WOODMEN LODGE WILL HAVE TREE AND FESTIVITIES

It has been the custom of the Woodmen of the World to observe Christmas. For years past the local camp has, each year, installed a tree, loaded it with gifts and invited not only the members of the camp, but their neighbors and their neighbors families. The Woodmen of the World believe in the idea of making people happy—they believe that a kind word, a kind deed, a friendly act—a neighborly consideration is the greatest thing that can be given by man to man.

In keeping with this principal the local camp has arranged for a Christmas tree at its hall Tuesday evening, December 23, at 7:30 o'clock. There will be a program for the kiddies, games, stunts, prizes, races, songs, recitations and a real Old St. Nick, as well as a bushel of fun for Dad and Ma.

This evening is not restricted to the membership, but to all who care to join in the evening's amusements. Everything will be free and all are invited.

The cardinal principles of Woodmenism is best summed up in the poem written by Helen Hunt Jackson, namely:

"If I can live
To make some pale face brighter, and to give
A second luster to some tear-dimmed eye,

Or e'en impart
One throb of comfort to an aching heart,
Or cheer some wayworn soul in passing by;

If I can lend
A strong hand to the fallen, or defend
The right against a single envious strain

My life, though bare
Perhaps of much that seemeth dear and fair
To us of earth, will not have been in vain.

The purest joy,
Most near to heaven, far from earth's alloy
Is bidding cloud give way to sun and shine;

And 'twill be well
If on that day of days the angels tell
Of me, "She did her best for one of Them."

MEDFORD BEAUTY IN HOLLY MOVIE

All Medford will visit the Holly theater Christmas day to see on the screen one of the city's fairest daughters, Murrel Finley, who makes her screen debut in her old home town in one of the most colorful productions of the year, "Whoopee."

Miss Finley was chosen by Florenz Ziegfeld, famous follies producer, who directed "Whoopee," as one of the eight most beautiful girls in Hollywood. She is the daughter of Mrs. William Swartz of this city and well known here by hosts of people who have come to think of her as the "Golden Girl," the name given her by show critics several years ago.

She is now returning from a several months tour of Europe, where she visited in Spain, Germany, the Scandinavian countries and England, making her headquarters in London. While there she was guest of Lloyd George and other internationally known figures. She will stop in New York to start work in a new screen production upon her return to the states.

She plays a prominent part in the chorus of "Sin Takes a Holiday," in which Constance Bennett is starred. This picture also will be featured at the Holly theater in the very near future.

In "Whoopee," Miss Finley appears in costumes which were especially created to emphasize her blond loveliness, feathers, plumes, chiffons and laces—all have been woven into diaphanous lines which enhance her natural beauty.

The elaborate headdresses chosen for her dances fail to rob any of the sheen from her golden hair.

Photographs taken in several of the costumes worn in "Whoopee" are now on display at the Holly theater, where the picture will open Christmas day to play for the remainder of the week.

WING NAMED LOCAL AIDE, LOAN CONCERN

It was announced yesterday by H. W. Haddow, traveling auditor and inspector for the Western Loan and Building Company, of Salt Lake City, that Charles A. Wing had been appointed district representative for that company.

The Western Loan and Building Company is one of the oldest and largest financial institutions in the west, having authorized capital of sixty-five million dollars and assets of over thirty million dollars.

In an interview today, Mr. Haddow stated his great faith in the Rogue River valley and stated that it is one of the "bright" spots of the Pacific coast and predicts a great future for it.

Mr. Wing is being congratulated by his many friends in securing such a valuable connection for the Bedford office. Owing to the desirability of the "Western's" loan it is estimated that several hundred thousand dollars will be loaned through Mr. Wing for the development of Southern Oregon cities.

POCKET CALENDAR A COPCO COURTESY

Through the courtesy of The California Oregon Power Co., each local customer will receive this month one of the new Copco 1931 vest pocket calendars, featuring an attractive picture of the Copco No. 1 generating station located at Copco, California, which is one of the most important power plants of the company's system. On the reverse side is a complete calendar for 1931 with the quarterly dates on Copco Preferred Stock prominently displayed for the benefit of local stockholders of the company.

This vest pocket type of calendar has proved popular in the past with not only men but women as well. Being of small size it is always available for reference to the man who carries it in his vest pocket or card case and to the woman who keeps it in her purse. The 1931 Copco calendars are being enclosed with all light bills during the month of December rather than by counter distribution, thus assuring that each and every customer will receive one of these handy little calendars.

BRADFISH TO SPONSOR XMAS EVE RADIO HOUR

Christmas eve, between the hours of 8:30 and 9:30, the facilities of the local radio station will be set aside for the use of Southern Oregon radio fans, in an all-request Christmas greeting program. Through the courtesy of C. Earl Bradfish, jeweler, this one-hour program will be reserved for the pleasure of those gathered in the family circles around the Christmas trees.

The program, as planned will prove a very pleasant feature, and every one on the air Christmas eve, is invited to communicate their requests to either Mr. Bradfish, at 115 East Main street, or to the studios of KMED.

ian grimaces, and comic knashing of teeth.

It is difficult for one who goes through life in a perpetual state of narcissus adoration to understand Americans, largely engaged in real work.

What will our best minds say of the latest utterance by Senator Borah? He wants the United States to lend money to Russia to help her industrial development and promote trade with the United States.

Senator Borah says that in Russia "the greatest undeveloped market waits us, if we are bold enough to seize it."

But, he doesn't expect the government to be bold enough to defy the financial "best minds" that at present control it.

In New York, where this is written, in early editions of afternoon newspapers, you read about these things:

A dead body of a man, taken for a ride, is found in a deserted automobile. No longer news.

A woman, respectable, swears that she was arrested and a magistrate, included in a blackmailing gang, refused to listen to the story of her innocence. That is a regular trade in New York, and apparently is nobody's concern.

Another magistrate is indicted with his wife, accused of buying his job on the bench, and a doctor is indicted with him for taking $2,000 to get the indorsement of the "Steuben society."

A new "racket" consists in getting up fraudulent charity balls and sending around strong arm salesmen to force small shop keepers to buy, with blackmailing threats.

And so it goes in our civilization.

Honolulu Imports California Trees

HONOLULU, Dec. 20.—(AP)—Every year the city of Honolulu imports its Christmas trees from California.

Hawaii has snow clad mountains but there are no suitable evergreen trees, so the proper Yuletide touch is brought 2400 miles to the mid-pacific.

Women, admitted free to South Atlantic league baseball games last season, will be required to pay admission in 1931, the association chiefs have decided.

A rural church near Charlotte, N. C., the Steele Creek Presbyterian, has 735 communicants, and 717 Sunday school members.

France plans to spend $1,559,000 during 1931-32 for reconstruction of roads devastated in the World war.

A memorial to Orren Randolph Smith, designer of the Confederate flag, has been unveiled at Calvary Episcopal church, Fletcher, N. C.
