Reverend Porter Talks to P. T. A.
At Friday's meeting of the Jackson Parent-Teacher association, a president and treasurer were elected to fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of Mrs. O. C. Nichols, who recently left for Kinship Falls, and Mrs. L. W. Loomis, now in Illinois. Mrs. Fred Purdin was unanimously elected to fill the president's chair, and Mrs. A. Short, the treasurer.

With the approaching holidays, Mrs. Dyan's program was much in order. It included Christmas carols, sung by the pupils of Mrs. Jeanie Laddley's room.

Duet, by Bobbie and Kenneth Raymond, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Raymond.

Concluded with a Christmas message by Rev. C. B. Porter. It was very interesting and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

He also spoke on plans under way whereby a clearing house, as he called it, for all organizations now doing relief, and which could be formed, and asked that the Parent-Teacher association co-operate in this movement.

Mr. Gustin, speaking of tuberculosis, told the group of the case of young girl, at one time a victim of tuberculosis, who is now back in school.

Mrs. Isaacs, Hostess To Club Committee.
Plans for the Christmas party to be given Thursday, December 18, by the local Business and Professional Women's club were outlined last night at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Edna Isaacs.

An old-fashioned children's program is being arranged and each member is asked to bring a 15 cent gift to the party and a bag of practical food, such as cereal, rice, potatoes or flour to be distributed to the poor at Christmas time.

Santa Claus will be present to take charge of the Christmas tree. It will be held at the Y. W. C. A. building.

Following the business meeting last evening the committee members were guests of Mrs. Isaacs at supper at Hanson's. Whatnot. Those present were Mrs. Mary Bierma, Miss Lucy Davis, Miss Elda Gholson, Miss Katherine Howard, Mrs. Winnie Washburn, Miss Winifred Walker, Miss Olive Parker, Miss Elsie Brown and Miss Louise Compton. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Pearl McCredie and Mrs. Lynetta Goodwin.

Work on Messiah Progressing Well.
Another rehearsal of the Messiah was held last evening in St. Mark's church with the greater part of the rehearsal period devoted to work of the chorus of 55 members. The cast will be well prepared for the presentation of the oratorio on December 18th at the Holy Theatre, according to Mrs. V. H. Daske, who is directing it.

Soloists who take the leads in the beautiful Christmas production are Mrs. Elsie Carlton Strang, soprano; Mrs. Margaret Hinton, Williamson, contralto; R. E. Waldron, tenor; and Harold Corlies, bass.

The Medford high school orchestra of 20 members, directed by F. Wilson Walt, will play the unusual orchestration, which accompany this wonderful composition of Handel's.

In connection with the oratorio the Holy Theatre is offering on the screen a travelogue of the Holy Land, which will bring a more realistic atmosphere to the Yuletide program.

B. P. W. Club Meets This Evening.
Members of the Business and Professional Women's club will meet this evening at the Y. W. C. A. for a business session and birthday party. All members with birthdays in November and December are asked to bring presents for the birthday fund. Mrs. Grace Young is chairman of the event.

Music Teachers to Meet at Gore Studio.
The December meeting of the Medford-Ashland chapter of the Oregon Music Teachers' association will be held this evening in the studio of Mrs. E. B. Gore. An interesting feature of the program will be a dance revue by pupils of Miss Ruth Marie Lay.

MOTHER POINTS RIFLE AT SON; IT WAS LOADED

ALBANY, N. Y., Dec. 9.—(AP)—Tearfully admitting she killed her 13-year-old son, Thomas, at their home in Medusa today, Mrs. William Donohue 34, told county officers she did it "because he tantalized me."

"I only did it to scare him," the mother told the officers, then she related how the boy had refused to do a household chore this morning, finally running out of the house.

She said she seized a rifle, pointed it at him as he ran and shouted, "Tommy, come here this minute or I'll use this."

"Go ahead; I dare you to," the boy answered, according to the mother's story.

The mother then raised the rifle to her shoulder and fired, Tommy fell.

ROTARIANS WILL BOOST GRIDIRON BALL FOR BOYS

The Medford Rotary club held one of the largest meetings of the season this noon with nearly 100 percent attendance of local members. A report of last week's Rotary dance was heard and Chairman Jas. Lively was commended for his efforts in putting over such an enjoyable party.

William Bolger announced final plans for the football banquet Thursday night in honor of the Medford high school football squads and coaching staff, urging every Rotarian to attend and to buy a ticket for one of the guests.

A large number of tickets were sold during the luncheon indicating a good representation of Rotary members Thursday night.

Today's program was devoted to talk on "Outdoor advertising" by C. L. MacDonald, manager of the Medford branch of Foster & Kleiser.

Rotarian MacDonald stated that there were five recognized mediums of effective advertising, namely newspapers, magazines, outdoor bulletins, radio and direct mail.

In covering his subject he told of the development of outdoor advertising from an income of four million dollars in 1900 to ninety-five million dollars in 1928 and gave some of the reasons for this remarkable growth.

The Medford branch of Foster & Kleiser handles five counties including Jackson, Josephine, Klamath, Douglas and Coos and maintains a substantial payroll in this community. Examples of civic and community work were cited by the speaker who also told of national campaigns carried on by the Outdoor Advertising association.

Guests at the meeting included Jim Barker of the Ashland Rotary club, A. O. Schenck of Nebraska, father of Orin Schenck, treasurer of the Medford Rotary club and Lon Centro of Portland.

PRICE OF BREAD WILL BE PROBED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—(AP)—The justice department has instituted an investigation into the price of bread to "ascertain the reason for the spread between the price of raw material and the finished product."

Attorney General Mitchell revealed the move today. He said the inquiry was initiated by the department without suggestion from any source.

ENDURING FATIGUE IN MID-AFTERNOON IS NOT ADVISABLE

Fagged System Invites Sickness, Inefficiency—Renew Vigor by Eating a Sweet

Medical investigations show that daily fatigue not only makes the system susceptible to illness and organic troubles, but also lessens one's efficiency. Tired people, especially those engaged in office and stores, have difficulty in concentrating or "keeping awake" on the job.

Most business people find that four o'clock is their zero hour as far as vitality is concerned. To renew vigor at this time, many men and women take a moment to eat or drink something sweet. The results are surprising—almost instantly fatigue is overcome.

Medical men and food scientists who have experimented along these lines say that the renewed vigor is caused by the refined sugar in the food or beverage. Sugar nourishes the body very quickly and when this occurs fatigue disappears.

Americans, it is said, are more subject to business fatigue than any other nationality. However, American workers can quickly get candy, ice cream, cakes and beverages everywhere. A glass of water sweetened with sugar—the "athletic cocktail"—is reviving. Most foods are more delicious and nourishing with refined sugar. The Sugar Institute.

Ideas of Medford In 1980 Show Wide Variance Tho All Predict Big Progress

Ideas of what the city of Medford will be in 1980 are coming to the Mail Tribune office in increased numbers today with the opening of the picture, "Just Imagine" at the Fox Craterian theatre. Many improvements are forecast for southern Oregon, but they don't measure up to those suggested in the motion picture, a preview of which was attended by the press last night.

What the world has become in "Just Imagine" isn't going to be revealed here, for much of the fun of the picture would be destroyed for the audience if all the inventions and feats of science were known in advance. In addition to being an interesting forecast of the world's next great exploration "Just Imagine" is a rollicking comedy, which goes to prove that people will still be expected to have a sense of humor in 1980 and will continue to fall in love. Among the many lists of substitutes offered, the author of "Just Imagine" has failed to find "a substitute for women."

And, sad as the news may be to many people, the 18th amendment is still on the books—but it isn't enforced with any more rigor than in 1930.

As to what Medford will be in 1980, here are some suggestions. The authors will attend the picture as guests of the Mail Tribune. Suggestions will be received during the picture's run at the Craterian and tickets given the authors of all ideas published:

Medford in 1980 will have two railroads, one terminating on the coast. Automatic traffic signals on all corners of the business section. Many more dairy ranches in place of orchards and home sites between Central Point and Phoenix making this territory all of Medford, with an electric car line from Grants Pass to Ashland.

We will be a city of 100,000, with beautiful parks and homes. Our sawmills will be replaced by large manufacturing plants, electrically propelled. Providing Earl Felt is never elected mayor.

HAROLD HARTZELL, 1716 East Main.

Medford in 1980 will still be a thriving and business center, embracing as suburbs Jacksonville, Central Point and Phoenix. Commercial commodities will be moved by mono-rail or rocket planes. Weird looking machines roam the orchards picking the world's best fruits. Buildings hundreds of feet high will be of aerop design and very plain but symmetrical. Civilian transportation will be by autogyro or tiny streamlined cars.

ARRANGE DOLL DANCE AT ORIENTAL GARDENS

There have been songs written about the doll dance, but a treat is in store for Medford when such dance will actually take place next Saturday night at the Oriental Gardens. A large number of pink, baby-faced dolls will be suspended from the ceiling of the pavilion, and during the course of the evening they will be lowered one by one and dancers will have an opportunity to grab them. Music for the party will be furnished by Dom Provost's Pep Peddlers.
