

The Week's Society Happenings

Edited By
Eva Nealon

Miss Murrel Finley Weds Mr. Cronjager in New York City

Of special interest to local society is the announcement received by wire yesterday of the marriage of Miss Murrel Finley, daughter of Mrs. William Stewart of Medford and Mr. Edward Grundger of New York City, which was an event of New Year's day.

Miss Finley, who is known from coast to coast as "The Golden Girl" through her work on the stage and in recent motion picture productions, returned a short time ago from a several months tour of Europe. She made her home in Medford until she entered theatrical work and frequently returns to visit her mother and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Cronjager will leave New York this week for Hollywood, where they will reside in their Malibu beach home.

Bridge Tea Given Younger Misses at Field Home Tuesday

The Misses Barbara Jean Field and Mildred Drury entertained on Tuesday afternoon with a bridge tea at the Field home for a number of their friends. Refreshments were served at a table beautifully decorated in cyclamen and red candles.

Guests were the Misses Evelyn Leonard, Lois Nichols, Gwendolyn Kraus, Joan DeLoach, Virginia English and Helen Stearns.

Mrs. J. R. Marshall Charming Hostess of Yuletide Season

Mrs. J. R. Marshall entertained at home, 1130 West Tenth street Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 5. There were two tables of bridge in play and the rooms were beautifully decorated to commemorate the Yuletide season.

First prize at bridge was won by Mrs. P. Parsons and consolation went to Mrs. Earl Littrell.

Others completing the party were Mesdames W. H. Wood, R. M. Moly, Lee Hunter, Stella Anderson, A. Littrell, and the hostess, Mrs. Marshall. Following cards refreshments were served.

Reception Plans to Be Made, Meeting Daughters of Nile

Zuleima Temple No. 13, Daughters of the Nile, will meet in the Medford Masonic temple on Saturday, January 10th, at 2 o'clock, following luncheon at the Hotel Holland at 12:30 p. m.

Mrs. C. T. Sweeney, presiding officer of Zuleima temple, is desirous of a good attendance at this first meeting of the year, as plans of the sewing club will be discussed and other business of importance disposed of.

Committees will be appointed and arrangements made for the reception of Supreme Queen Mrs. Katherine Rinta of Chicago, who will make her official visit at Ashland on February 4th. The officers for 1931 will be elected at the January meeting.

Miss Janes Hostess Bridge Tea Tuesday

Among the many delightful events of the week given in honor of the local younger set was the bridge tea at the Janes home, given by Miss Betty Janes Tuesday afternoon. Students home for the holidays were among the guests. There were three tables of bridge in play and prize for high score was won by Miss Elizabeth Swigart.

Guests were Misses Fredericka Brommer, Beulah Gore, Eilow Mae Wilson, Billy Hammond, Edna Mohr, Mary Hayes, Alice Holmback, Gertrude Haskins, Carita Gifford, Clara Mary Fuson and the Misses Elizabeth and Jean Swigart.

Miss Snider Enters University of Oregon

Miss Mary Snider, daughter of Mrs. John Snider, left Medford on Friday for Eugene, where she is entering the University of Oregon.

Unity Circle Will Meet on Monday

A meeting of Unity Circle has been announced for Monday night at 8 o'clock in the Jackson Hotel. Dr. M. T. Holgate will be the speaker of the evening.

Open House Lovely Event New Year's Day at Home of Rev. and Mrs. Porter

The home of Rev. and Mrs. Claude B. Porter was beautifully decorated in flowers—chrysanthemums, rosebuds and carnations for open house held on New Year's day from 2:00 until 5:00 o'clock. The flowers were sent for the occasion by Mrs. Biddle.

Two hundred guests called during the afternoon to enjoy the revival of a good old fashioned manner of welcoming the arrival of the new year.

Early Copy Desired

Publicity managers of all local clubs, organizations and other persons submitting news to the Sunday society pages are asked to bring in copy earlier in the week to insure its inclusion in the Sunday paper.

All copy marked "Sunday" will be held for the Sunday paper. Events held prior to Friday should be reported before 5 o'clock Friday evening if space is reserved Saturday for events held Friday night and Saturday. All early copy received will be much appreciated.

Mrs. Green Resigns As Club Treasurer, Loan Party Planned

Members of the Greater Medford club met at the city library Monday afternoon for a business session. The treasurer's report was read and approved as were the minutes and several bills.

A letter received from the Oregon Federated clubs was read and contained a request that the Medford club co-operate in the campaign to promote home industries.

Mrs. B. E. Green's resignation from the office of treasurer was read and accepted with regret by the membership. Mrs. Green gave ill health as her reason for resigning from office.

Plans for the scholarship loan party, which will be held at the Hotel Holland January 15th were discussed. Mrs. E. R. Stachwell is chairman of the event.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the Guild hall on January 26th and will be a musical tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Entertain During Holiday Season

Mrs. T. G. Travis, 1216 East Main street, has had as house guests during the holidays her sister, Mrs. Imogene Cochran of Los Angeles, and Mr. Travis' brother W. E. Travis and Mrs. Travis of Portland.

Open house was conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Travis New Year's day between 5 and 8 o'clock and their hospitality enjoyed by a large number of friends.

Garden Club Will Select Officers At Thursday Meeting

Annual election of officers will be the leading feature of the program at the meeting of the Medford Garden club, scheduled for Thursday, January 8th. Members will gather at the Hotel Medford at 7:30 o'clock.

Past Matrons Club Will Meet Monday

The Past Matrons club of Reames chapter will meet Monday, January 5th at 2:00 o'clock in the Masonic Temple.

The luncheon has been dispensed with for this meeting. Committees is composed of Mesdames L. Ray, I. H. Gove and Robt. Boyl.

Visiting matrons are welcome.

Study Club Invited Mrs. Deuel's Home

Members of the Wednesday Study club will meet Wednesday for guest day at the home of Mrs. S. K. Deuel on South Oakdale. A pleasing program has been arranged.

Miss Mitchell Will Meet With Y.W.C.A.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Y. W. C. A. will be held in the club room on Monday evening, January 5th at 7:30. Miss Helen Mitchell, the new secretary will be with us and a full attendance is desired.

Pattons Entertain New Year's Eve

One of the largest parties of New Year's eve was held at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Patton, Capitol Hill. Thirty-eight of their friends gathered there for dinner and dancing and watched the old year out and the new one in.

Mrs. Field Hostess to Guild Meeting

Members of the Crater Lake Guild will meet Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Bertha Field, 24 Crater Lake avenue, with Mrs. E. W. Shockley, Mrs. Church and Mrs. Nilsen, assistant hostesses.

Mrs. W. Howard will give a talk on Japan.

Miss Parsons Joins Mrs. Hardwell Here

Miss Mary Parsons arrived in Medford Wednesday from Seattle to accompany Miss Bet Bondwell on their return to Los Angeles, where both are students at the Marlborough school. Miss Parsons spent the holidays with her parents in Seattle.

Returns To Junior College

Homer Platt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Platt, left on the Shabo Saturday to resume his studies at Junior college in Sacramento.

During his stay here several informal affairs were given in his honor.

DuBuques Entertain New Year's Eve at Woodlawn Orchards

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. DuBuque entertained a number of their friends New Year's eve at their home, Woodlawn Orchards. Dancing and cards were enjoyed during the evening.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bates, Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Sanders, Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Mendenhall, Mrs. Holloway, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Van Dyke, Dr. R. W. Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. L. Alvin Tollefson, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jennings.

Wakefield Family Together for New Year's Eve Dinner

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wakefield was the scene of a family reunion and New Year's eve dinner party Wednesday. Dinner was followed by cards with three tables of five hundred in play.

Guests for the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Will Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wakefield, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Cook, Mr. Bashaw, Mrs. Cora Powell, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wakefield, and the Misses Vivian and Cecil Cook.

New Year's Eve Is Celebrated, Frolic at Hudson Home

Mesdames Oda Hudson, Grace Voss and Olive Parker were joint hostesses at a New Year's eve frolic at their home on North Oakdale. Dancing and music were enjoyed with a Spanish luncheon served at midnight. Twelve guests enjoyed their hospitality.

Mrs. Anderson Honor Guest on Friday At Luncheon and Bridge

Mrs. Albert E. Orr entertained a group of friends, honoring Mrs. M. B. Anderson of San Francisco, at a beautifully appointed luncheon at the Hotel Medford Friday, followed by three tables of contract bridge at her home.

Three prizes for low scores were awarded Mrs. Larry Schade, Mrs. J. C. Thompson and Mrs. C. T. Baker. A lovely guest prize was presented Mrs. Anderson.

Lady Lions Meet For Luncheon At E. M. Wilson Home

The Lady Lions will meet Wednesday, January 7th for a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. E. M. Wilson, 340 South Riverside. Assistant hostess will be Mrs. Edward Leach.

Miss Mitchell Will Meet With Y.W.C.A.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Y. W. C. A. will be held in the club room on Monday evening, January 5th at 7:30. Miss Helen Mitchell, the new secretary will be with us and a full attendance is desired.

Mrs. Smith Hostess For Nurses' Meeting On Thursday Evening

The Graduate Nurses' association will meet at the home of Mrs. Roland A. Smith, 423 Newtown, Thursday evening. Dinner will be served at 7:30 and will be followed by an interesting program.

Mr. and Mrs. Meeker Return From North

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Meeker returned Wednesday from an auto trip to Portland and Vancouver, Wash. They visited Mrs. Meeker's mother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Corey of Woodburn and called on several friends en route. While in Portland they enjoyed seeing the pageant of the Old Oregon Trail at the auditorium.

Gregory Home Scene Of New Year Party

Among the enjoyable New Year's parties held, was one given by Mr. and Mrs. Will Gregory of Agate. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Harve Dietrich and son Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Whiteside and son Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wood and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Smith.

Coe's Entertain New Year's Dinner

New Year's Eve Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Coe entertained at dinner Dr. W. H. Eaton of the First Baptist church, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Connor of Grants Pass and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Armstrong of this city were also dinner guests. New Year's day at the Coe home on Diskota avenue.

BEAUTY QUEEN CANDIDATE

Ida Elizabeth Cannon, daughter of Rep. and Mrs. Clarence Cannon of Missouri, is one of the candidates for beauty queen of the 1931 University of Missouri student yearbook. She is studying journalism and her home is in Elsberry, Mo.

Christmas Musical Is Given By Piano Pupils of Mrs. Bebb

On Tuesday afternoon a group of the piano pupils of Mrs. Royal Bebb were presented in a "Christmas musicale."

The program follows: "Adagio Fidiella," Carland; (four hands) Kathleen Dillard and Lois Herman. "The Clown," Fisher; Jack Thompson. "The Little Skyeptie," Spaulding; (song and accompaniment) Emmett Beeson. "Tixies' Good - Night Song," Brown; Telen Thompson. "The Dream Boat," Williams Why; (song and accompaniment) Gretchen McAllister. "Toymaker's Dream," (vocal duet) LaMurle and Fred Beck. "Silent Night," Cruder; (four hands) Earle and Warren Fichtner. "Bird's Frolic," Fontana; "Dolly's Lullaby," (song and accompaniment) Margaret Ruth Bolton. "Harp Echoes," Virgil; Lois Herman. "Melody from 'Oberon,'" Weber; (left hand piece) LaMurle Beck. "Gortrude's Dream," Beethoven; Fred Beck. "Serenade," Schubert; "The Waltzing Nymph," Spaulding; "A Wild Rose," McBowell; Kathleen Dillard.

At the conclusion of the program all present sang "Silent Night," elicited around the lighted tree, the accompaniment played by Jack Thompson.

Serving of refreshments completed the happy afternoon.

Sixth Anniversary Celebrated, Party On New Year's Eve

In honor of their sixth wedding anniversary Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henspeter entertained eighteen guests at a 7:00 o'clock tamale supper on December 31st at their home in Jacksonville.

The guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Seldon Hill and daughter Betty; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bowman of Central Point; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boyden, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Arnold and daughters Norma and Bernadine, Zoia Arnold and daughter Blanche of Medford.

A mock wedding was a feature of the evening's entertainment.

Mesdames Judd and Watkins Entertain

Mrs. E. H. Judd and Mrs. F. A. Watkins were joint hostesses at a New Year's dinner party at the Judd home, 4411 King street.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Stennitt and George Bourne of Phoenix; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Watkins and daughter, Evelyn Jean, Mrs. Elliott Smylie, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Judd and Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Watkins of Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bourne of Seattle, who are spending the holidays here.

Younger Set Enjoys Cards Fabrick Home

Among members of the younger set, who have entertained during the holidays is Miss Jeanne Fabrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fabrick, who was hostess at a bridge party Tuesday afternoon.

Guests were Misses Peggy Miller, Justine Miller, Adra Edwards, Helen Edmonston, Mary Edmonston, Myrtle Hethland, Carol Dodge, Vera Livett, Flora McMath, Louise Brommer, Patricia Hayes and Anha Mae Pison.

Shockleys Home From Holiday Trip

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Shockley returned Thursday night from three weeks' motor trip through California and Arizona, enjoyed during the holiday season. In addition to visiting many scenic points in the southwest they were also guests of relatives and friends for several days.

Schoffels Return From Idaho

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schoffel and little son Jimmy, returned to this city Friday from Rupert, Idaho, where they spent the holidays with relatives.

Mrs. Feasley Gives Dinner Dance, Home New Year's Eve

Mrs. Marjorie Feasley invited 22 friends to her home on Crown avenue New Year's eve to watch the old year out. Dinner and dancing were enjoyed.

Reception Honoring Miss Mitchell Held Y. W. C. A. Friday

A delightful event of Friday evening was the reception held by directors of the Y. W. C. A. as a welcome to Miss Helen Mitchell, new secretary of the Y. W. C. A.

An interesting feature of the program was the group of songs sung by Miss Lewis of Seattle, who is a guest in this city for the holiday season. Miss Lewis was presented at the reception by Mrs. B. B. Bryant.

General plans for the coming year were discussed and the need for numerous activities, which will bring the girls of Medford in closer contact with the Y. W. C. A. emphasized by Miss Mitchell.

Directors present for the reception were Mesdames W. S. Gilmore, R. A. Koppes, A. L. Clement, B. R. Bryant, W. A. Holloway, W. F. Campbell, A. J. Anderson, E. Iverson, Eva Mains Carlow, L. C. Mulholland, Harry Nordwick, C. H. Porter and I. H. Gove.

Mrs. Nichols Honor Guest Bridge Party At Pennington Home

Monday afternoon Mrs. Laurence Pennington entertained for Mrs. O. O. Nichols of Klamath Falls, formerly of this city. Bridge was played at two tables. High score was held by Mrs. Harry DuBuque, and low by Mrs. Sanders.

Guests were: Mrs. Harry Prentiss, Mrs. Henry Bates, Mrs. Harry DuBuque, Mrs. Sanders, Mrs. D. W. Stone, Mrs. Ralph Jennings and Mrs. J. J. Nichols.

Dancing And Bridge Follow Dinner Party On Saturday Evening

Sixteen guests were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Pennington on the Jacksonville road Saturday evening. Dinner, bridge and dancing were enjoyed as well as a beautiful Christmas tree, laden with amusing gifts for all guests. Mr. Henderson and son, Herman, of Eugene were special guests and entertained the group with piano and violin numbers.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Marc Jarman, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Al Littrell, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Tyree, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Nichols, Dr. A. E. Dodson and Miss Dorothy Carles.

Birthdays Observed With Holiday Party

Betty Jane and Lawrence Pennington Jr., entertained with a birthday party Tuesday afternoon. Their birthdays being on Christmas Eve and New Year's Day they celebrated together. Games and contests were the diversions for the afternoon. Guests were: Joan and Maxine Guyer, Mary Louise McElhose, Katherine Mead, Elaine Brophy, Betty Anne Wakefield, Raymond Rineberger, Glen Stewart, Russell Ulrich, Harvey Fields Jr., Dorrt Barrett, Max Nichols, Donald Root.

Roberts Entertain With Dinner Party

Among the many pleasant events of the holiday season was a dinner party given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts at their lovely home on Crown hill. Covers were placed for 20 guests.

Pajama Party Entertainment Of New Year's Eve

Miss Marjorie Mulholland, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Mulholland, entertained a group of friends with a dinner and pajama party Wednesday night.

Will Return To School

Richard Wood, a student of Polytechnic College of Engineering at Oakland, Cal., will return to school today after spending the holidays with his aunt, Mrs. Elber Weed.

Virgin Wool Sweaters

Coat and slip-on styles. Buy one at regular price. Take another for 5c
The Men's Shop
Next to Rialto Theatre

Annual Luncheon Is Planned By College Women for Saturday

The College Women's club is completing plans for the annual luncheon to be held at the Hotel Medford Saturday, January 10th at 1 o'clock. All members wishing to make reservations are asked to call Mrs. Leland Mentzer, 927 N. W. Robert Hammond will review "That Man, Dawsen," by Paul Leach. Mrs. Elsie Carlton Strang, accompanied by Mrs. Eva Marsh will sing several numbers.

C. A. R. Are Guests Of Lela Henderson At Tuesday Meeting

General Joseph Lane society, C. A. R., was entertained by little Lela Henderson on Tuesday, December 30. During the business hour the society voted to purchase some article needed at Champoog and present this at the dedication of the Memorial building on January 14th, which several of the members are planning to attend.

The society also expects to contribute to the four projects sponsored by the national society. The treasurer's report showed $2.96 received from the birthday offering and candy sale. This with the dues now coming in will enable the organization to carry out plans.

The following program was given: "The Origin of the Yule Log" by Carol Dodge; "Christmas Hymns" was ably explained by Margaret Childers, Christmas observances in Holland and Germany were described by Elizabeth and Frances Ferry.

Mexico's new Santa Claus, Quetzal Cotzal, who was the Aztec God, now being adopted as the Santa Claus, was the subject covered by Barbara Holt.

A request for wash cloths and tooth brushes was read by Ruth D'Albini.

An article, "When American History Hung on a Woman's Word," recently received by Mrs. DuBuque, Mrs. Sanders, Mrs. D. W. Stone, Mrs. Ralph Jennings and Mrs. J. J. Nichols.

Marriage of Local Couple Announced

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Lanier Hanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Hansen, and Mr. William Heath, was made in this city Wednesday. The wedding was an event of December 18th in Klamath Falls, the Rev. Theodore Smith, reading the service.

Mr. and Mrs. Heath will make their home in this city, where both are active members of society. The bride is a graduate of the Sacred Heart hospital school of nursing and Mr. Heath is a member of the Associated Oil company staff.

Miss Kelly Honored At Informal Party

Complimenting Miss Marjory Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kelly, who is in this city to spend the holidays, Mrs. Edward Kelly entertained with two tables of bridge at her home on Tuesday evening. Miss Kelly is supervisor of physical education in the Albany schools.

Miss Kelly Honored At Informal Party

Miss Mary Swigart and house guest, Miss Hazel Graber, and the Messrs. Elliott Ayres and Robert Scott of San Francisco, who have also been house guests at the C. A. Swigart home during the holidays will leave today by motor. Miss Elizabeth Swigart will return to Oregon State college, Corvallis to resume her school work.

Luncheon and Cards Enjoyed By Members Local Pan Hellenic

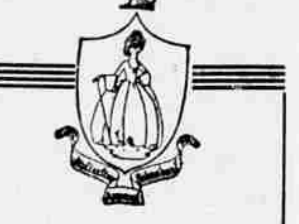

A 1:00 o'clock luncheon at the Hotel Medford was enjoyed yesterday afternoon by members of Pan Hellenic. Following luncheon bridge was played at the home of Mrs. Aletha Vawter, who was assisted as hostess by Mrs. Stephen Nye.

Yuletide Party Is Event at Bebb Home On Saturday Evening

In celebration of the Yuletide season, Mr. and Mrs. Royal E. Bebb entertained with a dinner party at their home on Saturday evening. Covers were laid for twelve and the appointments were beautifully selected, indicative of the holiday season. The entertainment of the evening was divided between moving pictures of some of the party, shown by Horace Bromley, "ping-pong" and dancing. A Russian dance in costume was presented by La Marie Beck as a feature.

Dinner Party Enjoyed At Hanby Home

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hanby entertained at dinner Friday evening at their home on North Hill. Covers were placed for eight. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Crows, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Meeker, Mrs. Maud Chapman and Mrs. Laura West.

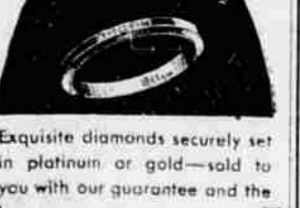

Prints

1931 Spring Prints are signing on the dotted line... and the dots aren't all round, either. Diamond shaped dots are taking the place of round dots... The white dot on a dark background is a new development of the season, one which emphasizes the lingerie touch of white collars and cuffs.

ARRIVING DAILY!!!
SPRING DRESSES
SPRING COATS
SPRING HATS

A DIAMOND CIRCLET - FIT FOR A PRINCESS!

Exquisite diamonds securely set in platinum or gold—sold to you with our guarantee and the "Symbol of Certainty" in Value, Style, and Craftsmanship. Marked in the Ring and on the Tag.

ADRIENNE'S
"Distinctive Individual Apparel for Women"