New Pupil
 Lloyd Bjork, 1-A, came from the Stockton, Calif., schools.

Health Average
 Our per cent for the week was 93.3.

English Essays
 The pupils of Miss Lynch's class are writing Christmas stories. The following are some of the best: "We, the people of 1830 have so many privileges we are sometimes thoughtless of the suffering which went on in 1776. So for a moment let us glance at their Christmas."
 There is not a person alive who knows the difficulties that had to be overcome during the war for independence. Only people who have made history their life work realize what those soldiers under George Washington's command had to overcome.
 The people of 1930 have electricity to work for them, while the soldiers of Valley Forge were suffering from cold, hunger and exposure. At Christmas, the most joyful day in the year, while we are receiving our gifts, we should think of the soldiers who did not have presents at all. So let us not be too selfish this joyful Christmas season.—By Gene Porter.

The Christmas Gift That Went To The Repair Shop
 Ouch! Bang! My, what was that? Everybody in the house was awake. I came scrambling downstairs to flick on the light. But I finally got it on. Everybody came running down the stairs. They soon found out what had happened. My Christmas gift was a bicycle. I stumbled over it. I had broken three spokes in one wheel and two in the other. The next Christmas I will be more careful what I bump into.—Howard Scheffel.

The Exciting Christmas
 Something chilly ran up my spine which thrilled me all the way through. Ah! I had it. It was Christmas, of course. How silly of me to forget. I ran downstairs and there was the floor under the Christmas tree loaded with presents. I was so happy I just stood and stared. When I opened the packages, I was the happiest girl in Medford, Ore.

Spelling Average
 Four-A, 98.8; 5-B, 98.2; 5-A, 97.8.

Perfect pupils for spelling were: 4-A, Betty Fowler; 5-B, Rae LaFevre, Rebecca Chaney.

Four-B, 99.7; 6-B, 96.3; 6-A, 99.9.

Average for building, 98.4.

The banking average was 75.5.

Henny Conway of 1-B is moving to Tacoma, Wash.

Roosevelt School

Reporters: Harry Stanley, Caroline Cook, Ova Stevens, Junior Patton, Jack Henderson.

Banking
 The 1B's and 1A's had 114.3 per cent; the 4B's 110.3; the 1D's 106.5; the 6B's 107.9; the 2B's and 3A's 103.1; and the 2A's and 3B's 100 percent. We had a pretty good record this time.

New Pupils
 We have two new pupils this week. They are Henry Anderson 4A, and J. C. Anderson 1B. They are from Wallawa. We do not want to lose them.

Health
 Our health for our school this week was fairly good. The banner was awarded to 2B's, of which they are very proud. Their percentage was 98.8 percent.

Spelling
 The banner went to the 5A's with 97.7 percent. But it won't be as good as before. It is going to be better. The building average was 95.9 percent.

Football
 There was a football game planned today. The Roosevelt went to play the Jackson 14 to 0 last time. We want very hard to play today because the game has been put off so long that we want to beat them as we did the Jackson school.

Christmas Program
 What an interesting day Friday was beginning at 9:15. Christmas carols were sung in the halls by members of the different grades. Many Christmas stories were read and enjoyed during the morning.

At one o'clock the following program was greatly liked by all: Angels from the Realm of Glory, orthonomic; Carols by grades 4, 5, 6; violin solo, Donald Horner; two carols, 2A-3B.

Telephoning Santa, Jean Platt; Christmas Song, 1B-1A; poem, "Why the Bells of Christmas Ring," Robert Holmes; Song, Christmas Eve, 2B.

Little Jack Horner, 3B-2A; Carol, 3B-2A; Dialogue, "Joy of Giving," three girls from 4B; Santa Claus, on the orthonomic.

And joy of joys, the pupils went to their own rooms and enjoyed their gifts.

Vacation Time
 The teachers of the Roosevelt school plan to spend their Christmas vacation as follows:
 Sara Van Meter, visiting in Portland and attending the O. S. T. A.; Eljora Terwilliger, at home in Hoquiam, Wash.; Allen Maxwell, at home in Jacksonville; Myra Hunsell, with friends in Los Angeles and Santa Ana; Anna B. Carter, at home in Medford; Flora Childers, at home in Medford; Rachel Wilkins, at home and in Portland; Eleanor Curry, convalescing in Medford; Mildred Aspinwall, with friends in Ashland and in Grants Pass; Nina Carlon, at home in Medford.

Lincoln School

Reporter: Donald Snyder, 5A.

Banking
 All rooms but one banked 100 per cent or more. Miss Abbott's 1B ranked highest with 131.5 per cent. The average for the building was 107.3 percent.

Health Inspection
 Seven of the ten rooms were 95 percent or higher. The average was 98.9.

Art
 The art classes have been making Christmas gifts for Daddy and Mother.

Geography
 The geography notebooks of the 4A class are almost finished. They are books telling the story of "our country."

Spelling
 The Lincoln school is proud of its spellers. They have led all the Medford schools in their spelling averages for the past five weeks.

Here are the grades for the cycle ending Friday, Dec. 19: 4B, 99.9 percent; 4A, 98.1; 5B, 95.1; 5A, 99.9; 6B, 98.9; and 6A, 98.9.

These are the grades for the cycle ending Friday, Dec. 12: 4B, 97.7 percent; 4A, 98.8; 5B, 92.5; 5A, 95.5; and 6A, 96.2. These averaged 97.4 percent. The latter grades were not ready for publication last week.

Our Christmas Party
 In accordance with the Lincoln custom the classes took turns singing Christmas carols. We had two assemblies, one downstairs for the lower grades and one upstairs for the department. At each a program suitable to the occasion was presented.

We serpentine through the building to give every one an opportunity to see the trees and other decorations.

Candy canes and popcorn balls donated by the P. T. A. and made in the Buckingham candy kitchen were distributed by St. Nicholas himself.

Mr. Kirkpatrick Better
 Mr. Kirkpatrick has been able to appear in the building once or twice since his illness. He attended our program Friday. He says that he will be able to be back at work here the holidays. In the meantime Mr. Buchanan is acting as janitor.

Teachers Leave for Holidays
 Miss Gladys Bond, Miss Ora Tucker, Miss Freda Schneider and Miss Clara Gumelius left Friday afternoon for their respective homes. Miss Bond went to Newberg, Miss Tucker to Salem, Miss Schneider to Woodburn, and Miss Gumelius to Newport.

Fifth grade: Lawrence Turner has been absent. We hope to see him back next week.

Sixth grade: Stanley Brown was absent for one day. He was the only one absent.

Entertainment
 First grade: Christmas entertainment will be in the same way that it has been celebrated each preceding year.

Second grade: We are getting a little Christmas program ready for Tuesday.

Sixth grade: Five boys and four girls are in a play called, "A Visit to Santa Claus." Georgiana Coats is their instructor.

Eighth grade: We will have a little program.

Decorations
 All the grades have decorated their rooms and have Christmas trees.

Banking
 First grade: The first grade has 100 percent in banking and have won the banner. The average for the week is 77.6 percent.

Spelling
 Second grade: We have had 100 percent in spelling all week.

Third grade: Georgia Rickman leads the grade in spelling this week. Bernetta Dubs has been promoted from the C to the B division in spelling.

Fourth grade: Those who had 100 percent in spelling are, Vernon Wet, Carme Houston, Clyde Perdue, June Roberts, Marjorie Madden, Natalie Wilcox, Virginia Light, Warren Parke.

Fifth grade: The following fifth graders had perfect spelling scores for the week: Olive Schrier, Louise Stewart, Emmaline Debusk, Margaret Hendrickson and Robert Wilcox.

Sixth grade: Georgiana Coats and Irene Steadman got 100 percent in spelling all week.

Seventh grade: We had eleven one-hundreders in spelling. They are: Dorothy Smith, Mary Rickman, Howard Klinger, Martin May, Mildred Bauer, Mabel Hardesty, Mildred Landing, Patsy Thompson, Tom Robinson, June Peebler, Jean Miller and Maxine Cobling.

Third grade: The A division in reading has completed two readers, the Elson and the Beacon.

Third grade: Mrs. Hill visited our room Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Frame and Mrs. Carter visited all grades in the building this week.

Penmanship
 Sixth grade: The children are working for their improvement certificates. Heath Lowry, Roy Koyama and Jack Hill are working for their final.

Honor Roll
 Eighth grade: Mr. Sloan made an honor roll chart and posted it on the hall showing pupils from every room who are on the honor roll. Requirements are, having all 1's and 2's and having perfect attendance.

Reporters: Junior Kuehale, Florence Scherer, Addie Bolz.

Jackson School

The percentages this week are high. I guess all the boys and girls are keeping clean because it's just before Christmas. The high ones were Miss Stewart's room, Mrs. Murray's and Mrs. Taylor's each having 98.8 percent. The school average was 93.4 percent.

The following rooms had 100 percent: Mrs. Henderson's, Miss McCollom's, Mrs. Murray's, Mrs. Laidley's, and Miss Briggs'. The school average was 91 percent. This is the highest average the Jackson school has attained this year.

Christmas Program
 The four schools of Medford gave a program at the Methodist Episcopal church on West Main street. A choir of boys and girls sang Christmas carols while the scenes were acted on the stage.

Lola Herman took the part of Mary. J. E. Garrison was Joseph for the part Jackson school gave. We have the crowd of mothers and children enjoyed our program. Miss Baldwin, the supervisor of music in all the schools, planned the program. We wish to thank her and the teachers for their hard work. Mr. Thompson is to be thanked for the work he did on the lights. The manager of the Woolworth store furnished candles and ornaments. We hope every one enjoyed it as much as we enjoyed giving it.

Health Honor Roll
 I am listing the ones who are on the health honor roll. We hope those who are not will have their corrections made during the holidays. From the 1B there are Norman Carmen, Geraldine Simpson, Thelma Stevens, Delbert Cooley, LeRoy Neff and Merrill Peck. From the 2B are Kathleen Cully and Patsy Mattison, Maurice Cole and Maude Stevens are of the 2A.

From the 2B is Kathleen North, Audrey Fletcher is of the 3A. From the 4B, Barbara Lewis, Herman Lofdash, Dorotha Olson, Albert Piche, Worlow Puelin, Robert Waldron, and Betty Yocom, Bernice Baker, Sidney Brown, Chester Ferguson, Corday Normal, Durward Porter, Kenneth Raymond, and Glennie Scott.

We have from the 5A, Ruth Barton, Burton Burgess, Jean Enslly, Robert Dyan, Hugh Ferguson and J. E. Garrison. The 6B's have Dale Davis, Kathleen Dillard, Georgia Handy, Glenn Reed, Donald Roof and Lewis Thanos on the honor roll. Wayne Crews, Viola Lyon, Lois Matheny and Rose Ellen Stoneker from the 6A.

Christmas Spirit
 Friday afternoon Mrs. Laidley's singers marched thru the halls singing carols. After that Santa Claus visited the rooms. He gave out presents that the children bought. Everyone had a jolly, gay time.

We hope everyone has a very merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

A Good Joke
 Thursday, Mr. Henderson said he wouldn't be with us until next year. Foot Ronell Harwood next to be an Englishman for on Friday, the next day, Ronell was still sorry to lose Mr. Henderson. It was a good joke.

Christmas Decorations
 Every one is happy. The trees are all decorated. Some have lights of all colors and some have pretty lanterns. The walls are decorated with pictures and the windows with candles and wreaths.

When you enter the building, you see a beautiful tree in the lower hall. Miss McCollom's room decorated the tree and had it put in the hall for us all to enjoy it. Frankie Handy brought the tree. Christmas is such a jolly time we hope every one enjoyed the last week of school.

Girl Scout's Christmas
 The Red Rose troop of Jackson school is sending a box to the less fortunate and five of the members are going over to 407 S. Central avenue to wrap up presents. Louisa Klump, Helen Thompson, Ione Kindred, Lois Herman and Kathleen Dillard were chosen to do this. We enjoy doing this for it shows the real Christmas spirit.

Christmas Vacation
 At Christmas time every one is excited about what they are going to do and where they are going. Mrs. Taylor will spend Christmas in Salem and then she will go to Portland. Miss Nelson will have a happy time in Los Angeles. Mrs. Laidley will spend Christmas at her home here and then go to Portland. Miss Briggs is going to eastern Oregon to spend Christmas with her parents. Miss McCollom will spend Christmas here; so will Mrs. Henderson, Miss Stewart, Miss Smith, Mrs. Murray, Mr. Gustin and Mrs. Reid. Mrs. Reid will visit in Portland the latter part of the vacation.

Athletics
 We boys of Jackson school can not play Washington until after Christmas. Our team is glad the game is postponed so many of our boys are absent. It will give us more of a chance to make a showing. I suppose the Washington school will be glad, too, as they perhaps have many boys out.

Honor Roll
 When Mrs. Taylor was absent the list of honor roll students was made. This last week Mrs. Taylor for that Dorothy Olsen's name was left out. We hope Dorothy sees her name for she has been looking for it.
