Four Escape With Lives When Western Air Express Ship Fired By High Power Wires.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 22.—(P)—A whim of fate and the heroism of two airmen saved the lives of four persons early today when a flaming mail plane of Western Air Express, Inc., crashed into a residence near the air line's Alhambra terminal. Part of the ship's 1500-pound cargo of mail was destroyed in the crash.

The plane, piloted by Bart Cox, was returning to the terminal from Salt Lake City, Utah. Besides Cox a co-pilot, George Sherwood, and a passenger, A. Ousterhaut of Wyoming, were in the ship, a trimotored Fokker. The crash occurred shortly after 2 a.m.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT AT KIWANIS MEET

The spirit of good-will at Christmas time was stressed by Dr. H. C. Funk, pastor of the English Lutheran church of Medford, in speaking this noon before the Kiwanis club in regular weekly session at the Hotel Medford. It is not what is given that brings joy to the giver, but the spirit of giving that is the controlling factor, the speaker said.

He made an interesting address and received thanks personally from many of the Kiwanis members.

COLDEST MORNING SEEN IN MEDFORD

Today, with a minimum of 20 degrees above this morning, was the coldest of the winter so far, following a cold, foggy night, and the weather was quite crisp today despite much sunshine.

Unsettled weather with snow flurries in the mountains and probably rain on the coast, is the official forecast for tonight and Tuesday, with no change in temperature.

Everything out of doors was frozen up last night and this morning, and not a little trouble was encountered by car owners who had neglected to make proper anti-freezing precautions, in getting their cars started this morning.

The wet fog froze to the pavement and sidewalks, causing slippery going this morning for cars and rendered pedestrianism precarious.

Deaths From Injuries. PORTLAND, Dec. 22.—(P)—G. W. McMillan, 55, sawmill operator at Willamina, died here today from burns and shock received when he touched a high tension power transmission line.

DAIRIES AND LAUNDRIES AID HEALTH SEAL SALE

Medford dairies and laundries are cooperating with the Jackson County Health association in the annual Christmas Seal sale which is held from Thanksgiving to Christmas.

The dairies have stamped every bottle and the laundries every package. The custom was started last year and carried on this year on a large scale. The returns from these business concerns swell the fund considerably and is much appreciated by the association.

TRAPPER'S KIN SEEK INQUIRY SLAYER'S PLEA

OROVILLE, Cal., Dec. 22.—(P)—Relatives of Bob Ika, trapper recently shot to death in Bald Rock canyon, north of here, have expressed dissatisfaction with the legal procedure whereby Joseph Stanely, Ika's slayer, was permitted to plead guilty to manslaughter.

These relatives have announced they will engage counsel and investigate the procedure. They pointed out that Ika not only was slain but that his slayer stamped him in the face with hobnailed boots.

It was disclosed Ika was in reality Cecil Elcher, son of Henry Elcher of Palermo. His father was a cousin of the late John Elcher, pioneer horseman, and his mother was a sister of James Vaughan of Oroville. He had a sister in southern Oregon.

HEART ATTACK FINAL CUE FOR AGED ACTRESS

Flo Irwin Known to Audiences of Three Nations in 80's — 'Discovered' By Tony Pastor.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 22.—(P)—Flo Irwin, for 52 years an actress, has answered her final cue.

Death came yesterday to Miss Irwin, who with her sister May was known to theater audiences of three nations as early as the 80's and interrupted plans for a reunion this Christmas.

The 71-year old woman had lived in quiet retirement in a modest home here for three years, known to neighbors only as a "nice old lady, who spoke now and then of the stage."

Police surgeons said she died of a heart attack, brought on by excitement incident to her sister's promised visit. May Irwin is en route here from New York and will arrange the funeral.
