HAMILTON, Bermuda, Jan. 7.—(AP)—The monoplane Tradewind arrived here at 1:55 p.m. The graceful white ship, carrying Mrs. Beryl Hart and Lieut. William S. MacLaren, skimmed down to a pretty landing in Hamilton harbor at 12:55 E. S. T.

HAMPTON ROADS NAVAL AIR STATION, Va., Jan. 7.—(AP)—The sleek white monoplane "Tradewind," carrying a youthful red-headed widow and the man who taught her to fly, streaked away in the darkness today on a flight via Bermuda and the Azores to Paris, carrying a pay cargo.

With the 300-horsepower motor roaring, Mrs. Beryl Hart and Lieutenant William S. MacLaren took the air at 6 a. m. MacLaren was at the controls. It was their second takeoff on the flight and the fliers expressed belief that "Lady Luck," who deserted them on the attempt last Saturday, had smiled on the effort. There was evidence in the form of a quartering tailwind. The weather was clear.

Share Pilot Duty.

Mrs. Hart, who holds an unlimited transport license, entrusted the takeoff to her companion, the navigator of the flight, but expected to pilot the plane most of the way. She was smiling and confident as she took her place in the monoplane, after expressing her thanks to naval fliers for the welcome and assistance given them since Saturday when they brought the "Tradewind" down here after an unsuccessful effort to locate Bermuda in a 16-hour flight from New York.

The fliers had a new sextant to replace the one damaged shortly after their takeoff from New York.

POLICE REPORT ARREST OF 300 IN RECENT YEAR

Busy Days For Local Department Shown in Detailed Resume to Council By Chief McCredie.

The annual report of Chief of Police Chelsea McCredie submitted to the city council for the general police department and the city traffic department shows that the local police had a busy year.

In the general police department 300 arrests were made resulting in $1899 in fines being assessed. In 57 of these cases jail sentences of 15 days were imposed, and in 44 drunk arrests sentences of 10 days in jail were imposed. A total of 181 arrests were made and prisoners turned over to the sheriff, and 47 cases were either dismissed or prisoners sent out of the city. The police made 244 chronicled investigations, and in addition hundreds more of a trivial nature, which for lack of a desk sergeant were not recorded.

There were two holdups during 1930, one of a bank and the other of a hamburger stand. There were 48 burglaries, 189 cases of petty larceny, 19 cases of runaway girls, lost boys and girls, 47 stolen bicycles, and 47 stolen cars, two of which were not recovered.

City Traffic Arrests

The city traffic department report relates that 241 arrests for traffic violations were made in 1930, including five cases of driving while intoxicated, the persons arrested each serving 10 days in the county jail and paying a $100 fine.

The total traffic fines for 1930 amounted to $1874.50, and operators licenses cancelled during the year amounted to 179 days. Arrests for parking over one hour numbered 731, there were 18 arrests for parking over one hour, failure to stop at stop signs, seven for insufficient brakes, 12 for speeding, 12 for reckless driving, 19 for parking in an alley, 122 for operating without a tail light, and 13 for operating a car with one headlight.

WIDOW ROWLEY ASKS CITY FOR WATER CLAIMS

Alleged Owner of Big Butte Rights Renews Plea For Financial Relief in Advanced Age.

During the business session of the old council last night a number of sewer, street and sidewalk assessment ordinances were passed and a written plea was received from Isabelle Rowley, widow of Captain R. A. Rowley asking that the council give a measure of financial relief for her in recompense for the claimed rights to the city water source held by her husband.

This claim had been a familiar one in the city history for many years past, as it was contested in the courts successfully up to the supreme court by the city in a number of suits.

The typewritten plea of Mrs. Rowley presented last night was a plaintive one, and after being read was ordered placed on file. It reviewed much of the history of the long litigation and related that the aged woman is in almost destitute circumstances and that in her advanced years "my humble home is now being taken away from me by mortgage foreclosure on Jan. 10." She charged that "my interests have been used as a political football for years past," and asks that "some measure of consideration may be paid to my prayer for financial remuneration and assistance, which is justly due me. I have been denied my heritage. Will you consider my plea for a just recompense for that which Medford now claims, but which is mine."

It will be remembered that Earl H. Fehl was instrumental in bringing the various unsuccessful suits during the long litigation.

PHOTOGRAPHIC ART SHOWN AT HOTEL

A traveling loan exhibit of the work of some of the best photographers in the United States and Canada has been placed on display in the Hotel Medford lobby, and will be open to the public for the next two weeks. The same exhibit was shown at the national photographers' convention in Milwaukee, Wis., last August and consists of 30 prints of portrait and commercial work. It was brought to Medford through the efforts of A. J. Anderson, secretary of the Southern Oregon Photographers' association, and B. R. Harwood, chairman of the exhibit committee. The association will hold its annual meeting next Tuesday evening at the Hotel Medford, to elect officers and transact business matters. A banquet will be held at 7 o'clock.
