

"EVERYONE IN SOUTHERN OREGON READS THE MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE"

Independence

Reporters: Virginia Porter, Ruth Pritch, Frances Porter. We have been decorating our room to represent a winter snow scene. We have hung cotton around the room on top of window sills, over the doors, and in the chack trays. The piano is also covered. We have sprinkled silver dust over the top of the cotton, so that it sparkles like snow. Red and green streamers have been hung from the lights with icicles hanging from them. The whole effect is very beautiful. The lower and upper grades had their Christmas trees together. Christmas carols were sung around the tree. Every child had a hand in decorating the tree. After the carols were sung the presents were distributed. No presents were opened until all had been distributed. Thirty or forty minutes were then spent in opening presents and enjoying them together. Little Zepherus was called the favorite for the little folks.

Even Informal Parties Require a Food Surprise

By JOSEPHINE S. GIBSON, Director, Home Economics Dept., H. J. Helms Company

THE informal party is, perhaps, the most delightful of all; but its chief charm, from the standpoint of food, lies in those dainty dishes with which every hostess likes to surprise her guests. If one entertains frequently, it often seems difficult to have something entirely new and different. However, just a little extra care in planning will make all your "party dishes" remembered—and this without any need for an elaborate menu. In fact, a grand meal on toast garnished with olives and pickles, or a distinctive salad accompanied by novel sandwiches, is all that any hostess need plan for an informal affair.

Below you will find suggested some simple party menus that are particularly attractive. And I am sure they will help you to plan many others that are similarly unpretentious.

Then add 2 1/2 cups of 2 tablespoons baking powder, and 1/2 cup raisins, and stir together. Oranges and 1/2 cup raisins, and stir together. Place in a 9x12 pan, cover with wax paper and bake at 350 degrees for 25 minutes.

At last to the school we did return. Thank goodness, next year it will be some one else's turn.

China Plans Roads SHANGHAI, Dec. 20. (AP)—China has started to take its road-building seriously. Seeking to expand the highway system and to give the auto trade a chance to grow, a national road conference has been called here in April.

Coon Hunt, Square Dance at Fetes MURPHY, N. C., Dec. 20. (AP)—Shooting of firearms starts the Christmas celebration for mountain folks of the southern Appalachians.

Some families pack up and spend several days visiting kinsfolk or neighbors. The older men and boys shoulder guns and follow on the heels of coon hounds for a hunt.

At night young people walk and ride for miles to attend square dances, where they swing till daybreak to fiddle music.

Family From Dad Down Needs Hearty Breakfast

By Grace Vinn Gray (Radio Home Economics Authority)

Every person in the family, from dad down to the newest and tiniest member, needs a substantial breakfast to start the day a-right. Fortunately, there are available to every family at low cost many healthful, nutritious foods that are especially suitable for the morning meal.

Prominent among such foods is the egg, which is a great builder of strength. It is, in fact, the accepted basis of the typical American breakfast. However, the family is bound to tire of the egg if it is served the same way every morning—soft-cooked or fried or scrambled.

Variety is the spice of life. With eggs, variety should be the least of the breakfast worries of the wife and mother, for there are more than a hundred different ways of preparing this food. In many and varied delightful forms, she can give every member of her family the daily egg that leading food authorities prescribe as a part of the necessary diet.

Here are some delightful breakfast dishes built about the egg: Ham and Scrambled Eggs 2 eggs cooked or uncooked ham (chopped fine), 4 egg yolks, 4 egg whites (beaten), 4 tablespoons milk, 3 tablespoons bacon fat. Heat fat in frying pan. Add...
