EXPECT 300 FOR SALVATION ARMY CHRISTMAS TREE

Plans are already made to take care of 300 children at the Salvation Army poor children's Christmas tree exercises to be held at the B. P. O. Elks lodge Friday, December 26, at 2 p. m.

Arrangements have been made with H. L. Bromley, through the courtesy of the Copco, to put on some educational pictures. Reverend Funk will give a short talk on the legend of the Christmas tree.

Each child will receive a box of candy, an orange and an apple, also a toy. Anyone wishing to give toys or such may call 735.

Arrangements are being made to have some of the local people help Ensign and Mrs. Park in the distribution of the toys.

NORRIS CHRISTMAS RADIO PLAY TONIGHT

One of the outstanding radio programs of the entire holiday season is the local presentation of the latest Helen Norris Christmas drama during Copco hour from 9 to 10 o'clock tonight. This new radio play, entitled "A Sprig of Holly," has just been completed by Miss Norris and will be given its first broadcast this evening through the courtesy of the California Oregon Power company.

The cast of "Copco Players" selected to present the program includes the following well known members of this popular dramatic group: Jo Murray Rostel, Stella Quisenberry, Helen A. Brayton, Fletcher Fish, Susette Stennett and Phil Quisenberry. Rehearsals have been under the direction of Mr. Fish and a typical Norris success is assured.

A background of appropriate music has been arranged to add to the enjoyment of those who listen in on the Copco hour over station KMED at 9 p. m.
