THE HOME OF BREAD LIKE MOTHER MADE

With Christmas comes the eating of more sweets—especially by the little folks. And the best is none too good—with that in mind we again offer Krause's pure candies—candies of quality; quality you have learned to know over the past ten years.

As usual the price is low—buying thousands of pounds—our cost is reduced and with candy as with all other foods it costs no more to be sure of quality.

With oranges there's another good reason for getting the best—usually, many are kept over the holiday season—and the keeping quality is very important.—That's why we bought hundreds of cases of the finest quality Sunkist—California's best oranges.

We've told you often that "It costs no more to be sure of quality"—An inspection of our candy and oranges will best serve to prove this claim.
