

MUCH BUSINESS BEFORE COUNCIL AS REIGN WANES

The life of the present city administration is nearing an end with the approach of the new year, and while the city council meeting for next Tuesday night will be the last regular one for that body, at least two more special meetings will probably be held to close up the affairs of the present administration...

TUMOR ON BRAIN MAY TAKE LIFE OF MEDFORD BOY

Charles Nabbs, Jr., the little boy who has been fighting a blind battle for life since the first of June, when his eyes looked upon a dark world which has never brightened, is critically ill at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nabbs of the Crater Lake highway...

News of the Community

St. Mark's Episcopal, Corner Oakdale and Fifth St. 8 a. m., Holy communion. 10 a. m., Sunday school. 11:15 a. m., Holy communion. Wm. B. Hamilton.

Comedy Stars in Sunday Holly Show

Ken Murray and Eddie Foy, Jr., spill an earful to Irene Dunn in "Leatherneeking." Five nationally known players vie for comedy honors in Radio Pictures' "Leatherneeking," which will open tomorrow at the Holly theatre.

WILD BEAUTY by MATEEL HOWE FARNHAM

SYNOPSIS: David Frost's mother is invisible when he marries Fanny Frisby, whom she considers unworthy to touch the proud Frost name. David gets a new job and takes Fanny to a restaurant and his mother's influence eventually forces him to return to his mother's home and bring his wife back to the ancestral home.

Chapter 16 FANNY WINS WASHINGTON FANNY took to the luxury of Juliette's home like a cat to cream, but she never got over the thrill of having her bath drawn and scented, her breakfast brought to her bedside.

ORGANIZATION TO ASSIST GOVERNOR IN POWER PLANS

An organization in Los Angeles, with headquarters in room 487, Chamber of Commerce building, called The Oregon (an abbreviation of Oregon Information Bureau), its membership composed entirely of former and present residents of Oregon, wants applications (with-out obligation) for three "social" and three "commercial" and three "dilectate" members from each of the 36 counties of Oregon.

OLD JOY ORCHARD BECOMES MEMORY

"One of the landmarks in the Bellview district for many years, the A. C. Joy peach orchard, is being pulled out," says the Ashland "Herald." This orchard was set out nearly 50 years ago by the late Chas. Loomis. Mr. Loomis as a boy helped to clear the land and set out the trees.

RUMOR RICH STRIKE AT OLD TOWN MINE

Rumors from Jacksonville today said George Schrupp found a valuable gold pocket in the Old Town mine last night. Efforts to confirm the report were unavailing this afternoon, but Jacksonville residents say they understood there was from four to five thousand dollars of gold in sight.

BURGLARS BREAK LOCK WOOD LUMBER OFFICE

Breaking a lock on a warehouse door, burglars entered the Woods Lumber company office last night and stole a small amount of cash. They did not disturb the office in any extent and seemed to know what they were after. They are said to have helped themselves to a supply of candy that was on the office desk.

BIRTHDAY DINNER AT TRACY HOME IN TOLO

TOLO, Ore., Dec. 13.—(Sp.)—Mrs. P. A. Tracy celebrated her birthday last Saturday, having at dinner in the evening her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Bohmert and Donald Applegate as a guest of her son Edward.

PRIZE LETTER BY LOCAL DRUGGIST

Keith Fennell of Heath's drug store was notified today that he had been awarded fourth prize in the nation for a letter written on "Planned Selling," in connection with a campaign for the sale of B. F. Goodrich rubber sundry goods. The prize carries with it a cash award of $100 and means more favorable publicity for Medford and southern Oregon.

"Tom Sawyer" Closes at Fox Craterian

Hundreds of children, and hundreds more who used to be children, thrilled to the oft-told but deathless adventures of Tom and Huck, Becky and Aunt Polly, Injun Joe and Muff Potter at the Fox Craterian theater yesterday when "Tom Sawyer," Mark Twain's classic of childhood, opened there for a two days' stay.

VOLUNTEERS SEEK GIFTS FOR NEEDY

Three red chimneys have been placed on local down-town streets by the Volunteers of America, in order that money can be taken in to aid the needy at Christmas. These are located on the corner of Sixth and Central, in front of Montgomery Ward and Co., and in front of the F. W. Woolworth store.

Meteorological Report

Table with columns for Local Data, Forecasts, and City. Includes temperature, precipitation, and weather conditions for various cities like Baker City, Bend, and Medford.

"Tol'able David" at Fox ialto Sunday

"Tol'able David," Joseph Herzsog's greatest story, which was brought to the talking screen by Columbia Pictures, opens at the Fox Ialto theater tomorrow. The story is concerned with mountaineers' feuds, back hill hates and the beautiful romance of two unsophisticated youngsters still in their teens.

TABLE ROCK

TABLE ROCK, Ore., Dec. 13.—(Special)—The rain Wednesday has put a stop for the time being to all farming work in this section. A meeting of the school board was held Monday evening at the home of the school, Mrs. F. R. Myers. It was decided to have two weeks' vacation during the holidays, school closing December 23, until after New Year's.

WAGNER CREEK WOMEN IN MEET WEDNESDAY

WAGNER CREEK, Ore., Dec. 13. (Sp.)—There will be an all-day meeting in the basement of the Wagner Creek schoolhouse December 17. Mrs. Mabel Mack, county demonstrator, will assist in making Christmas presents. She asks each person to bring newspaper, paste-board boxes, pencils, paper and scissors. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon.

TOLO TURKEYS STOLEN FROM COOLING RACKS

TOLO, Ore., Dec. 13.—(Sp.)—The Webb brothers had the misfortune recently to have about 35 picked turkeys stolen from where they had them hanging, to cool over night, before shipping.

MORNING NEWSPAPER ON FINANCIAL ROCKS

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Dec. 13.—(Sp.)—The Knoxville Journal company, publishers of the Knoxville Journal, morning newspaper, went into receivership in chancery court today.

Sunday Dinner Hotel Medford Dinner $1.00

"The Food Is Better" at The Medford

J. M. DODGE 519 King St.

You are invited to present this coupon at the Mail Tribune office and receive two

FREE TICKETS TO A TALKING PICTURE PROGRAM AT THE

FOX PALTO

MAIL TRIBUNE

WATCH THIS SPACE. If you are a subscriber of the Mail Tribune your name may appear here tomorrow. Only subscribers' names will be published and, during the duration of this offer, all subscribers will be given an opportunity to enjoy FREE shows as GUESTS OF THIS PAPER.

NOW PLAYING "The Concentratin' Kid"

Advertisement for 'LEATHERNECKING' Radio SEVEN STAR Picture. Includes text about the film, showtimes, and ticket prices. Also mentions 'THE BAD MAN' and 'THE MESSIAH'.