Found Coal in Well
When digging a well a few days ago on his place in the Sams Valley section, Earl Weaver ran into quite a vein of coal, he reported when in Medford yesterday. He planned to explore the coal further, but water came into the well so rapidly that it has practically filled up the hole. Mr. Weaver is planning to operate a centrifugal pump this week to pump the well dry and continue his coal explorations.

CARDON PLEADERS CALL ON NORBLAD
SALEM, Ore., Jan. 9.—(AP) More than 200 persons seeking pardons for prisoners in the state penitentiary have called upon Governor A. W. Norblad within the past three days, and requests have been so numerous, the governor stated, he has had to cut off his telephone at night so he could get some sleep, he announced today.

The governor is considering five cases in which he has devoted some study in past months, he said, an announcement relative to those are expected in the next day or two.

SPANIARD STUDIES FARMING METHODS
GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP)—A Spanish student has entered the University of Florida to study subtropical farming as it is carried on in America.

He is A. C. Pascual, a graduate of two institutions in his own country. He will do special research in the growing of cotton and tobacco.

Pascual was admitted to the university here under an exchange of scholarships and fellowships arranged by the Institute of Inter-American Affairs at the school, in cooperation with the Institute of International Education in New York. Pascual is Florida's first Spanish student under the plan.

New Jail Needed
ALBANY, Ore., Jan. 9.—(AP) Recommendation that the county jail here be remodeled or a new one constructed, and approval of the practices of Sheriff Shelton in feeding county prisoners, was made in the report of the county grand jury, instructed by Judge L. H. Mahan to investigate the situation.

Oregon Flier Killed
SANDWICH, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Samuel F. Garper of Burns, Ore., a naval air pilot, drowned yesterday when his plane crashed into a derrick at Pearl Harbor and sank in many feet of water. The plane was engaged in target practice.

The American Legion post at Lowell, Mich., will plant 30,000 pine trees this year.

RADIO MAKING YOUTH TAKE LIFE SERIOUSLY
LONDON (AP)—British youngsters are thinking about more serious things than formerly, Commander Stephen King-Hall believes after slogging his juvenile correspondents received as the result of months of radio talks to the children.

The children are not thinking about things today that they thought of five, ten or 20 years ago, King-Hall said, and backs his statement with the letters.

Far and away out in front in the letters received were requests for discussion of the Indian Round Table conference and the unemployment situation, the lecturer revealed.

ROME SOCIETY WEARS TIGHTS AND TOP HATS
ROME—(AP) Tights and cylinders are required this season at all big Italian social or governmental functions in the daytime. Invitations, beautifully engraved are going around with the words "Tights with cylinders are obligatory" in the lower left corner.

Americans who received such invitations for the first time gasped until they learned that "tights" referred to the close fit of the English morning coat. And the cylinder—yes, that's it, a top hat.

FOUR INJURED WHEN STAGE TOPPLES OVER
THE DALLES, Ore., Jan. 9.—(AP) Four persons were slightly injured this morning when a west-bound Union Pacific stage rolled over on its side after having been crowded off the highway by a truck near Rowena on the Columbia River highway. There were 17 passengers aboard.

COMMUNICATION
We are pleased to announce that in a lien filed by J. H. Insull, involving certain property being sold by Mrs. and Mrs. J. H. Insull under contract, we in no manner doubted the integrity or financial standing of either Mr. or Mrs. Insull, for whom we have the highest regard, and in whom we have implicit confidence, and whose financial standing is beyond question, but filed said lien merely as a matter of business convenience in connection with the carrying of the account for the purchaser under the contract, and are pleased to state that the matter has been settled and adjusted between ourselves and the Insulls in an entirely satisfactory manner; and we are pleased to publish this little explanation in fairness to the public.

Respectfully submitted,
PORTER LUMBER COMPANY,
By Geo. W. Porter.
