Exciting Billiard Game

A four handed billiard game at the Elks temple the latter part of last week provided some of the best entertainment of the month and attracted the interest of quite a number of loungers in the club. Three 3-cushion shots at the end of the game added spice to the contest, won by a team, one member of which is a banker. The opponents represented the law and orchardist professions. It is expected the foursome will be together again soon if the orchardist makes his timely appearance. The club tables have been hustled the past month or so than for several seasons and there have been quite a number of close games. Some effort may be made to determine the club champion.
