

ENGLISH PRINCE COMES A CROPPER RIDING TO HOUND

LONDON, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Flung from his mount in a furrowed field of mud and water, young Prince George suffered a bruised left shoulder while riding with the Belvoir hounds near Melton Mowbray today.

ALASKA SKELETON IS PIKE WHALE

JUNEAU, Alaska, Dec. 27.—(AP)—The 42-foot skeleton found near Columbia glacier last month and subject of much controversy, learned and otherwise, since then in going to the United States national museum in Washington, D. C., even if it is only a whale.

Princess Aids Needy TURIN, Italy.—(AP)—Needy of this city will be aided this winter thru the office of Princess Maria of Piedmont, who has started a fund with a personal donation of $500.

LOST—Black Morocco under arm purse; keep money and return purse to Lewis Service Station.

SCIENTISTS WILL STUDY LIGHT AND GIANT TELESCOPE

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 27.—(AP)—The numerous ways light and related radiations have been put to work in solving problems of life, energy and the universe will be a to-morrow subject when American scientists gather here Monday for an annual inventory of their work.

OLD BANK WILL ADMIT PARTNERS

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—(AP)—The old banking house of Kahn Loeb and company, long prominent in the financing of railroads and the placing of international loans, will on January 1 admit three new partners, all sons of present members of the firm.

With the admission of John M. Schiff, Gilbert W. Kahn and Frederick M. Warburg as the new members, the firm will have a total of 19 partners after the first of the year, Gordon Leith is to retire from the firm December 31.

The wise man and the fool seem much alike when they fall in love or try to explain hard times.—Boston Post.

DEMOCRATS PLAN TO GAIN CONTROL OF NEXT HOUSE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Democratic representatives are laying plans to capture control of the next house, but the Republicans are rearing a defensive bulwark which they expect to withstand all assaults.

BILKED NEW YORK BANKS FILE SUIT

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 27.—(AP)—Six New York banks filed suit today in federal district court here against two Colorado financial institutions and two individuals to recover $500,000 lost through the manipulations of Charles D. Waggoner, former president of the now defunct Bank of Telluride.

The defendants are the Bank of Telluride at Telluride, Colo., the First National Bank of Pueblo, Grant McFerson, state bank commissioner who now has charge of the affairs of the Bank of Telluride and J. C. Anderson who was operating head of the Norwood Cattle Loan company, one of Waggoner's enterprises.

St. James' Episcopal church, at Charleston, S. C., has celebrated the 200th anniversary of its existence.

41 DIE AS STEAMER SINKS AFTER CRASH IN FOG

The Finnish liner Oberon (shown above, a painting by H. Hudson Romell), which sank after a collision with another Finnish liner, the Arcturus, taking a toll of 41 lives. The crash occurred in the icy waters of the Cattegat, near Denmark, during a heavy early morning fog. The captains of the two ships were brothers, Capt. Eris Hjelt commanding the Oberon and Capt. Ossi Hjelt, the Arcturus.

WATER TAXES TO GAMBLING BARGES SEIZED BY FITTS

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Striking for a second time within 24 hours gambling barges anchored off Long Beach, District Attorney Byron Fitts and his investigators tonight arrested six men operating water taxis carrying patrons to the Johanna Smith. Three of the speed boats were seized.

Two of the boats were sent with Fitts operatives to the Johanna Smith to warn gambling patrons to return to shore immediately under penalty of being arrested as witnesses. The operatives also were to investigate reports that the Johanna Smith and the Rosa Isle had been towed to a point within the jurisdiction of Orange county, which adjoins Los Angeles county. Carrying of patrons to gambling ships is a felony.

MR. WOODPECKER NICE TO ROBINS

OAKLAND, Cal., Dec. 27.—(AP)—If George Helms' wasn't chief of the county detective force his latest contribution to the lore of natural history might be classified under the same heading as the story concerning salt and the bird's tail.

However, Helms tells the story best, and the weather man will attest it has been unusually cold in the bay district, said Helms.

WORLD DEPRESSION COMES TO FRANCE

PARIS, Dec. 27.—(AP)—France, long immune to serious economic trouble, has begun to feel the pinch, Louis Germain-Martin, minister of finance, emphasize at a reception to the press tonight.

MINORS NOW BALK AT DRAFT PEACE

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—(AP)—The draft peace pact between the Major leagues and the American association was tucked away in Commissioner Kenesaw S. Landis' official files today and then hurriedly jerked out for more consideration.

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Dec. 27.—(AP)—William H. Taylor, known in screenland as "Billy the Scot", 102-year-old Civil War veteran and hero of county Indian fights has embarked on the long trail on which there is an backtracking.

MYSTERY FIGURE IS MASTER MIND OF BURMA REVOLT

RANGOON, Burma, Dec. 27.—(AP)—A mystery man of considerable military training, who has succeeded in keeping his identity secret, is leading the Burmese rebels, numbering 1000.

The master mind of the native revolt directs operations from his headquarters in a lonely village deep in the heart of a forest near Tharrawaddy. The operations of his troops, who have suffered 200 casualties in recent fighting, are aided by the malaria hampering government forces.

OHIO FISHERS ON ICE CAKE SAVED

SANDUSKY, Ohio, Dec. 27.—(AP)—After facing for two hours the peril of being swept out to Lake Erie on a floating cake of ice nearly three miles long, approximately 100 men and boys were rescued here today.

EVEN LAZY FOLKS FORCED TO WORK

WHEELING, W. Va., Dec. 27.—(AP)—All this talk of unemployment has worked a hardship on those here who were well satisfied with being jobless.

DELAY FINDINGS IN BOWLES QUIZ

PORTLAND, Dec. 27.—(AP)—The grand jury investigating the Bowles murder case adjourned today until Monday without returning a report on the case.

The Noted Dead

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Dec. 27.—(AP)—Arthur M. Hazard, 57, internationally known painter, died yesterday at Chateau de Suresnes near Paris, his wife said here tonight.

SALEM, Ore., Dec. 7.—(AP)—Notwithstanding a long and hazardous fire season, losses in merchantable timber, logs and logging equipment and damage to settlers was smaller during the 1930 season than for any other since 1915, says a statement today by State Forester Linn F. Cronmiller.

Grants Pass—Pacific Greenhound Bus Co. completed construction of depot.

INCOME TAX FEAR SLOWS UP STOCKS

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—(AP)—The shadows which taxes to be levied on 1930 incomes have been casting across the stock market this week, lengthened today.

COSTLY CATHOLIC CHURCH IN RUINS

OTTAWA, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Fire destroyed the $450,000 St. Joseph's Catholic church today after a small boy worshiper overturned a tray of lighted candles into a Christmas manger.

Sumptuary laws are those designed to prevent extravagance in private life, explains Liberty Magazine.

Tobacco Output High PARIS.—(AP) Every day sales of tobacco products in France average approximately $640,000, representing sales of the French tobacco monopoly.

The German city especially noted for china is Dresden.

Maha — George A. Canning and Harry Prather opened new drug store here.

SAUTHAMPTON, Eng., Dec. 27.—(AP)—Alexander Paterson, a mild mannered man, sailed today on the Mauritania for a four months holiday sojourn in American penitentiaries.

Hood River — Shipp Brothers open new taxi service with offices in Heights Bargain store.

There are sixteen and one-half feet in a rod.

Brunswick advertisement for Panatropes with Radio. Includes image of the radio and text: 'makers of fine musical instruments for two decades PANATROPE with RADIO 4 screen grid tubes'.

Denison Radio Shop advertisement. Includes text: 'A beautiful Hammond Calendar Clock—All Electric—given free with each model S 31 sold by us during the holidays! See these clocks! Denison Radio Shop JOHN DENISON 402 East Main Phone 1520'.

Large advertisement for George Arliss in 'The Green Goddess'. Includes text: 'TODAY ONE DAY ONLY! Continuous Shows. HOLLY Leverette & Niedermeyer. By Special Request. ANOTHER SENSATIONAL SUCCESS! GEORGE ARLISS The GREEN GODDESS with H. B. WARNER ALICE JOYCE RALPH FORBES'. Also includes a small image of a man in a suit.

Advertisement for 'OH SAILOR! BEHAVE!' featuring Olsen and Johnson. Includes text: 'STARTS TOMORROW For 3 Days of Fun. HOLLY Leverette & Niedermeyer. ANOTHER RIOTOUS COMEDY! INTRODUCING TO MEDFORD FOR THE FIRST TIME OLSEN and JOHNSON TWO OF AMERICA'S FUNNIEST COMEDIANS! Vaudeville's Highest Paid Team now on the Screen in one of the Funniest Shows of the Year! OH SAILOR! BEHAVE! with OLSEN and JOHNSON America's Funniest Comedians! IRENE DELROY CHARLES KING LOWELL SHERMAN'.

Advertisement for 'IS EVERYBODY HAPPY' featuring Ted Lewis and his band. Includes text: 'BIG NEW YEAR'S EVE MIDNITE MATINEE! ON THE SCREEN TED LEWIS AND HIS BAND in "IS EVERYBODY HAPPY" ON THE STAGE "THE HAPPY REVIEW" Directed by GEORGE OLSEN Music! Comedy! Songs! Dances Dances Staged by RUTH LUY Fred Olsen at the Grand Piano A REAL GOOD TIME FROLIC! See the New Year in at the HOLLY DANCE ON THE HOLLY STAGE — To music over our sound equipment. Reserved Seats Now on Sale 25c, 50c, 75c'.