PLACE KICK GIVES WEST 3 TO 0 WIN

Kitzmiller of Oregon Totes Ball To Eleven-Yard Line Where Hall of Oklahoma Boots It For Only Score — East Outplays Winner Most of Thrilling Game.

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND
Associated Press Sport Writer

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 27.—(AP) Evening shadows were creeping over Kezar stadium today and just four minutes were left to play when Bus Mills, University of Oklahoma backfield ace, sent a place kick spinning through the cross bars to give the west a stunning 3-0 victory over the east in the annual football classic played here for charity.

Deadlocked in a struggle as titanic as the cause for which it was played, the two teams composed of former eastern and western college stars had fought on even terms until a scoreless tie appeared certain. The western warriors had gained possession of the ball deep in eastern territory. On three downs they bucked the oval from the 20-yard line to 11-yard marker. With one yard to go and one down to make it, a place kick was called for and Mills was selected for the job.

Johnny Kitzmiller of Oregon held the ball and Mills stepped back and toed it to its mark while 52,000 persons roared approval. For two periods the eastern eleven hammered the western forces back almost steadily, twice losing chances to score just as touchdowns seemed inevitable. The west came back in the third to show to advantage and in the fourth period put over the winning score.

The place kick came about as follows: Following an exchange of punts, the west took the ball on the east's 33-yard line. Kitzmiller gained three yards on two tries and made a short kick that landed on about the five-yard line. Hart of Colgate, playing right half and safety for the east, thought the ball would roll over the goal line and made no effort to catch it. Instead, it bounded back and Beckett and F. Wilson of the west grounded it one yard from the goal. Standing behind his own line, Bruder made a poor kick and Kitzmiller returned it 13 yards to the east's 20-yard line. Lange, fullback, failed to gain, but Kitzmiller reeled off five yards, then four yards to put the ball on the 11-yard line. Mills' kick from placement followed.

Outplaying their opponents, the easterners had a chance to score in the first period but failed when Gantenbein was hauled down from behind after running 46 yards.

Hard tackling and great line play featured the contest with both teams resorting to kicks frequently, statistics revealed the east had an advantage in most of the departments, except scrimmage. The east gained 44 yards from scrimmage to 73 yards for the west. The east tried 17 passes and completed six for a gain of 134 yards while the west tossed 13 passes and completed five for 33 yards. The easterners made seven first downs to four for their opponents.

MEDFORD PEPS UP AND TRIMS CRESCENT, 19-6

Medford high school's basketball team completely outclassed the Crescent City five in their second game of the season last night at the armory, with the score 19 to 6 at the final gun. The local lethargy of Friday evening was conspicuous by its absence.

Neither team scored during the first quarter, and Spann, Crescent City guard, kept the ball in midfloor during the latter of the first quarter. Medford's chances for scoring were numerous, the ball being under their basket most of the time.

Hoebrner, Crescent forward, made the first score of the game early in the second quarter. White, of Medford, scored first for the locals, converting a free throw.

Coach Darwin K. Burgher started the game with Geo. Harrington, Hammock, Lietrick, Thomas and White. Hughes, Scheel, Clay, Caldwell and I. Harrington went in the second quarter, the teams changing each quarter. This system seemed to spur the athletes mightily.

The junior high school defeated the Tiger cubs in the preliminary, 24 to 18.

Medford and Crescent City's starting lineup was as follows:

WASHINGTON WINS FAST GAME FROM NEBRASKA 41 - 38

SEATTLE, Dec. 27.—(AP)—In one of the most thrilling breath-taking basketball games ever witnessed in Seattle, the University of Washington came from behind to conquer the University of Nebraska 41 to 38 tonight in the first of a three-game intersectional series. Nebraska led 22 to 14 at the half.

Washington won the torrid struggle in the last three minutes of play after Nebraska had led from early in the first period except for one time when the two teams were tied in the second period.

Showing altogether different form and outstanding shooting ability in the last half the Washington Huskies pulled up even with the Cornhuskers in the first six minutes, lost the lead again and then came back with an attack which sent them ahead in the dying minutes of play.

Swygard came back to give Washington a basket but Davey cancelled it with a long hard shot from an angle and Nebraska led 34 to 29.

Swygard (C. Q) and Fuller replaced Nelson and Perry and the former tied up the count at 37-all with three minutes left to play to send spectators into a frenzy.

Washington captured the lead for the first time early in the first period when Fuller found the basket with a long shot. Davey gave Nebraska one more point on a free throw.

With one minute left to play, the two teams battled like wild and the Huskies made victory safe when Shorty West shot his only basket of the game.

The lead see-sawed six times in the first few minutes of the opening half before Nebraska ran up the 23 to 14 lead. The teams play again Monday and Tuesday nights.

SAVOLDI LEADS NOTRE DAME TO EASY VICTORY

'Jumping Joe' and Rockne Stars of Last Two Years Maul West-South Team 20 to 7—Precision Too Much For E-Trojan Heroes.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 27.—(AP) Notre Dame at large ruled the gridiron today just as did Notre Dame of South Bend during the regular football season, and a team called Rockne's all-stars defeated a West-South eleven coached by Jimmy Phelan, 20-7. Fifty-thousand excited spectators saw the thrilling game played for charity under a warm sun.

Notre Dame scored twice before some of the spectators were settled in their seats. After taking the kick-off and advancing the ball to their own 28-yard line, the rough riders marched in 11 plays to a touchdown, jumping Joe Savoldi bounding six yards on the final play.

They came right back with another a few minutes later, Elder ran 45 yards before Captain Marfott of the University of Georgia caught him from behind on the South-West 22-yard line. Savoldi galloped the rest of the way on the next play.

The former Notre Dame fullback made himself the scoring ace by adding another touchdown in the final period, dashing 45 yards and then 36 in two plays to finish with his third score of the day.

The West-South aggregation dominated the play in the third period when Russ Saunders, former University of Southern California star, led his mates from far and near to their lone counter.

His passing attack drove the ball deep into Notre Dame territory where a fumble gave the Rough Riders the ball. Notre Dame could not keep it however, and had to kick.

The white skirted stars took the ball on Notre Dame's 39-yard line and Saunders passed to Caraway, formerly of Purdue, on the 15-yard line. On the next play, Saunders plunged inside tackle, and his fellows blocked the opposition out of the play and the Trojan did not stop until he was past the vital goal line marker.

Notre Dame played with the same precision which has marked the performance of Rockne coached teams for more than a decade. Off to a commanding lead, Captain Carideo took no chances, and with his margin threatened only occasionally had few worries.

The running of Savoldi and Jack Elder, hero of the 1929 Army-Notre Dame game, stood out, while the line play of Towney and Moynihan was striking. Jack Cannon played a smashing guard until he was carried out with a knee injury.

Saunders was the best ground gainer for the losers. He turned the clock of time back and played like a sophomore instead of a coach as he now is.

The losers outgained the winners, scoring 20 first downs to 13 for Notre Dame, but the best rush and best passing of the West-South heroes was in their own territory.

TOUT SHARKEY AND STRIBLING IN RETURN GO

Dempsey May Manage Miami Battle If Coin Is Right — Georgia Waltzer May Balk — Plans Still Unsettled.

By EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—(AP)—It's beginning to look as if a couple of old familiar performers, with an equally familiar figure at the keys of the ballyhoo organ, will stage the heavyweight act of the season in Miami this February just as they did two years ago.

The team of Jack Sharkey and Young Stribling are being groomed to repeat by request of Madison Square Garden their 1929 battle of the nodding palms and once more, if satisfactory financial arrangements can be made, Jack Dempsey will be in there as master of ceremonies, adding the luster of his name and personality to the situation bidding welcome to one and all.

"Old Johnno" conferred today with Bill Carey, president of the garden and his co-worker in promotion of the first Sharkey-Stribling duel at Miami Beach after the sudden death of Tex Rickard two years ago.

The negotiations paused at the stage of generalities because of Dempsey's financial requests and the fact that the garden, so far, has been unable to make definite arrangements for the bout. But if the match is made—and there seems no absolute bar—it seems certain that the old man mauler will handle the reins of promotion.

Because of the business pressure, Carey feels he cannot spare the time this year to the garden's third heavyweight venture in the south. He wants Dempsey as "front man" for the show—if there is one—but Jack talks of the $60,000 worth of refereeing dates he would have to abandon to take over the project and the conversation immediately lags.

The Macon flyer, after punching his way into the center of the heavyweight situation, seems to have no desire to mingle with Sharkey for the benefit of the garden. He was refused a place last winter on the card that featured Sharkey and failing Phil Scott at Miami and his feelings have been slightly damaged ever since. He has an idea that the garden has used him in the past only when it could not do otherwise and that his gratitude for favors extends in other directions.

ZUPPKE ALL SET FOR DIXIE GAME

DALLAS, Texas, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Coach Bob Zuppke of Illinois had only one worry as he sent his squad of twenty-three Mid-West huskies through their third practice today in preparation for the Dixie classic here New Year's day.

The veteran Illini mentor admitted he had not decided who would quarterback his young giants against the Southwest All-stars in the charity engagement. Barring that one position, he declared his picked troops were ready right now to show fans of this section a world of football.

The city often referred to as the Cradle of Liberty is Boston, Massachusetts.

GRID CHIEFTANS TO THRESH OUT FOOTBALL WOES

Big Money Receipts and Extra Point Main Issues —Claim Kicking Spoils Drama of Game—Many Banquets.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—(AP)—The old familiar faces of intercollegiate sport were turned tonight toward New York City, where the American Football Coaches association and the National Collegiate Athletic association will meet in annual conventions next week.

The coaches will get together on Monday to discuss the rules. Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler's suggestions for taking the emphasis out of their vocation and other kindred subjects. They will top off the day with the annual "brown derby" banquet, their "gridiron dinner," where practically everything is cussed and discussed.

Tuesday the N. C. A. A. council will meet to take up the agenda for the following day when the regular sessions of the annual meeting will be held.

The sportsmanship brotherhood has added to the festivities by scheduling its annual luncheon for Monday.

There are one or two scheduled talks on Dr. Butler's suggestion and there probably will be plenty of unscheduled discussions at the open sessions of both bodies and in the hotel lobbies.

Glen Thistlewaite, coach at Wisconsin and Bill Alefander, of Georgia Tech, president of the coaches' association, are bringing their pet grievance to New York—the point after touchdown.

Both want it abolished, holding it to be a nuisance that adds little or nothing to the drama of the game. There are many who will hold to the contrary, especially those who are fond of relating how Brickley and Poe and Oliphant and other great kickers of the game used to send a football winging through the goalposts and who stoutly resist any and all efforts tending to legislate out of existence the kicking features of the game.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 27.—(AP)—Materially raising statistics hitherto published, the 1930 lumber output of the Pacific coast region, including five states, is estimated at 11,315,000,000 board feet by J. # ALABAMA BOSS VIEWS COUGARS AS EVEN BREAK

Southern Team Short of Condition for New Year's Game—Betting Odds Not To Affect Confidence.

PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 27.—(AP) With the tournament of roses clash only five days away, Alabama's Crimson Tide is still short of the top notch condition reached during the regular season coach Walace Wade said today.

The southern grid general made this comment following the morning workout given the tide in preparation for Washington State Jan. 1. This afternoon the team witnessed the charity struggle between the all-Notre Dame aggregation and an all-star squad.

"Boys looked a little better today," Wade commented, "but they are still considerably below the condition displayed during the season. Some of the boys in the line were going through their work in dummy scrimmage in a rather half-hearted manner."

Coach Wade admitted he hadn't attempted to "fire up" the players for the contest yet and expressed the belief that they will be in top form by game time.

Asked about possible overconfidence, Wade smiled knowingly and said: "My players have been taught never to take any stock in what the public or the press have to say. Why I've seen both teams play this year and I'm at a loss as to the outcome, so how can those who have seen neither eleven function know?"

Questioned concerning his defense against passes, Coach Wade said he was well satisfied. "We had touchdowns scored on us by Tennessee and Vanderbilt thru passes, but that was early in the season. As far as that goes I have never seen a greater passer than Dodd of Tennessee. Folks have said I don't have much of a pass defense, but we're satisfied."

In the meantime, the Washington State Cougars took their usual dose of fundamentals and ended up by running signals of a few new plays, including some pass formations.

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 27.—(AP)—The Chicago Stock Exchange and the Association of Stock Exchange Members have warned all their member firms to send in certificates for inspection, following the New York exchange's order to stop trading in temporary Fox Film class A certificates.

DAZZY VANCE IS LEADING HURLER BY WIDE MARGIN

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—(AP)—If the report is true that Dazzy Vance was waiting for the release of the National league pitching averages before taking over the terms of his 1931 contract, the big Brooklyn hurler now has something to work on. The official figures, released today, show the dazzler far ahead of any other pitcher in the league in the earned run ratings.

Vance also shared the lead with Charley Root of Chicago in shutouts, each registering four, and gave Bill Hallahan of St. Louis a close race for strikeouts honors. Dazzy fanned 173 and Hallahan 177.

Vance, pitching 250 innings in 35 games, won a rating of 1.61 earned runs per nine inning game. Carl Hubbell of New York finished second in the list of "regular" hurlers, who pitched 10 or more complete games with a 3.87 rating. His teammate, Bill Walker, came in third with a 3.93 mark and Pat Malone of Chicago finished close behind at 3.94.

Only Malone of the first four in the earned run ratings could finish well up in the record of games won and lost. With 20 victories and nine defeats for a .696 per centage, Malone took second place. Fred Fitzsimmons of New York turned in 19 victories and seven defeats to lead in this respect with .731.

Hubbell placed 13th on the list with 17 games won and 12 lost while Vance and Walker each won 17 games and lost to tie for 15th place.

GOLF ACES NOW IN FLORIDA FOR JANUARY 'OPEN'

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 27.—(AP)—America's wandering links' prospectors start drilling for some $30,000 in Florida prize money in the Miami open next week.

This fifth renewal of the January open, first of Miami's three big professional events of the season, offers $30,000 in scattered allotments to the low scorers.

Chubby, swarthy Gene Sarazen four times winner, will lead the professional chase as the quest starts January 3. Most of the country's better known cash players are sharp shooting on the Pacific coast now, but will be here for the February and March tournaments, climaxed by the $15,000 La Gorce open at Miami Beach.

Johnny Farrell, former open champion, Horton Smith, leading money winner for two seasons; Whiffy Cox, Harry Cooper, the Espinosas, Denny Shute and others will join Sarazen in the hunt for the pots of gold in later events.

More than 50 competitive contests have been arranged for 1931's first quarter, with the majority testing the skill of the amateurs and women marksmen.

Only a half dozen open events have been scheduled, but others are in the process of formation. Pensacola has some $5000 awaiting the pros in its mid-February attraction, while the second largest prize of them all, the rich La Gorce event, is preceded by the Miami international four ball tourney, worth $5000.

SYDNEY, Australia, Dec. 27.—(AP)—J. A. Carlton, who wore Australia's colors in the last Olympic games, broke the Australian record for the 100-yard dash today when he sped the distance in 9 3-5 seconds. He was running against a slight breeze.
