

140 GRANGE LEADERS IN CEREMONY

Joint Installation at Armory Opened to Public—Officers of Ten Granges in County Take Seats in Colorful Rites.

One hundred forty officers representing the 10 granges in Jackson county, were installed last evening at a joint ceremonial held in the Medford armory, with Mrs. Gertrude Haak as installing officer. Guests at the meeting, which was open to the public, sat in the balcony, and the main floor was reserved for the old and new officers.

Albert Straus, master of Jackson County Pomona Grange, presided as chairman of the meeting. Mr. Straus has been active in the county Grange work, having been Sams Valley master for several years. When elected county master, he had the reputation of being the youngest Pomona master in the state.

Mrs. Erma Simon was conductor, assisted by Julia Davis and Marie Clark, emblem bearers, and Mrs. Violet Spencer and Mrs. Lucille Kline, regalia bearers. Ross Kline was acting master, and Mrs. Grace Walker, chaplain.

Mrs. Pearl Honey and Miss Bessie Frobenburg took charge of the tableaux given during the installation, which was very impressive. Music for the ceremony was furnished by the Enterprise orchestra, with Mrs. Ted Sims of Jacksonville at the piano.

Ushers, dressed in blue and white outfits, were Wesley McDonough, Edith Sage, Paul Schultz and Frances Wilson of Sams Valley.

Following the installation, the new grange masters were called on to give short addresses, and E. E. Nulton of Sams Valley, county grange deputy organizer, also spoke to the group. Musical numbers by the orchestra, and a duet by Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wendt were given as a part of the program.

WAGONS CREAK IN MEMORY OF PIONEER TRAIL

Portland and New York Observe Close of Covered Wagon Centennial Begun in April.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 30.—(AP) In Portland and New York last night covered wagons lumbered and creaked in memory. It was the close of the covered wagon centennial observance proclaimed by President Hoover last spring. The observance began April 30, the hundredth anniversary of the departure of the first wagon train over the Oregon Trail.

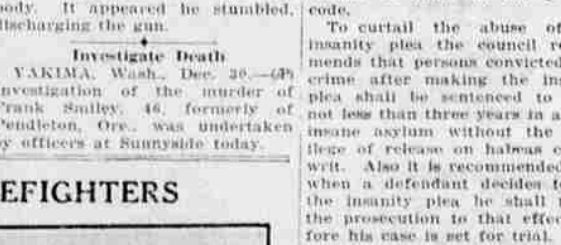

In Portland hundreds of persons gathered in the civic auditorium to honor the pioneer spirits of the west. Many of the pioneers were there, among them Captain Oliver Applegate of Madoc Indian warfare; William H. Newman, one of his agents in the campaign against the Indians; C. A. Ackerman, George H. Himes, J. L. Carter and L. B. Baker.

In New York the Oregon Trail opening ended with 500 guests at a banquet. Many guests wore costumes of pioneer days. The memory of Ezra Meeker, founder of the Oregon Trail association, was commemorated.

Oven Pistol Kills.
CORVALLIS, Ore., Dec. 30.—(AP) John E. Farrier, 35, was killed by his own pistol yesterday while hunting in the Alsea mountains. He carried a heavy automatic pistol hanging loosely from his body. It appeared he stumbled, discharging the gun.

Investigate Death.
YAKIMA, Wash., Dec. 30.—(AP) Investigation of the murder of Frank Smiley, 46, formerly of Pendleton, Ore., was undertaken by officers at Sunnyside today.

DOG AIDS FIREFIGHTERS.

NEW TRIAL FOR COREY IS REFUSED

Rogue River Attacker Must Serve 15-Year Sentence—Central Point Bank Taken Under Advisement.

Motions for a new trial, and setting aside of judgment, were heard this morning by Circuit Court Judge H. D. Norton, in behalf of Robert Glenn, convicted and sentenced to serve 15 years in State prison for the Central Point State bank robbery attempt last September, and Ed Corey, under a 20-year sentence, for a statutory offense involving a 13-year-old Rogue River girl. Both men are now inmates of the Salem prison.

The motion for a new trial for Corey was denied, and the court took under advisement a similar plea for Glenn.

In the Corey motion Attorney E. C. Kelly, attorney for both men, alleged legal technicalities in the conduct of the state, prejudicial to the defendant. The motion questioned the submitting of the record of a previous conviction of Corey for burglary in Washington state, to the jury.

The same grounds were alleged in the motion for Glenn, the defense alleging that the state submitted in rebuttal testimony that should have been introduced in the state's case-in-chief. Attorney Kelly argued that this procedure enabled "the state to virtually retry their case, after the submission of the defense's case."

Clothing Not Identified.
It also was alleged that articles of clothing had been taken to the jury room without being properly identified as evidence.

The defense contends that the testimony of Policeman William Peck, in rebuttal, relative to certain alleged statements made by Glenn, while in a local hospital after his capture, were inadmissible and that the testimony of B. L. Pennington, local battery service station operator, and a witness before the grand jury, should have been properly introduced in the direct case. Pennington testified to the hour that Glenn appeared at his place of business, Glenn's alibi declared that he was unconscious at the time Pennington testified he saw him.

There are a number of other legal and technical angles which the court is taking under advisement. The state was represented at the hearing by District Attorney George Godding.

Interests in Trials.
Both trials were held at the last term of court and both attracted considerable local interest. The former prison record of Corey was one of the main items of the state's case and he is well known in the north end of the county.

The trial of Glenn attracted even more interest. He was alleged to have single-handedly attempted a noon hour robbery of the Central Point bank. Glenn claimed in his defense that the crime was committed by two strangers he had "picked up near Vorheis crossing" an hour or so before the crime, and that they "knocked him out with a blow on the head," and attempted the bank robbery, later shifting the blame to him. He denied any part in the landlady. He was fairly well known in this city.

SOVIET SOLDIERS SHOOT PEASANTS

VILNA, Poland, Dec. 30.—(AP) Reports brought here today by a group of Russian peasants who had crossed the soviet border said they and a number of others confined to a concentration camp awaiting deportation to Siberia had been fired upon by soviet soldiers when they attempted to escape.

Forty prisoners were killed or wounded, they said. About sixty were in the group which came here. They had been sentenced to Siberia, they said, for resisting collectivization measures.
