.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Harry McCurdy convinced the Redskins as to his quarterback abilities today by his spark plug role in Carnegie Tech's 26-0 gridiron conquest of a former Tazian Jinx, Washington and Jefferson.

A 60-yard advance, in which every Tech back did his bit, netted the touchdown which opened the productive final season. Fullback Kareis banged his way thru guard for the last four yards.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Loyola of the south defeated the heavier Detroit team 9 to 6 today in a charity football game. Loyola made the first touchdown against Detroit's second string men and missed two other touchdowns against the varsity by inches but got two points on a safety when Detroit attempted a pass. Detroit scored a touchdown in the last quarter but missed the extra point.

FAIRFIELD STADIUM, Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 6.—(AP)—Bobby Dodd and Buddy Hackman crowned their brilliant Southern conference career with added haloes of glory here today as Tennessee bowled over a great Florida offensive 14 to 6.

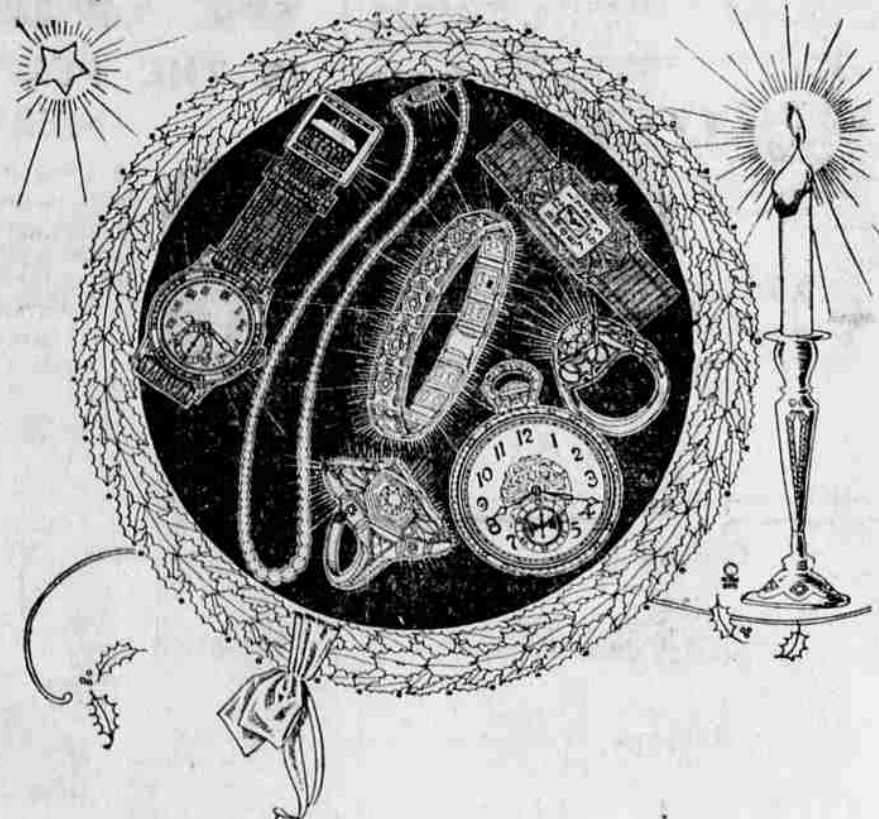

BALTIMORE, Dec. 6.—(AP)—Luther Western Maryland's unbeaten football team put a fourth period offensive today, 45 yards of which was for a touchdown, and won the state championship by defeating University of Maryland 7 to 0. It was Western Maryland's 27th game without a defeat.
